

WITH the beginning of June society will entertain at affairs in the country. On Monday Mr. and Mrs. George W. Childs Drexel will entertain at dinner at their home, Woodin, Bryn Mawr.

The large affair for the day on Tuesday will be the Greek play to be given in the new Woodlands Theatre of the Botanical Gardens of the University of Pennsylvania. The affair is under the direction of Granville Barker and a company of English actors, and the play to be given is "Iphigenia in Tauris."

A garden party will be given on Tuesday by Major General George Barnett and Mrs. Barnett in Washington in honor of Rear Admiral William S. Benson and Mrs. Benson, all formerly of this city.

The main affairs for Wednesday will be weddings. At noon, in Christ Church, Easton, Md., the marriage of Miss Mary Foxley Tikhman, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Oswald Tikhman, and Dr. John Fraser, of this city, will be celebrated. At the same time, Miss Marion Clifford Angell, daughter of Mrs. Thomas B. Angell, of Harrisburg, will become the bride of Mr. William S. Godfrey. On Wednesday the wedding of Frederick N. Campbell, Mrs. Cyrus H. K. Curtis, Mrs. H. E. De Puy, Mrs. Horace G. Fetterer, Mrs. William C. Kent, Mrs. George H. Lotimer, Mrs. Victor J. Mulford, Miss Ostheimer, Mrs. Weston Pennwell, Mrs. Allan H. Reed, Mrs. George R. Roden, Mrs. Robert Schackleton, Mrs. Henry Spaulding and Mrs. Frank P. Webb.

There will be several weddings for Thursday, among which will be that of Miss Mildred Thorpe and Mr. Frederick Stanley Whittaker in the home of the bride, Devon.

In the evening the wedding of Miss Marion Wiener Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Edward Jones, and Mr. Warren Corson Graham, will be celebrated in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Scranton, Pa.

In the afternoon from 5 until 7 o'clock a garden party will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Childs Madala at their residence in School lane in honor of Miss Marion D. Grant.

In the afternoon and evening a "moving picture" benefit will be given by the Ladies' Guild of the Episcopal Church of St. Mark, in honor of Mrs. Clement A. Grisco, the proceeds to be devoted to the Charlotte Cushman Club.

On Friday several affairs will be given for the net yet out. At noon Mrs. Gibson Bell, of Highland, Chestnut Hill, will entertain at luncheon in honor of her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Dawson Wheeler, and in the evening Mr. and Mrs. J. Rutherford McAllister, of Brickholm, Seminoe and Hartwell avenues, Chestnut Hill, will give a dinner in honor of their daughter, Miss Martha T. McAllister.

That evening, too, a fancy dress dinner-dance will be given by Mr. and Mrs. J. Franklin McElroy, at their summer home, Radnor Valley Farm, Rosemont.

Saturday will be a day for the "debs" to be. Mrs. Howard E. Graham, of 29 West Chestnut avenue, will entertain at luncheon in honor of her daughter, Miss Maria Thayer Graham. In the evening Mrs. Albert Dent, of 798 Seminoe avenue, will give a dance in honor of her daughter, Miss Margaret M. Dent.

In the evening Mr. Marshall S. Wippeny, of 142 North Broad street, will entertain at dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Waring Hopkinson. Mrs. Hopkinson will be remembered as Miss Anna Florence Woodruff.

Among the prominent people who will come to town to attend a "melodramatic movie" to be held next Thursday on the estate of Mrs. Clement A. Grisco, in Haverford, are Miss Gladys Hanson, who will be the guest of Mrs. Stephen Morris, Mrs. E. W. Morris, Mrs. Edith Wynne Mathison will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Crosby Brown, of Ardmore, and Miss Elizabeth Jordan will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Sinner, of Bryn Mawr. Miss Sinner will close her theatrical season in order to be present.

