

HOLLENBACK AND STEVENSON WILL NOT BE CALLED TO COACH PENN FOOTBALL IN 1915

DR. CHARLES WHARTON WILL COACH LINE AT PENN NEXT SEASON

Sinkler Refuses to Give Name of Backfield Tutor, but Declares Neither Stevenson Nor Hollenback Will Be Selected by Red and Blue.

At Least Nine Men Will Compose Advisory Board Which Will Act in Capacity of Court of Last Resort on Gridiron Affairs—Doctor Wharton Is to Be Line Instructor.

The University of Pennsylvania's football coaching staff for 1915 is being gradually rounded out. Dr. Charles Wharton, of the class of 1896, yesterday announced that he had accepted the offer by the Pennsylvania committee and would have charge of the linemen. His acceptance was also confirmed by Wharton Sinkler, chairman of the committee. Doctor Wharton will also occupy a place on the Advisory Board.

TWO LONG SHOTS COME IN AT NEW ORLEANS

Sal Vanity and Best Bib and Tucker Win in First and Second Races.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 15.—Two long shots flashed past the judges winners in the first and second races here this afternoon. A record crowd was at the track drawn to the city by the Mardi Gras festivities.

In the first race Sal Vanity, at 5 to 1, landed the money, with Lewis Apper the favorite, second, and Paymaster third. Best Bib and Tucker, also at 5 to 1, landed the second event, beating out Jefferson and Kewpie.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 15.—Two long shots flashed past the judges winners in the first and second races here this afternoon. A record crowd was at the track drawn to the city by the Mardi Gras festivities.

In the first race Sal Vanity, at 5 to 1, landed the money, with Lewis Apper the favorite, second, and Paymaster third. Best Bib and Tucker, also at 5 to 1, landed the second event, beating out Jefferson and Kewpie.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 15.—Two long shots flashed past the judges winners in the first and second races here this afternoon. A record crowd was at the track drawn to the city by the Mardi Gras festivities.

In the first race Sal Vanity, at 5 to 1, landed the money, with Lewis Apper the favorite, second, and Paymaster third. Best Bib and Tucker, also at 5 to 1, landed the second event, beating out Jefferson and Kewpie.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 15.—Two long shots flashed past the judges winners in the first and second races here this afternoon. A record crowd was at the track drawn to the city by the Mardi Gras festivities.

In the first race Sal Vanity, at 5 to 1, landed the money, with Lewis Apper the favorite, second, and Paymaster third. Best Bib and Tucker, also at 5 to 1, landed the second event, beating out Jefferson and Kewpie.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 15.—Two long shots flashed past the judges winners in the first and second races here this afternoon. A record crowd was at the track drawn to the city by the Mardi Gras festivities.

In the first race Sal Vanity, at 5 to 1, landed the money, with Lewis Apper the favorite, second, and Paymaster third. Best Bib and Tucker, also at 5 to 1, landed the second event, beating out Jefferson and Kewpie.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 15.—Two long shots flashed past the judges winners in the first and second races here this afternoon. A record crowd was at the track drawn to the city by the Mardi Gras festivities.

In the first race Sal Vanity, at 5 to 1, landed the money, with Lewis Apper the favorite, second, and Paymaster third. Best Bib and Tucker, also at 5 to 1, landed the second event, beating out Jefferson and Kewpie.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 15.—Two long shots flashed past the judges winners in the first and second races here this afternoon. A record crowd was at the track drawn to the city by the Mardi Gras festivities.

In the first race Sal Vanity, at 5 to 1, landed the money, with Lewis Apper the favorite, second, and Paymaster third. Best Bib and Tucker, also at 5 to 1, landed the second event, beating out Jefferson and Kewpie.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 15.—Two long shots flashed past the judges winners in the first and second races here this afternoon. A record crowd was at the track drawn to the city by the Mardi Gras festivities.

In the first race Sal Vanity, at 5 to 1, landed the money, with Lewis Apper the favorite, second, and Paymaster third. Best Bib and Tucker, also at 5 to 1, landed the second event, beating out Jefferson and Kewpie.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 15.—Two long shots flashed past the judges winners in the first and second races here this afternoon. A record crowd was at the track drawn to the city by the Mardi Gras festivities.

