

1914 FOOTBALL SEASON USHERED IN WITH SPLENDID PROGRAM FOR OPENING DAY

FRESHIES AT PENN HAVE BIG TIME IN MORNING CONTEST

First Freshman Eleven After Lots of Struggling, Manages to Score a Lone Touchdown.

The Pennsylvania-Gettysburg football game this afternoon at Franklin Field was not only the only local gridiron game of today.

Freshmen Coach Lou Young tutored the first freshman team and Jack Keough the second team.

John Diggin, quarterback on the Tacoma High School team, reported this morning for the freshman football team.

MRS. E. H. FITLER OVERCOMES BIG LEAD AND WINS

Captures Berthelmy Cup From Mrs. Caleb Fox After Being 3 Down at Turn. Final Score 2 Up and 1 to Play.

NOBLE, Pa., Sept. 26.—Mrs. Edwin H. Fitler, Merion Cricket Club, today won the Berthelmy Cup in the annual invitation tournament at the Huntingdon Valley Country Club.

In order to win this coveted trophy, Mrs. Fitler had to beat three of the best women golfers in this section.

Mrs. Fox, who led for most of the day, was overtaken by Mrs. Fitler in the final round.

NEW YORK GOLFERS WIN FOURSOMES IN LESLEY CUP TESTS

Massachusetts Representatives Are Defeated in Finals Today, 3 Matches to 2, at Short Hills.

SHORT HILLS, N. J., Sept. 26.—Metropolitans took the lead in the foursomes over Massachusetts by three matches to two in the final contest for the Lesley Cup over the links of the Baltusrol Golf Club today.

John G. Anderson and Samuel K. Sterne won over Jerome D. Travers and Gilman P. Tiffany in a match that went to the home hole.

Two down by the time the third was reached, but through fighting hard they leveled the match at the turn.

There on it was a see-saw affair with the Bostonians winning the seventeenth and having the eighteenth for the match.

Max E. Marston and Gardner W. White won on the home green from Ray R. Gordon and W. C. Chick.

They were all even in the turn with many halved holes, and the Metropolitan pair, through good golf, won two out of the next four holes.

This margin was reduced by one when the seventeenth was reached, and half at the eighteenth left Marston and White winners by 1 up.

Marston and White beat Gordon and Chick 1 up.

AMONG THE ARRIVALS

THE BOSTON RED SOX, NURSING A FAINT PENNANT HOPE, TACKLED THE BROWNS YESTERDAY AND WERE THROWN BACK FOR A 10 TO 1 LOSS.

THE BROWNS BROKE WALTER JOHNSON'S WINNING STREAK LAST YEAR. THEY BROKE THE WASHINGTON TEAM'S WINNING STREAK, BRUCE JOHNSON'S RUTHLESS RECORD, BEAT NAPS OUT OF THE 1908 PENNANT AND HAVE PERFORMED OTHER STUNTS ALONG THE SAME LINES.

THE "POP-EYED" DODGERS HAVE WON TEN GAMES IN A ROW. DO THEY THINK THIS IS JUNE?

DESPITE THE FACT THAT LAJOIE AND WAGNER HAVE BEEN "REPLACED" BY A DOZEN YOUTHS, IT'S A PRETTY SAFE BET THEY'LL BE BACK AT THEIR OLD STATIONS NEXT YEAR.

STANLEY ROOT, THE FORMER PENN CROSS-COUNTRY CHAMPION, WHO HAS IN LATE YEARS BEEN RUNNING UNDER THE COLORS OF MERCY COLLEGE, HAS BEEN ENGAGED TO ASSIST COACH ORTON IN DEVELOPING THE RED AND BLUE'S HILL AND DALE MEN. ROOT IS A GREAT STUDENT OF THE RUNNING GAME AND WILL BE A VALUABLE ASSET TO PENN.

THE NATIONAL COMMISSION WILL SOON HAVE TO CHANGE ITS DRAFT RULES, INASMUCH AS THE IMPORTERS ARE NOW OUT OF BUSINESS.

IF YESTERDAY'S CROWD AT THE PHILLY PARK IS A FAIR SAMPLE OF WHAT IS TO BE FOR THE REST OF THE SEASON, CRAVATH NEED HAVE NO FEAR THAT HE WILL HIT ANY SPECTATORS WITH HOME RUN DRIVES IN THE BLEACHERS.