Mrs. Thomas C. Foster, of 219 Spruce street, gave a small formal dinner last night for her daughter, Miss Josephine C. S. Foster, whose debut will take place upon her return to town in the autumn. The affair was given at the Society Club, and the guests who were chiefly from the debutante set, included Miss Nancy W. Cook, Miss I. Emily Cook, Miss Mary Norris Corbitt, Miss Eleanor Bryant, Miss Agnes Allen, Miss Esther Jean Boehman, Miss Margaret H. Davis, Miss Corinne B. Freeman, Miss Mary de H. Dercum, Miss E. Yvonne Baird, Miss Eleanor Bingham, Miss Elizabeth Page, Miss Sarah H. B. Penrose, Miss Katherine Putnam, Miss Betty Scott, Miss McMichael, Miss Kate Furness, Miss Christine Schaefer, Miss Edith Smythe, Miss Frances Tyson, Miss Marion D. Grant, Miss Elizabeth Griffith, Miss Mariana Gowen, Miss Hannah C. Wright, Miss Mary E. Cohen, Miss Myrtle Denckla, Miss Barbara Boyd and Miss E. Pauline Denckla.

Dr. and Mrs. Francis X. Dercum entertained at dinner before the dance in honor of their daughter, Miss Josephine C. S. Foster, at their home, 219 Spruce street, on Tuesday evening. Dr. and Mrs. Perry B. Allen also gave a dinner for their daughter, Miss Agnes Allen.

Mrs. Herman P. Kremer and her daughter, Miss Katharine Herman Kremer, will close their town house, 206 Walnut street, the end of next week, and will occupy their cottage at Chesler, near the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Williams left for Chelsea last week.

Miss Marian Irwin, of Lansdowne, will entertain at luncheon next Tuesday in honor of Miss Helen E. McKinley, whose marriage to Mr. Barton G. Levin will take place the following week, and Mr. and Mrs. I. Levin of Linden lane, Merion, will give a dinner-dance on Wednesday, June 9, in honor of Miss McKinley.

Mrs. Henry Kuhl Kelly, Jr., of California, who with her infant son is visiting Mr. Kelly's father and mother, Dr. and Mrs. Howard A. Kelly, of Baltimore, will arrive in Bala this month, where she will be the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Samuel Stephenson. Mrs. Kelly will be remembered as Miss Reba Stephenson, and this will be her first visit since her marriage in the autumn of 1913, so that quite a few social affairs are being planned in her honor. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Legee, of Boston, who spent the week-end over Memorial Day with Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson, have returned home.

Mrs. Harold Harvey Hagg gave a delightful buffet luncheon today from 1 until 3 o'clock at her home on Bryn Mawr avenue, Cynwyd, the guests numbering about 100. Mrs. Hagg was assisted in receiving by her daughter, Mrs. Daniel J. Maguire, of Germantown. The first floor of the house was attractively decorated with early summer flowers, consisting of yellow and pink roses and a variety of beautiful peonies, and as each of the connecting rooms varied in color decorations from the others the whole effect was decidedly artistic.

Along the Main Line

OVERBROOK—Mr. and Mrs. William H. Horstmann will spend August as the guests of Mrs. Horstmann's son-in-law, Mr. George Horstmann, and Mrs. Frederick Friley, at their camp at Northeast Harbor, Me.

General and Mrs. John Johnston, of Washington, D. C., who have been visiting and Mrs. Thomas Edward Murphy at the home of Mrs. Drexel road, have returned to Washington.

MERION—Mr. and Mrs. William H. Wauchope, Jr., of Highland avenue, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Wauchope, Miss Louise Wauchope and Miss Alma Wauchope, will spend the month of July at Chelsea, going later to the White Mountains, where they will remain until September 1.

Miss Marzuerite Holloper, of Merion and Sycamore avenues, returned home yesterday from New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Bloch, of Forest avenue, expect to open their Ventnor cottage the middle of this month.