In the first race Sal Vanity, at 5 to 1, landed the money, with Lewis Apper the favorite, second, and Paymaster third. Best Bib and Tucker, also at 5 to 1, landed the second event, beating out Jefferson and Kewpie.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 15.—Two long shots flashed past the judges winners in the first and second races here this afternoon. A record crowd was at the track drawn to the city by the Mardi Gras festivities.

MIKE DORIZAS TO COMPETE IN NEW YORK GAMES

Mike Dorizas, strong man of the University of Pennsylvania, is entered for the weight events which will be features of the Greek-American games to be held in the 71st Regiment Armory, New York, next Monday night.

EDDIE COLLINS OFF TO JOIN CHICAGO

Ex-Athletic Second Sacker Leaves Philadelphia This Afternoon.

Having been duly bought and paid for by Charles Comiskey, Eddie Collins duly departed this afternoon for Chicago, where he will join Clarence Rowland's White Sox. The main body of the Chicago Americans will leave Chicago Wednesday for Los Angeles. After all of the Sox have gotten together on the Western coast they will divide themselves into two teams and play the various clubs of the Pacific Coast League in a long series of exhibition games.

Blackburne, who played second for the White Sox last season and whose place Collins will fill henceforth, left yesterday to join the Sox. Just what ultimate disposition will be made of Blackburne is not known, but he will not be retained by the White Sox after the beginning of the championship campaign in April.

Although Collins would rather live in Philadelphia than Chicago, he goes to the Windy City determined to make a regular club out of it, if it can possibly be accomplished. There is no doubt that the addition of Mack's former star will vastly increase the pennant chances of the White Sox. The pitching at the South Side park this summer should be as good as last season, which means that many of the close affairs which would otherwise be lost will be won by Eddie Collins' hitting and brilliant fielding.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 15.—The University of Chicago track team easily defeated the Philadelphia team in a 100-yard race here this afternoon. A record crowd was at the track drawn to the city by the Mardi Gras festivities.

In the first race Sal Vanity, at 5 to 1, landed the money, with Lewis Apper the favorite, second, and Paymaster third. Best Bib and Tucker, also at 5 to 1, landed the second event, beating out Jefferson and Kewpie.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 15.—Two long shots flashed past the judges winners in the first and second races here this afternoon. A record crowd was at the track drawn to the city by the Mardi Gras festivities.

In the first race Sal Vanity, at 5 to 1, landed the money, with Lewis Apper the favorite, second, and Paymaster third. Best Bib and Tucker, also at 5 to 1, landed the second event, beating out Jefferson and Kewpie.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 15.—Two long shots flashed past the judges winners in the first and second races here this afternoon. A record crowd was at the track drawn to the city by the Mardi Gras festivities.

In the first race Sal Vanity, at 5 to 1, landed the money, with Lewis Apper the favorite, second, and Paymaster third. Best Bib and Tucker, also at 5 to 1, landed the second event, beating out Jefferson and Kewpie.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 15.—Two long shots flashed past the judges winners in the first and second races here this afternoon. A record crowd was at the track drawn to the city by the Mardi Gras festivities.

In the first race Sal Vanity, at 5 to 1, landed the money, with Lewis Apper the favorite, second, and Paymaster third. Best Bib and Tucker, also at 5 to 1, landed the second event, beating out Jefferson and Kewpie.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 15.—Two long shots flashed past the judges winners in the first and second races here this afternoon. A record crowd was at the track drawn to the city by the Mardi Gras festivities.

