SOCIETY'S interest in dancing continues unabated through Lent, and the weekly tea-dansants are well patronized. The Saturday afternoon tea conducted in the ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton by Mrs. J. Hutchinson Scott and Mrs. R. W. Hawkesworth is steadily growing in favor. A number of interesting parties were given last week. Mrs. J. Harrison Smith entertained at one table and at another were Mr. and Mrs. Wilson McCredy, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Earle White and Dr. and Mrs. Reynolds Wilson. Another table was occupied by Miss Letitia McKim, Miss Eleanor Hopkins, Mr. Hart and Lewis Parsons. Others who entertained included Oliver Cromwell, Robert Carver, Archibald G. C. Wells, Henry Winsor, Philip Lydig, Miss Heberton, Mrs. Keim and Doctor Clement. Brooks House is proving popular with the school set and each Thursday finds a number of the younger generation dropping in for tea. This week Mrs. C. Wendell Woodward presided at the tea table and Miss Jean Van N. DaCosta, Miss Mary Norris Carbond, Miss Anne B. Merrick and Miss Heloise Minor Halsey assisted in receiving. Miss Da Costa, Miss Carbond and Miss Halsey wore delicate, girlish white frocks, while Miss Merrick attired in a becoming frock of Nancy blue taffeta.

Among the dancers were Miss Marys B. Clark, who wore a charming frock of peacock blue satin with a tunic of net edged with fur. Her small round hat was trimmed with flowers. Others present included Mrs. James F. Lee, Mrs. A. D. Whiting, Mrs. Herbert C. Morris, Mrs. George B. Colby, Mrs. Thomas Sims, Erwin Carlsson Garrett, Wister Morris, George Brooke and Van Buren Cannell. The music is supplied by Henry Eckert Reeves, whose one-man orchestra has become quite the rage. An innovation in the form of informal dances three times a week has been inaugurated. These dances are given on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings from 8:30 until 10:30 o'clock. After theatre parties are also given every evening. A contest in the hesitation will be given on Saturday afternoon at the weekly tea-dansant in the Rose Garden of the Bellevue-Stratford. Among those who occupied tables last week were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brinton, Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler Lord, George C. Holdt, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Folwell, Colonel Fuller, Miss Marguerite Milne, Mrs. Francis J. Kelly, Penn-Gaskell Hall.

A PRETTY spring wedding will take place to-night when Miss Marce Reynolds Chambers will become the bride of Nelson H. Clark, of Jenkintown. The ceremony will be performed in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Ford, in Norwood, at 7:30 o'clock, by the Rev. Dr. George H. Ferris, of the First Baptist Church, 17th and Sansom streets. Miss Chambers, who will be given in marriage by her stepfather, Albert W. Ford, will be attended by her sister, Mrs. William Rose, as matron of honor; Miss Lillie Chambers, Miss Edith B. Gold, as bridesmaids, and Miss Marjorie E. Rose as flower girl. Mr. Clark will be attended by George P. Fondermuth as best man. The bride will wear an exquisite gown of white satin, finished with a long train. It will be trimmed with chantilly lace and pearls. Her veil will be of tulle, arranged in simple folds and held in place with fillets of the valley, and she will carry a shower bouquet of white sweet peas and lilies of the valley. The matron of honor, will wear a gown of yellow Georgette crepe. The skirt is short and quite full, and the bodice made of white lace and finished with the crepe. She will carry an arm bouquet of daffodils. The bridesmaids will be gowned alike in yellow chiffon over white satin. Their bouquets will also be of daffodils. Miss Marjorie Rose, the flower girl, will wear a simple frock of white batiste, trimmed with Irish lace, having a sash of yellow ribbon. She will carry a basket of sweet peas and pansies. A reception will follow the ceremony, and on their return from an extended wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Clark will be at home Tuesdays in April at 543 Angora terrace, Philadelphia.

ROXBOROUGH

Prominent among the entertainments of the week is the tea, with music, which will be given tomorrow afternoon by the Woman Suffrage party of this section, at the home of Mrs. Ellwood I.