A subscription dance for the benefit of the building fund of the clubhouse of the Woman's Club of Wynette will be held during the week-end at the home of Mrs. F. F. Finkler in Montclair, N. J.

Mrs. Arthur Hood, of 24 Harvey street, entertained informally yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Harold Gaylord, who is at present with her parents in Chestnut Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord will leave shortly for Boston, where they will make their home permanently.

Quite the most important event in the week's festivities at the Stevens school, 221 West Chelten avenue, was the banquet held at the school last night. It preceded the refreshment and social event which takes place this morning, namely, the awarding of diplomas to the graduating class at Manheim. Last night however, the banquet table was artistically decorated with yellow daisies and blue corn flowers, the school colors. Mock presents in the shape of favors were presented by Miss Margaret Zimmerman and Miss Clarice Moyer. The members of the class who are taking an extra year and will graduate next June are Miss Dorothy McBride, Miss Elizabeth Huston, Miss Grace Ballinger, Miss Madeline Bennett, Miss Dorothy Steffan and Miss Molly Jones. The salutatory address was made yesterday afternoon by Miss Dorothy Jenkins; also the Ivy oration was given at the same time by Miss Dorothy Steffan.

Miss Margaret Gray, in spending several days in Annapolis, Md., attending the June week festivities at the Naval Academy.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Mazzo, 640 Carpenter street, will celebrate the sixth anniversary of their wedding on June 23. Nearly 200 invitations to a reception and dance at their home have been sent out. There will be a number of out-of-town guests.

Mr. Frank Laurer, 1013 South 24th street, will leave shortly on a motoring trip to Saratoga Springs. He will visit friends in New York on the way. He will be gone about a month.

Mr. J. Parker and Mr. Frank McCrea, of 3d and Catharine streets, have come to Barnes Beach, where they will spend the summer.

Among the prominent people who will come to town to attend a "melodramatic movie" to be held next Thursday on the estate of Mrs. Clement A. Grisco, in Haverford, are Miss Gladys Hanson, who will be the guest of Mrs. Stephen Morris, Mrs. E. W. Morris, Mrs. Edith Wynne Mathison will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Crosby Brown, of Ardmore, and Miss Elizabeth Jordan will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Sinner, of Bryn Mawr. Miss Sinner will close her theatrical season in order to be present.

Mrs. Thomas C. Foster, of 219 Spruce street, gave a small formal dinner last night for her daughter, Miss Josephine C. S. Foster, whose debut will take place upon her return to town in the autumn. The affair was given at the Society Club, and the guests who were chiefly from the debutante set, included Miss Nancy W. Cook, Miss I. Emily Cook, Miss Mary Norris Corbitt, Miss Eleanor Bryant, Miss Agnes Allen, Miss Esther Jean Boehman, Miss Margaret H. Davis, Miss Corinne B. Freeman, Miss Mary de H. Dercum, Miss E. Yvonne Baird, Miss Eleanor Bingham, Miss Elizabeth Page, Miss Sarah H. B. Penrose, Miss Katherine Putnam, Miss Betty Scott, Miss McMichael, Miss Kate Furness, Miss Christine Schaefer, Miss Edith Smythe, Miss Frances Tyson, Miss Marion D. Grant, Miss Elizabeth Griffith, Miss Mariana Gowen, Miss Hannah C. Wright, Miss Mary E. Cohen, Miss Myrtle Denckla, Miss Barbara Boyd and Miss E. Pauline Denckla.

Dr. and Mrs. Francis X. Dercum entertained at dinner before the dance in honor of their daughter, Miss Josephine C. S. Foster, at their home, 219 Spruce street, on Tuesday evening. Dr. and Mrs. Perry B. Allen also gave a dinner for their daughter, Miss Agnes Allen.

Mrs. Herman P. Kremer and her daughter, Miss Katharine Herman Kremer, will close their town house, 206 Walnut street, the end of next week, and will occupy their cottage at Chesler, near the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Williams left for Chelsea last week.

