

Evening ILLUSTRATED Ledger

TUESDAY

April 13, 1915

PERSONS AND SCENES IN DAY'S GRIST OF NEWS FROM HOME AND ABROAD AS CAUGHT BY THE CAMERA

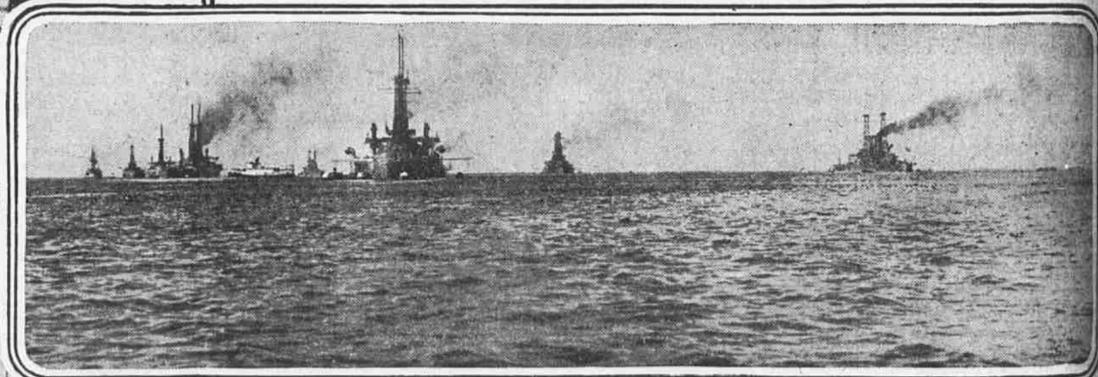

A FRIENDLY CHAT THAT LIGHTENS THE HORRORS OF WAR
Mars, as represented here by a British "Tommy," when on guard duty discovers a Belgian Venus not unopposed to a little practice in the French language. His pronunciation gives her cause for amusement.

CONFLICT FURNISHES INSPIRATION TO ARTISTS

Already the painters of Europe are busy on the pictures that shall tell future generations the story of the war. Sanderson-Wells, a London artist, is shown at his canvases.

ATLANTIC FLEET ARRIVING AT HAMPTON ROADS FOR SPRING MANEUVERES
In the foreground is the flagship Wyoming. The Administration is said to be thankful that this mighty aggregation is so near Newport News in case of complications with foreign warships.

AN UPSET IN THE VANDERBILT CUP RACE

One of the drivers in the recent contest at the San Francisco Exposition overturned while going at frightful speed. This picture was reproduced from a film by courtesy of The World Film Corporation.

SPRING WEATHER MAKES THE SMOKE HANG LOW WHEN TRAINS CROSS THE ALLEGANIES

Two engines are required to haul the enormous trains of freight cars that must be pulled up the steep grades encountered in the western part of the State. There are sometimes 200 cars to a train and the toll required of the great locomotive is evidenced by the clouds of smoke emitted.