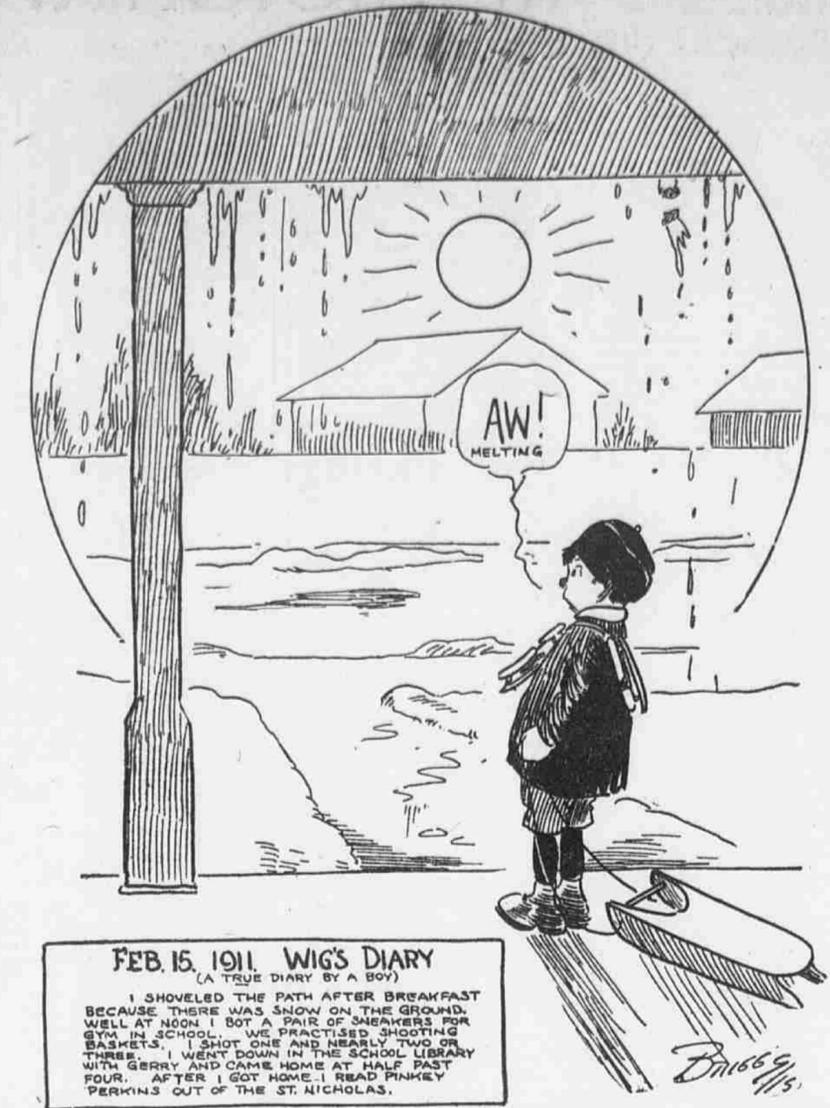

In the first race Sal Vanity, at 5 to 1, landed the money, with Lewis Apper the favorite, second, and Paymaster third. Best Bib and Tucker, also at 5 to 1, landed the second event, beating out Jefferson and Kewpie.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 15.—Two long shots flashed past the judges winners in the first and second races here this afternoon. A record crowd was at the track drawn to the city by the Mardi Gras festivities.

In the first race Sal Vanity, at 5 to 1, landed the money, with Lewis Apper the favorite, second, and Paymaster third. Best Bib and Tucker, also at 5 to 1, landed the second event, beating out Jefferson and Kewpie.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 15.—Two long shots flashed past the judges winners in the first and second races here this afternoon. A record crowd was at the track drawn to the city by the Mardi Gras festivities.

In the first race Sal Vanity, at 5 to 1, landed the money, with Lewis Apper the favorite, second, and Paymaster third. Best Bib and Tucker, also at 5 to 1, landed the second event, beating out Jefferson and Kewpie.

FEB. 15, 1911, WIG'S DIARY (A TRUE DIARY BY A BOY)

I SHOVELLED THE PATH AFTER BREAKFAST BECAUSE THERE WAS SNOW ON THE GROUND. WELL AT NOON I GOT A PAIR OF SNEAKERS FOR $1.00. I WENT DOWN IN THE SCHOOL LIBRARY WITH GERRY AND CAME HOME AT HALF PAST FOUR. AFTER I GOT HOME I READ PINKEY PERKINS OUT OF THE ST. NICHOLAS.