Miss Marian Irwin, of Lansdowne, will entertain at luncheon next Tuesday in honor of Miss Helen E. McKinley, whose marriage to Mr. Barton G. Levin will take place the following week, and Mr. and Mrs. I. Levin of Linden lane, Merion, will give a dinner-dance on Wednesday, June 9, in honor of Miss McKinley.

Mrs. Henry Kuhl Kelly, Jr., of California, who with her infant son is visiting Mr. Kelly's father and mother, Dr. and Mrs. Howard A. Kelly, of Baltimore, will arrive in Bala this month, where she will be the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Samuel Stephenson. Mrs. Kelly will be remembered as Miss Reba Stephenson, and this will be her first visit since her marriage in the autumn of 1913, so that quite a few social affairs are being planned in her honor. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Legee, of Boston, who spent the week-end over Memorial Day with Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson, have returned home.

Mrs. Harold Harvey Hagg gave a delightful buffet luncheon today from 1 until 3 o'clock at her home on Bryn Mawr avenue, Cynwyd, the guests numbering about 100. Mrs. Hagg was assisted in receiving by her daughter, Mrs. Daniel J. Maguire, of Germantown. The first floor of the house was attractively decorated with early summer flowers, consisting of yellow and pink roses and a variety of beautiful peonies, and as each of the connecting rooms varied in color decorations from the others the whole effect was decidedly artistic.

Mrs. Edward L. Kirby, of New York, who has been visiting Mr. Clayton I. Boyer, of Cynwyd, returned home last night.

Along the Reading

A subscription dance for the benefit of the building fund of the clubhouse of the Woman's Club of Wynette will be held during the week-end at the home of Mrs. F. F. Finkler in Montclair, N. J.

Mrs. Arthur Hood, of 24 Harvey street, entertained informally yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Harold Gaylord, who is at present with her parents in Chestnut Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord will leave shortly for Boston, where they will make their home permanently.

Quite the most important event in the week's festivities at the Stevens school, 221 West Chelten avenue, was the banquet held at the school last night. It preceded the refreshment and social event which takes place this morning, namely, the awarding of diplomas to the graduating class at Manheim. Last night however, the banquet table was artistically decorated with yellow daisies and blue corn flowers, the school colors. Mock presents in the shape of favors were presented by Miss Margaret Zimmerman and Miss Clarice Moyer. The members of the class who are taking an extra year and will graduate next June are Miss Dorothy McBride, Miss Elizabeth Huston, Miss Grace Ballinger, Miss Madeline Bennett, Miss Dorothy Steffan and Miss Molly Jones. The salutatory address was made yesterday afternoon by Miss Dorothy Jenkins; also the Ivy oration was given at the same time by Miss Dorothy Steffan.

Miss Margaret Gray, in spending several days in Annapolis, Md., attending the June week festivities at the Naval Academy.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Mazzo, 640 Carpenter street, will celebrate the sixth anniversary of their wedding on June 23. Nearly 200 invitations to a reception and dance at their home have been sent out. There will be a number of out-of-town guests.

Mr. Frank Laurer, 1013 South 24th street, will leave shortly on a motoring trip to Saratoga Springs. He will visit friends in New York on the way. He will be gone about a month.

Mr. J. Parker and Mr. Frank McCrea, of 3d and Catharine streets, have come to Barnes Beach, where they will spend the summer.

Among the prominent people who will come to town to attend a "melodramatic movie" to be held next Thursday on the estate of Mrs. Clement A. Grisco, in Haverford, are Miss Gladys Hanson, who will be the guest of Mrs. Stephen Morris, Mrs. E. W. Morris, Mrs. Edith Wynne Mathison will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Crosby Brown, of Ardmore, and Miss Elizabeth Jordan will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Sinner, of Bryn Mawr. Miss Sinner will close her theatrical season in order to be present.

