The Friendly Path

Flowers will soon be blossoming. Birds will soon return from the sunny Southland and begin to build their nests.

All about us we see signs of the glad springtime. Everybody is ready to extend to it a hearty welcome.

With the swelling of the buds, as evidence of the new life of Nature, there has come to Philadelphia such new religious life as has not been seen here in years—if ever before.

The revival campaign of "Billy" Sunday brought almost a miracle for the Christian churches. The improvement of the city has been so marked that it should bring great rejoicing to every man or woman who believes in Christ and the right.

EXPECT 15,000 AT BIG RALLY IN TABERNACLE

Sunday School Teachers and Scholars Will Assemble on Monday Night.

The largest Sunday school rally ever held in this city will be staged at the tabernacle Monday night when 15,000 teachers and students from all parts of the city will gather to give impetus to the Sunday school movement.

This will be the first meeting in the vast auditorium on Logan Square to be held after the departure of "Billy" Sunday. It may be the last. Ticket reservations point to an audience fully as large as those which have thronged the structure during the evangelistic campaign.

Forceful speakers in civic and religious movements will address the rally. Among them are Mayor Blankenburg, the Rev. Dr. Floyd W. Tomkins, Dr. Alfred Cope Garrett, Dr. George W. Bailey, president of the World's Sunday School Association.

A delegation from the Philadelphia County Sunday School Association, and Miss Grace Saxe, of the "Billy" Sunday party, the Rev. Alexander Henry will preside.

A reception to the junior members will be held Monday afternoon and there will be an exhibition of swimming. In the evening, at a housewarming to the senior members, a fire will be lighted for the first time on the large hearth in the assembly room.

Plans are being made by a committee representing the Methodist churches of the city for a great union Methodist mass-meeting of 200 graduates teachers representing the "Billy" Sunday campaign.

The meeting is under the auspices of the Philadelphia County Sunday School Association and was arranged by Mrs. Emille K. Kearney, teachers' training secretary.

THE "BILLY" SUNDAY BIBLE CLASS

CENTRAL TRUTH OF TOMORROW'S LESSON. (March 21, 1915-International Series-1 Samuel 14: 1-15.) HEROISM By GEORGE G. DOWEY.

Jonathan, the son of King Saul, is the hero of this lesson, in which we have the story of one of the most courageous and daring exploits of soldier life.

Saul, who in our last lesson manifested such kingly qualities, and, like many others who have made such promising starts in life but have fallen by the way, now presents a picture of fear, discouragement, defeat. His forces are reduced and panic-stricken, with the invading Philistine ready to make attack. It is Saul's and Israel's extremity. A miracle, or a "man of the hour" is necessary to save the day. Jonathan steps forth as that man.

Read the story and see how he attempted and accomplished the "impossible." Taking only his armor-bearer, he stole away from his own discouraged ranks, performed the physical task of ascending a dangerous mountain pass to the vantage ground of the enemy, invaded the enemy's camp and actually caused a rout of the whole army. It was a manifestation of remarkable heroism. But the central truth lies in the fact that this heroic deed was inspired by a great motive, namely, the desire to save his people and to glorify his God. With this motive and with an unswerving faith in God, he faced an army alone, and won.

History records military exploits and deeds of valor without number, but the world's heroes are not all of the past, nor do all their names find place on printed page. The young stateswoman supporting herself and invalid mother on a weekly pittance; the aspiring but handicapped youth struggling for an education; the widowed mother fighting away the wolf from the door by hard labor till her children are grown, and many other just plain, common folk, engaged in daily struggles that call for real heroism, but whose deeds are unsung, except, perhaps, by the angels. Jonathan is an example of faith and courage and is a source of inspiration to every true soul who, against great odds, is engaged in the struggle of life.

ASK YOUR BOOKSELLER FOR The Holman Bible "The Best Editions of the World's Best Book" Do You Know that the now famous pronouncing feature in Testaments, Teachers' and Children's Bibles was introduced by the publishers of HOLMAN BIBLES? Think of the labor involved in the preparation of "copy" in which every proper name had to be divided into syllables and dis-critically marked for the first time. Up to that time no edition of the Bible was accepted which contained any change or alteration. Ours the task to convince every one that the pronouncing feature was a real help to Bible reading and that no liberties had been taken with the text. Most of our Bibles are pronouncing - three-quarters at least; a few are non-pronouncing, because some still prefer the text without any changes, preferring to take chances on the proper pronunciation of the difficult names. Results: Type Excellence - Clearness and legibility. Paper Excellence - Thinnest and best opaque Bible paper. Binding Excellence - The best quality (no seconds) of each grade of leather. Absolutely flexible and durable bindings. Helps Excellence - The most practical in use. Simply arranged. Authoritative. Map Excellence - Compiled according to the latest and best authorities.