WHEN A FELLER NEEDS A FRIEND

over 50 per cent. of those engaged made any attempt to give their best services all the year. At least 50 per cent. were careless and indifferent in training and in action. They gave, on the average, the worst exhibition of baseball that the game has known for a long time. In many ways entirely too many of them lowered the standard of big league play.

New Man for Eagle Council Samuel R. Shillingford, popularly known as "Mr. Sam," has decided to transfer his affections and pitching arm to the Eagle Council baseball team. Last season he was a member of the Loyal Council nine, but he was not loyal enough to remain another season.

Feds to Stick in Indianapolis NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—President James Gilmore, of the Federal League, declared positively this afternoon that Indianapolis will continue on the Federal circuit this year. Gilmore came here to arrange a final disposition of the Kansas City franchise. The Kansas City team, he said, will be located either in the Bronx or in Newark, and a decision will be made between the two cities within 48 hours.

KID WILLIAMS TO MEET JIMMY MURRAY TONIGHT Four Fast Bouts at Olympic A. A. Before the Wind-up.

Four fast matches are scheduled to precede the Kid Williams-Jimmy Murray bout at the weekly Olympia A. A. show tonight. The bantamweight champion will meet a tough proposition in the New York Italian.

FINED FOR FALSE ARREST It cost Joseph Abati, of 1822 South 13th street, $4.97 for arresting Vincent Sanatori, of 181 South 10th street, without a warrant. Abati is a private detective in addition to being a tailor. He arrested Sanatori last May on a charge of larceny as bailed. Sanatori said Abati pulled a revolver and brought him to the 14th and Jefferson streets station. Abati admitted that he used a transcript of a warrant to arrest Sanatori. This was declared worthless by Judge Hall in Quarter Sessions Court and Abati was fined $5 and costs.

Old Billy Sullivan Released CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—Billy Sullivan, for 14 years a White Sox catcher, today announced that President Comiskey had unconditionally released him from the White Sox. Sullivan joined the White Sox from Boston in 1901, when the Nationals and Americans were at war.

Harvard Athletes Out CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Feb. 15.—With the completion of the mid-year examinations at Harvard athletic interests resume their normal activity today and candidates for the freshman and varsity crews as well as battery candidates for the varsity baseball nine were out with Coach Wray and Seaton. It is noted that the already been considerable practice done upon the mockline indoors in advance of the captain's call for candidates.

FIGHTS MURRAY HERE TONIGHT Kid Williams, the Baltimore boy who wears the bantamweight crown, is scheduled for a six-round go with Jimmy Murray, of New York, at the Olympia A. A. tonight.

WOLGAST-WILLIAMS BOUT TO BE NEXT NOVEL FIGHT

Evidently Ad Wolgast looks pretty good to the Garden, New York city, as a fighting magnet, for they've gone beyond the Cross-Wolgast fight and arranged a Kid Williams-Wolgast set. "Gosh all heck!" That will be some fracas. Williams and Wolgast are almost identical in their styles and neither of them knows the wrong step or step back. Williams will be hitting off a chunk when he faces the Cadillac terror, and if Wolgast's arm is as strong as his latest Cleveland fight indicated he will give the tiny Dan all that he has bargained for and more.

BASEBALL LEAGUE FUTURE AT STAKE

International Moguls Will Decide Course Today at New York Meeting.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—The future of the International League will probably be decided at a meeting of the moguls to be held here today. President Barrow is determined to save the league. He is being backed by all the club owners. They believe that the depression in the national game is only temporary and that matters will adjust themselves to normal conditions in another season.

The league will not be cut down. Barrow has not given up his plan to have the Jersey City team transferred to the Bronx. He may also invade New England territory, and has under consideration Worcester, Hartford and Springfield as possible cities to which transfers may be made.

