

KUEHNLE ROUTED IN CONGRESS FIGHT IN ATLANTIC COUNTY

Assemblyman Emerson L. Richards, the Commodore's Candidate, Badly Beaten by Bacharach.

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 23.—Rout of Kuehnleism was absolute in yesterday's test of strength between the Bacharach forces, working in conjunction with the new organization of the City Commission and the remnant of the once powerful organization that did the bidding of the "Commodore."

Assemblyman Emerson L. Richards, the Commodore's candidate for Congress, was defeated by 1414 votes in the city, Bacharach carrying all but eight of the 43 divisions. The Kuehnle forces lost the Second Ward, the Commodore's home division, by 276, Richards losing five of the nine divisions.

The routed Assemblyman made a better showing in the mainland districts, and with all but five districts accounted for, Bacharach's lead will not exceed 1250.

SCOVEL SUFFERS CRUSHING DEFEAT AT HANDS OF HAINES

City and County Republicans Support Camden Councilman for Sheriff. Running on a platform condemning Organization rule, ex-Prosecutor Henry S. Scovel yesterday at the primary election suffered a crushing defeat in his fight for the Republican nomination for Sheriff of Camden County.

John B. Kates, Garfield Pancoast and Charles A. Wolverson were nominated for Assembly on the Republican ticket in one of the closest races that ever marked a Camden primary.

Business marked the race for the five places on the Republican ticket for excise commissioners. There were sixteen aspirants for the nomination.

The most stubborn fight for Council on the Republican ticket was in the Eleventh Ward, where Edward Heimach defeated Fred Von Neida by four votes.

Democrats showed little interest in the primary, their vote being very light.

ROOSEVELT PRAISES STAND TAKEN BY U. S. IN EUROPEAN WAR

Writes in Outlook That Present Neutrality Will Aid Work of Peace When Time Comes.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—In the current number of the Outlook, which made its appearance today, Theodore Roosevelt, who was formerly a contributing editor, discusses the European conflagration in an article entitled:

"The world war; its tragedies and its lessons." Colonel Roosevelt records the claims and counter claims of the belligerent Powers and expresses profound gratitude that the United States, of all the great civilized nations, "stands unshaken by the present world-wide war."

"Peace which leaves Belgium's wrongs unredressed and which does not have any effect against a recurrence such as those from which she has suffered, would not be real peace."

On the attitude of the United States, Colonel Roosevelt writes: "What action our Government can and will take I know not. It has been announced that no action can be taken that will interfere with neutrality. It is certainly eminently desirable that we should remain entirely neutral, and nothing but urgent need would warrant from our neutrality and taking sides one way or the other."

"Neutrality may be of prime necessity in order to preserve our own interests, to maintain peace in so much as we are not affected by the war and to conserve our help toward the re-establishment of general peace when the time comes; for if any outside power is able at such a time to be the medium for bringing peace it is more likely to be the United States than any other. But we pay the penalty for this action on behalf of peace for ourselves and possibly for others in the future by forfeiting our right to do anything on behalf of peace for the Belgians in the present."

"We can maintain our neutrality only by refusal to do anything to aid unoffending weak powers which are dragged into the gulf of bloodshed and misery through no fault of their own. It would be folly for us to jump into the gulf ourselves in no good purpose; and very probably nothing that we could have done would have helped Belgium."

Discussing the cause and provocations which led to the war, Colonel Roosevelt recites the claims and counter claims of each of the warring nations. Russia, he thinks, could not have done otherwise than to aid Serbia, because of the racial ties existing between them. Germany was led on by her close alliance to Austria-Hungary. France was led on to support Russia and "when once Belgium was invaded every circumstance of national honor forced England to act as she did."

"At this moment, for instance, Japan has declared war against Germany. She has paid scrupulous regard to our own rights and feelings in the matter. The contention that she is acting in a spirit of mere disinterested altruism need not be considered. She believes that she has wrongs to redress and strong national interests to defend. Six years ago Germany joined with Russia to check Japan's progress after her victorious war with China, and since then itself built up a German colonial possession on Japanese soil. Doubtless Japan never for one moment has forgotten this act of Germany."