Mrs. Thomas C. Foster, of 219 Spruce street, gave a small formal dinner last night for her daughter, Miss Josephine C. S. Foster, whose debut will take place upon her return to town in the autumn. The affair was given at the Society Club, and the guests who were chiefly from the debutante set, included Miss Nancy W. Cook, Miss I. Emily Cook, Miss Mary Norris Corbitt, Miss Eleanor Bryant, Miss Agnes Allen, Miss Esther Jean Boehman, Miss Margaret H. Davis, Miss Corinne B. Freeman, Miss Mary de H. Dercum, Miss E. Yvonne Baird, Miss Eleanor Bingham, Miss Elizabeth Page, Miss Sarah H. B. Penrose, Miss Katherine Putnam, Miss Betty Scott, Miss McMichael, Miss Kate Furness, Miss Christine Schaefer, Miss Edith Smythe, Miss Frances Tyson, Miss Marion D. Grant, Miss Elizabeth Griffith, Miss Mariana Gowen, Miss Hannah C. Wright, Miss Mary E. Cohen, Miss Myrtle Denckla, Miss Barbara Boyd and Miss E. Pauline Denckla.

Dr. and Mrs. Francis X. Dercum entertained at dinner before the dance in honor of their daughter, Miss Josephine C. S. Foster, at their home, 219 Spruce street, on Tuesday evening. Dr. and Mrs. Perry B. Allen also gave a dinner for their daughter, Miss Agnes Allen.

Mrs. Herman P. Kremer and her daughter, Miss Katharine Herman Kremer, will close their town house, 206 Walnut street, the end of next week, and will occupy their cottage at Chesler, near the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Williams left for Chelsea last week.

Miss Marian Irwin, of Lansdowne, will entertain at luncheon next Tuesday in honor of Miss Helen E. McKinley, whose marriage to Mr. Barton G. Levin will take place the following week, and Mr. and Mrs. I. Levin of Linden lane, Merion, will give a dinner-dance on Wednesday, June 9, in honor of Miss McKinley.

Mrs. Henry Kuhl Kelly, Jr., of California, who with her infant son is visiting Mr. Kelly's father and mother, Dr. and Mrs. Howard A. Kelly, of Baltimore, will arrive in Bala this month, where she will be the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Samuel Stephenson. Mrs. Kelly will be remembered as Miss Reba Stephenson, and this will be her first visit since her marriage in the autumn of 1913, so that quite a few social affairs are being planned in her honor. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Legee, of Boston, who spent the week-end over Memorial Day with Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson, have returned home.

Mrs. Harold Harvey Hagg gave a delightful buffet luncheon today from 1 until 3 o'clock at her home on Bryn Mawr avenue, Cynwyd, the guests numbering about 100. Mrs. Hagg was assisted in receiving by her daughter, Mrs. Daniel J. Maguire, of Germantown. The first floor of the house was attractively decorated with early summer flowers, consisting of yellow and pink roses and a variety of beautiful peonies, and as each of the connecting rooms varied in color decorations from the others the whole effect was decidedly artistic.

Mrs. Edward L. Kirby, of New York, who has been visiting Mr. Clayton I. Boyer, of Cynwyd, returned home last night.

Mrs. John Peter Grant, who has been visiting Mr. William Simpson Horner at her home in Germantown.

Mrs. J. Nelson Purviance, of 200 School House lane, has returned to her home from a trip to Massachusetts.

Miss Eleanor Edmonds, of Wayne avenue and Uptal street, will spend the week-end at the guest of Miss Henrietta Finkler in Montclair, N. J.

Mrs. Arthur Hood, of 24 Harvey street, entertained informally yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Harold Gaylord, who is at present with her parents in Chestnut Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord will leave shortly for Boston, where they will make their home permanently.