BASEBALL NUGGETS

CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—The first swing of the ax that must reduce within the time limit the Chicago National League Club's roster to 21 players resulted in the unconditional release of four players. Tommy Leach, Ed Stack, Bill Sweeney and Charley Smith. A dozen more must be sent to the minors or used in trades, and it was said that several will be let out before the training season begins.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 15.—Barney Dreyfus, president of the Pittsburgh National League Baseball Club, announced that Joe Kelly, outfielder, had been released to the Indianapolis Club, of the American Association; that Clarence E. Berger, outfielder, had been released to the Richmond Club, of the International League, and Thomas Quincey, a pitcher, had been given his unconditional release.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 15.—The Phillies expect to cop the world's championship. Willard expects to beat Johnson. Johnson expects to beat Willard. Some people expect the millennium. And the answer? Nay, do not wake, oh fan, complete. Your fatalistic, sweet repose. For we were just about to bleed, "Nobody knows."

THE WHEREWITHAL The Fed machine should move more smoothly this year. They're going to put some oil into it.

PENN TRACK TRIALS TODAY

Lippincott May Be Kept Off Track for While Longer. Trials were held this afternoon on the covered track at Franklin Field to pick the one mile relay team which will represent the University of Pennsylvania against Cornell and Harvard at the Hartford Conn., games on Friday night. The team will be composed of Meredith, Lockwood, Kaufman and Captain Lippincott.

There is a possibility that Lippincott will not be allowed to run for fear of injury, although he is right now faster than Dorsey, who will run if the Quaker captain does not. This will be an unusually open position, especially from Harvard. The Quakers will also take a freshman team to race against the Yale first year men. Two of the Quaker freshmen will be added to the team. The other two will be as picked as the result of trials yet to be held.

A good sized team will go to Baltimore on Saturday night for the Johns Hopkins games. It will contain Patterson, the sprinter; Kaufman and Ferguson, the hurdlers; Dorizas, in the shot put, and Howell in the pole vault. The two-mile relay race with Cornell has been called off because the Cornell team has been unable to get permission to leave the state. The Quaker management has declined the request of Holy Cross for a one-mile relay race at Providence on Saturday night.

COACHES TO GET ON RIVER The University of Pennsylvania coachesmen will go on the river toward the end of this week, declared Coach Vivian Nickalls this afternoon. The coach said he would have been doing his practice on the water before this had the students' hours made it possible for the men to begin work at 4 instead of 5 o'clock. As soon as they start river work the Quakers will stick to it unless the river freezes, the coach continued. This will be at least three weeks earlier than the men went on the water a year ago.

Old Billy Sullivan Released CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—Billy Sullivan, for 14 years a White Sox catcher, today announced that President Comiskey had unconditionally released him from the White Sox. Sullivan joined the White Sox from Boston in 1901, when the Nationals and Americans were at war.

Harvard Athletes Out CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Feb. 15.—With the completion of the mid-year examinations at Harvard athletic interests resume their normal activity today and candidates for the freshman and varsity crews as well as battery candidates for the varsity baseball nine were out with Coach Wray and Seaton. It is noted that the already been considerable practice done upon the mockline indoors in advance of the captain's call for candidates.

FINED FOR FALSE ARREST It cost Joseph Abati, of 1822 South 13th street, $4.97 for arresting Vincent Sanatori, of 181 South 10th street, without a warrant. Abati is a private detective in addition to being a tailor. He arrested Sanatori last May on a charge of larceny as bailed. Sanatori said Abati pulled a revolver and brought him to the 14th and Jefferson streets station. Abati admitted that he used a transcript of a warrant to arrest Sanatori. This was declared worthless by Judge Hall in Quarter Sessions Court and Abati was fined $5 and costs.

Old Billy Sullivan Released CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—Billy Sullivan, for 14 years a White Sox catcher, today announced that President Comiskey had unconditionally released him from the White Sox. Sullivan joined the White Sox from Boston in 1901, when the Nationals and Americans were at war.

Harvard Athletes Out CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Feb. 15.—With the completion of the mid-year examinations at Harvard athletic interests resume their normal activity today and candidates for the freshman and varsity crews as well as battery candidates for the varsity baseball nine were out with Coach Wray and Seaton. It is noted that the already been considerable practice done upon the mockline indoors in advance of the captain's call for candidates.