EITHER THE NATIONAL COMMISSION OR THE BASEBALL WRITERS' ASSOCIATION SHOULD PROMULGATE SOME DEFINITE RULES WITH REGARD TO THE LEADING BATSMAN OF THE LEAGUES. IT IS NOT FAIR FOR TY COBB TO BE AWARDED THIS HONOR YEAR AFTER YEAR WHEN HE PARTICIPATES IN SO FEW GAMES, CONTRASTING WITH PLAYERS WHO WILL NOT HAVE BEEN IN MANY MORE THAN HALF THE GAMES, WHILE SUCH PLAYERS AS EDDIE COLLINS AND JOE JACKSON ARE IN NEARLY ALL THE GAMES, RATED AS THE BEST ONLY ONE GAME THIS YEAR, HENCE HE DESERVES MORE FOR BEATING 355, FOR EXAMPLE, THAN COBB DOES FOR HITTING AT THE RATE OF 365. SOME DEFINITE RULES SHOULD BE MADE UP, WHICH WOULD NOT BE TOO MANY, AND IF A MAN DID NOT PLAY IN THAT NUMBER OF TESTS HE SHOULD NOT BE CONSIDERED.

"WILD BILL" DONOVAN LED THE PROVIDENCE CLUB AT A FAST CLIP THIS SEASON, AND AFTER A GRUELING RACE WAS WON OUT OF THE HAND OF PHILLY'S "JACK" DUNN, WHO MANAGED THE INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE, WITH THE EXCEPTION OF "JACK" DUNN.

JUMPER CRANE TO BE VALUABLE MAN FOR PENN'S SQUAD

Holder of World's Interscholastic Record Will Be Most Welcome Since Crack High Jumpers Are Scarce.

Albert Crane, of Tacoma, holder of the world's interscholastic high jump record, has reported to Track Coach Orton at the University of Pennsylvania.

Crane has figured in several high jumping contests along the Pacific coast. At Chicago last year he won first place in the interscholastic high jump.

He promises to break some of the collegiate records in this event. Crane played out on the Tacoma High School football team, but does not intend to play this year.

Crane's style of high jumping is what is termed "straight over," which consists of a running high jump and dive.

"Ted" Meredith, world's holder of the quarter-mile record, returned to Penn yesterday morning. Meredith is in the pink of condition.

Lawrence B. Huston, captain of Penn's cross-country team, has issued a call for candidates to report next Tuesday. This order includes varsity men as well as freshmen. Donald Lippincott, captain of the track team, has also issued a call.

PERSONAL TOUCHES IN SPORT

Since baseball first became a game "piano legs" has been the name for guys with hefty pins.

Maine they used it time and time again on geeks who used whitebait shine. I guess you fans'll all agree that monker fits Birdie Cree, that comeback on the Yanks.

For Birdie is the peer today of all the guys who have that way of runnin' all to shanks.

But Birdie's legs don't get him much. It's more the way he swings that crutch for onetime peerless Chance. His wallops have the safe hit sound an' when he whirrs his stick around the fielders start to dance.

The Yanks don't stack 'em in the race, but that ain't Birdie Frank's disgrace. He gives 'em all his 'st. He just keeps up his lusty bluff—it doesn't seem to matter if the whole team goes to pot.

Frank got his start in Washington. Not D. C., no, we mean the one in J. K. Tener's State. This chunky little gent came through an' went up to the New York crew in nineteen-hundred-eight.

Last year Chance thought he'd got too slow an' shipped him down to old Baltimore. This year 'Chance thought again. He thought he'd better change his mind. So he thought 'em up. Frankie Cree was signed by Frankie Chance's pen—courtesy by A. M. Corrigan.

"Gunbat" Smith and "Cyclone Johnny" Thompson have been matched to fight six rounds next Monday night at the Duquesne Garden, Pittsburgh, and the sportsmen at that location should be all the more in their glory.

On paper this promised battle is the best that has come to our attention for some time.

Imagine old Methusalem with his beard down to his knees and his locks of snowy whiteness all rippling in the breeze; his face all rough with wrinkles, his eyes, his hair, his nose, all red and rheumy from his most exceeding age—imagine this description, and there you are, bin' bin' with a picture of Bat Nelson as he totters in the ring.

Here is the evidence that the Braves' pitchers are crackin': September 25—James; Cincinnati, 2; September 26—James; Cincinnati, 3; September 27—Rudolph; Cincinnati, 6; September 28—Rudolph; Cincinnati, 6.

Those St. Louis Browns are up to their old tricks of "bustin'" winning streaks.

THE GOLFERS' AFTERMATH A recent incident calls to mind several repetitions of the unusual that occurred in the Bala tournament. In four instances the winners were lost on the 18th green, which in this case was the ninth, and each match was won and lost under similar circumstances.

Both players drove the green which calls for a mulligan shot. In each instance the man who was one down putted first and hung on the edge of the cup for a sure three. This made it necessary for the man who was one up to get a two or a three to win the match. In all cases the two was tried for and resulted in knocking the opponent's ball into the cup for a two, while the "putter" if by the word may be used, had to take a three and the match was over.

ST. JOSEPH'S HAS LOST MANY STARS BY GRADUATION

Coach Kennedy Will Start Season Minus Such Men as Yates, Gribben, Leckie and Kelly, But Material Is Good.

The St. Joseph's College football team has begun work for the season of 1914, with the veterans Mahony, Donnelly, Spearling, Henderson, Denney and Byrne as a nucleus about which to build a team.

