

MEN, WOMEN AND EVENTS OF THE WORLD GATHERED INTO SMALL COMPASS BY THE PHOTOGRAPHER

Photo by Underwood & Underwood
A MEMORIAL OF ONE WAR MADE A SUCCESSFUL DEMONSTRATION FOR ANOTHER
The unveiling of the Garibaldi monument at Quarto, Italy, was the occasion of a great war demonstration, led by the poet D'Annunzio. The monument is in honor of the 1000 volunteers who made up the expedition against the Bourbons, in 1860. The remaining survivors are seen on the steps of the monument.
UN MONUMENTO PER UNA GUERRA HA CAUSATO UNA DIMOSTRAZIONE PER UN'ALTRA GUERRA
Lo scoprimento del Monumento al Milla a Quarto, Italia, ha provocato una grande dimostrazione in favore della guerra, con alla testa Gabriele D'Annunzio. I pochi superstiti della gloriosa spedizione sono, sui gradini del monumento.

AN EDITOR WHO FINDS TIME TO WRITE
Norma Bright, in private life the wife of Magistrate Robert Carson, of Philadelphia, is editor of a literary magazine. The complicated duties of that position do not absorb all of her time, as the list of her published volumes indicates. She is the author of several books.

DIVER IN WATER FIVE HOURS SEEKING SUBMARINE F-4
W. H. Loughman, a United States naval diver, was trapped for nearly five hours on the floor of Honolulu harbor while searching for the submarine F-4, which was sunk there. He suffered terribly from his long submersion and was sent to the Naval Hospital at San Francisco. He has not yet fully recovered.

CHESTER CADETS READY FOR GAME OF POLO
The cadets of the Pennsylvania Military Academy, of Chester, Pa., have formed a polo team and have become so proficient that they are looked upon as the possible future of the game. From left to right are Reahr, Comfort, Young and Monroe. They are under the instruction of Captain Frank Kala-Hyatt.

A CONGRESSMAN IN HONOLULU
Representative Mann, of Illinois, is a member of the congressional party touring the Hawaiian Islands. He is shown here surrounded by school girls, most of them Japanese, in one of the Honolulu schools. Photo by Underwood & Underwood.