FINED FOR FALSE ARREST It cost Joseph Abati, of 1822 South 13th street, $4.97 for arresting Vincent Sanatori, of 181 South 10th street, without a warrant. Abati is a private detective in addition to being a tailor. He arrested Sanatori last May on a charge of larceny as bailed. Sanatori said Abati pulled a revolver and brought him to the 14th and Jefferson streets station. Abati admitted that he used a transcript of a warrant to arrest Sanatori. This was declared worthless by Judge Hall in Quarter Sessions Court and Abati was fined $5 and costs.

Old Billy Sullivan Released CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—Billy Sullivan, for 14 years a White Sox catcher, today announced that President Comiskey had unconditionally released him from the White Sox. Sullivan joined the White Sox from Boston in 1901, when the Nationals and Americans were at war.

KILBANE-WILLIAMS WRANGLE SURE TO BE SETTLED TONIGHT

Final Conference Between Managers of the Two Fighters and Promoters Edwards and McGuigan to Take Place at the Bingham Hotel.

Financial Question as Well as On Weight Made Itself Apparent at Saturday Night's Meeting—Olympia A. A. Bids $10,000 for the Big Bout and Interest Rises.

Whether Johnny Kilbane and Kid Williams will clash in this city will be definitely decided at a conference tonight at midnight between the fighters' managers, Jimmy Dunn and Sammy Harris, and Harry Edwards and Jack McGuigan, the promoters, who want to stage the match. This announcement was made at the close of a confab Saturday night at the Bingham Hotel.

When Jimmy Dunn instructed promoter McGuigan to inform the National A. C. spectators Saturday night that Kilbane would agree to Harrie's demands, it was understood that the proposed intra-championship contest, the match which he believed that the only necessity to bid the match was to decide upon a date. However, during the conference at the Bingham in the presence of newspaper men, it became evident that the match was not only in weight, but also a financial question. The meeting adjourned, following Edwards' bid of $10,000 for the bout at the request of McGuigan and postponed until tonight.

S. B. ECKERT DEFEATS BLOCK AT RACQUETS

Winner Will Meet J. W. Wear in Semifinal Round of Handicap Singles.

By defeating B. Block in the first round of the club racquets handicap singles at the Racquet Club today by 3 games to 1, S. B. Eckert earned the right to meet J. W. Wear in the semifinal round. Eckert put up a better fight in the second game, but threw away his chances by serving himself out. The score was called seven all, and when Eckert had seven two service ace he put himself out by serving a fault. Block seized the opportunity to make a run of five aces and thus followed his opponent's example by serving himself out. Eckert brought his total up to eleven to Block's twelve. The latter added one more ace before being put out, but Eckert gave his last chance away by serving a fault and in his next hand Block ran out the game.

Eckert played up better in the third game, although it took both men some time to get going. Block scored three aces in his first hand and in the five following hands did nothing. In six hands Eckert produced five aces, but after the seventh lived up to six, Eckert took the lead at nine aces to six, and with the next ten aces evenly distributed, Eckert won the game, 15-11.

The fourth game was the shortest of the five. Eckert took his total to seven before Block had a look in, and then the latter failed to score. A service ace after ace he ran out the game with ten straight, four of which were from service. Eckert put up a better fight in the second game, but threw away his chances by serving himself out. The score was called seven all, and when Eckert had seven two service ace he put himself out by serving a fault. Block seized the opportunity to make a run of five aces and thus followed his opponent's example by serving himself out. Eckert brought his total up to eleven to Block's twelve. The latter added one more ace before being put out, but Eckert gave his last chance away by serving a fault and in his next hand Block ran out the game.

Eckert played up better in the third game, although it took both men some time to get going. Block scored three aces in his first hand and in the five following hands did nothing. In six hands Eckert produced five aces, but after the seventh lived up to six, Eckert took the lead at nine aces to six, and with the next ten aces evenly distributed, Eckert won the game, 15-11.

The fourth game was the shortest of the five. Eckert took his total to seven before Block had a look in, and then the latter failed to score. A service ace after ace he ran out the game with ten straight, four of which were from service. Eckert put up a better fight in the second game, but threw away his chances by serving himself out. The score was called seven all, and when Eckert had seven two service ace he put himself out by serving a fault. Block seized the opportunity to make a run of five aces and thus followed his opponent's example by serving himself out. Eckert brought his total up to eleven to Block's twelve. The latter added one more ace before being put out, but Eckert gave his last chance away by serving a fault and in his next hand Block ran out the game.