Many new men have reported and are seeking the places left vacant by the graduation of Yates, "Gene" Gribben, Leckie and "Ed" Kelly, stars of former seasons.

O'Neill, Hickey and Northrup are displaying mid-season form. Wiegand is a lanky back, is impressing Coach Kennedy by his line plunging and forward passing.

Among the other new men who reported to Captain Arthur Mahony, the following are worthy of notice: Kelly, Doyle, Fearon, Martin, King, White, Bennis, Leuchner, Miller, Penney, Lyons, Anderson, McNally and Hoban.

The schedule is not yet complete, but the following games have been arranged: October 2, open; October 10, Wrentham Military Academy, away; October 17, Atlantic City High School, away; October 23, Northeast High, away; October 30, Central High, away; November 12, open; November 19, Brown Prep, home; November 26 (Thanksgiving Day), Georgetown (pending).

RACING AT TRENTON

Annual Fair at New Jersey's Capital Begins on Monday.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—Entry blanks for the running races at the coming week-end fair to be held at Trenton, N. J., beginning Monday and ending with the program of October 1, were distributed among the horsemen at Kingsboro track yesterday.

There will be given a day, covering a period of four days. The purses are to be $150 a race, and no entrance fee will be charged.

The rules of the Jersey Club will govern the running of all races. Horace P. Murphy, the racing secretary, is in charge at this fair, and he expects high-class racing and interesting contests.

H. D. Conkling, who is clerk of the scales, said yesterday that many of the horsemen now racing at the Empire City track had announced their intention of shipping to Trenton.

Arrangements are now being made to accommodate the large crowd that is expected to attend. Special trains and trolleys will be added to the regular service.

CAREY GETS AN EVEN BREAK

Substitute for Yelle Holds Freddy Kelly to Draw.

Fred Yelle, of Boston, refused to meet Freddy Kelly, of this city, in the wind-up at the Kensington A. C. last night, when the latter turned the scales at 142 pounds instead of 150, at which the match was made.

An effort was made to have Tommy Carey meet Yelle, but Carey was also too heavy to meet the Boston boy, and was pitched against Kelly. They boxed six uninteresting rounds with honors about even at the end.

KENSINGTON SHOW AT FRANKFORD TO BE RECORD MAKER

Entry List Is Heaviest in History of Club, Which Today Stages Its Fifth Annual Event.

The fifth annual all-breed dog show of the Kensington Kennel Club at the Seven Stars Hotel, Frankford, today brought one of the heaviest entries in the history of the club.

The officials to pass out the awards at this exhibition are as follows: Harry Rushton, English, French and miniature bulldogs; Fred Smith, Cocker, St. Louis, I. L., collies; Charles Byers, Frankford, pointers, setters and beagles; Doctor Hartman, Philadelphia, St. Bernards, Great Danes and Russian wolfhounds; Mrs. W. W. MacLeod, Philadelphia, white toy poodles, maltese terriers, Yorkshire terriers and Pomeranians, and Joseph Brethrick, of Darby, all remaining breeds.

Nearly 500 specials were offered for the 22 breeds represented. Quite a few of these specials were for English bulldogs, with the white toy poodles running a close second. There were also many valuable prizes offered for Airedales.

PENN-GETTYSBURG FOOTBALL GAME

Continued from Page 1. next kick-off that the ball went over Gettysburg's goal line, and the visitors had to put the ball in play from scrimmage. Becker, who had been unable to gain on the first play and kicked on the next down to Erwin, who fumbled, and was downed by Hoar on the Quakers' 25-yard line. There had been unnecessary piling up on Erwin and Referee Langford gave Penn 15 yards for the offense. Jones sprinted ahead for 12 yards. Moffit made 3 yards in two plays and ahead for 5 yards. Jones took the ball on the next play for a six-yard plunge. A fumble by Hughes, which he recovered, lost the Quakers 4 yards. Moffit lost 5 yards on the next play. A forward pass was tried, with Murdoch on the receiving end, but McKee batted the ball down for Gettysburg. Here Matthews replaced Moffit in the Pennsylvania backfield and Marks took McKee's place on the Gettysburg team.

With 16 yards to go on the fourth down, Carter tried a place kick; but his kick was poor. Swope caught the ball and raked back to his 25-yard line. In two runs he made 3 yards in two plays, but Swope couldn't gain an inch, but on the next play he got around end for 5 yards.

He kicked to Irwin, who fumbled on the Quakers' 25-yard line. Matthews, on the next play, shot ahead for 4 yards. Here Hallour took Irwin's place at quarterback. Matthews took the ball again, and this time went ahead for 4 yards. Jones was thrown a yard short of a first down, but Matthews made it a first down by 3 yards through the line. Here the first half ended, with the ball at midfield. Score: Pennsylvania, 7; Gettysburg, 0.