Eckert played up better in the third game, although it took both men some time to get going. Block scored three aces in his first hand and in the five following hands did nothing. In six hands Eckert produced five aces, but after the seventh lived up to six, Eckert took the lead at nine aces to six, and with the next ten aces evenly distributed, Eckert won the game, 15-11.

The fourth game was the shortest of the five. Eckert took his total to seven before Block had a look in, and then the latter failed to score. A service ace after ace he ran out the game with ten straight, four of which were from service. Eckert put up a better fight in the second game, but threw away his chances by serving himself out. The score was called seven all, and when Eckert had seven two service ace he put himself out by serving a fault. Block seized the opportunity to make a run of five aces and thus followed his opponent's example by serving himself out. Eckert brought his total up to eleven to Block's twelve. The latter added one more ace before being put out, but Eckert gave his last chance away by serving a fault and in his next hand Block ran out the game.

Eckert played up better in the third game, although it took both men some time to get going. Block scored three aces in his first hand and in the five following hands did nothing. In six hands Eckert produced five aces, but after the seventh lived up to six, Eckert took the lead at nine aces to six, and with the next ten aces evenly distributed, Eckert won the game, 15-11.

The fourth game was the shortest of the five. Eckert took his total to seven before Block had a look in, and then the latter failed to score. A service ace after ace he ran out the game with ten straight, four of which were from service. Eckert put up a better fight in the second game, but threw away his chances by serving himself out. The score was called seven all, and when Eckert had seven two service ace he put himself out by serving a fault. Block seized the opportunity to make a run of five aces and thus followed his opponent's example by serving himself out. Eckert brought his total up to eleven to Block's twelve. The latter added one more ace before being put out, but Eckert gave his last chance away by serving a fault and in his next hand Block ran out the game.

Eckert played up better in the third game, although it took both men some time to get going. Block scored three aces in his first hand and in the five following hands did nothing. In six hands Eckert produced five aces, but after the seventh lived up to six, Eckert took the lead at nine aces to six, and with the next ten aces evenly distributed, Eckert won the game, 15-11.

The fourth game was the shortest of the five. Eckert took his total to seven before Block had a look in, and then the latter failed to score. A service ace after ace he ran out the game with ten straight, four of which were from service. Eckert put up a better fight in the second game, but threw away his chances by serving himself out. The score was called seven all, and when Eckert had seven two service ace he put himself out by serving a fault. Block seized the opportunity to make a run of five aces and thus followed his opponent's example by serving himself out. Eckert brought his total up to eleven to Block's twelve. The latter added one more ace before being put out, but Eckert gave his last chance away by serving a fault and in his next hand Block ran out the game.

Eckert played up better in the third game, although it took both men some time to get going. Block scored three aces in his first hand and in the five following hands did nothing. In six hands Eckert produced five aces, but after the seventh lived up to six, Eckert took the lead at nine aces to six, and with the next ten aces evenly distributed, Eckert won the game, 15-11.

The fourth game was the shortest of the five. Eckert took his total to seven before Block had a look in, and then the latter failed to score. A service ace after ace he ran out the game with ten straight, four of which were from service. Eckert put up a better fight in the second game, but threw away his chances by serving himself out. The score was called seven all, and when Eckert had seven two service ace he put himself out by serving a fault. Block seized the opportunity to make a run of five aces and thus followed his opponent's example by serving himself out. Eckert brought his total up to eleven to Block's twelve. The latter added one more ace before being put out, but Eckert gave his last chance away by serving a fault and in his next hand Block ran out the game.

Eckert played up better in the third game, although it took both men some time to get going. Block scored three aces in his first hand and in the five following hands did nothing. In six hands Eckert produced five aces, but after the seventh lived up to six, Eckert took the lead at nine aces to six, and with the next ten aces evenly distributed, Eckert won the game, 15-11.