Quite the most important event in the week's festivities at the Stevens school, 221 West Chelten avenue, was the banquet held at the school last night. It preceded the refreshment and social event which takes place this morning, namely, the awarding of diplomas to the graduating class at Manheim. Last night however, the banquet table was artistically decorated with yellow daisies and blue corn flowers, the school colors. Mock presents in the shape of favors were presented by Miss Margaret Zimmerman and Miss Clarice Moyer. The members of the class who are taking an extra year and will graduate next June are Miss Dorothy McBride, Miss Elizabeth Huston, Miss Grace Ballinger, Miss Madeline Bennett, Miss Dorothy Steffan and Miss Molly Jones. The salutatory address was made yesterday afternoon by Miss Dorothy Jenkins; also the Ivy oration was given at the same time by Miss Dorothy Steffan.

Miss Margaret Gray, in spending several days in Annapolis, Md., attending the June week festivities at the Naval Academy.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Mazzo, 640 Carpenter street, will celebrate the sixth anniversary of their wedding on June 23. Nearly 200 invitations to a reception and dance at their home have been sent out. There will be a number of out-of-town guests.

Mr. Frank Laurer, 1013 South 24th street, will leave shortly on a motoring trip to Saratoga Springs. He will visit friends in New York on the way. He will be gone about a month.

WITH the beginning of June society will entertain at affairs in the country. On Monday Mr. and Mrs. George W. Childs Drexel will entertain at dinner at their home, Woodin, Bryn Mawr.

The large affair for the day on Tuesday will be the Greek play to be given in the new Woodlands Theatre of the Botanical Gardens of the University of Pennsylvania. The affair is under the direction of Granville Barker and a company of English actors, and the play to be given is "Iphigenia in Tauris."

A garden party will be given on Tuesday by Major General George Barnett and Mrs. Barnett in Washington in honor of Rear Admiral William S. Benson and Mrs. Benson, all formerly of this city.

The main affairs for Wednesday will be weddings. At noon, in Christ Church, Easton, Md., the marriage of Miss Mary Foxley Tikhman, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Oswald Tikhman, and Dr. John Fraser, of this city, will be celebrated. At the same time, Miss Marion Clifford Angell, daughter of Mrs. Thomas B. Angell, of Harrisburg, will become the bride of Mr. William S. Godfrey. On Wednesday the wedding of Frederick N. Campbell, Mrs. Cyrus H. K. Curtis, Mrs. H. E. De Puy, Mrs. Horace G. Fetterer, Mrs. William C. Kent, Mrs. George H. Lotimer, Mrs. Victor J. Mulford, Miss Ostheimer, Mrs. Weston Pennwell, Mrs. Allan H. Reed, Mrs. George R. Roden, Mrs. Robert Schackleton, Mrs. Henry Spaulding and Mrs. Frank P. Webb.

There will be several weddings for Thursday, among which will be that of Miss Mildred Thorpe and Mr. Frederick Stanley Whittaker in the home of the bride, Devon.

In the evening the wedding of Miss Marion Wiener Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Edward Jones, and Mr. Warren Corson Graham, will be celebrated in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Scranton, Pa.

In the afternoon from 5 until 7 o'clock a garden party will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Childs Madala at their residence in School lane in honor of Miss Marion D. Grant.

In the afternoon and evening a "moving picture" benefit will be given by the Ladies' Guild of the Episcopal Church of St. Mark, in honor of Mrs. Clement A. Grisco, the proceeds to be devoted to the Charlotte Cushman Club.

On Friday several affairs will be given for the net yet out. At noon Mrs. Gibson Bell, of Highland, Chestnut Hill, will entertain at luncheon in honor of her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Dawson Wheeler, and in the evening Mr. and Mrs. J. Rutherford McAllister, of Brickholm, Seminoe and Hartwell avenues, Chestnut Hill, will give a dinner in honor of their daughter, Miss Martha T. McAllister.

That evening, too, a fancy dress dinner-dance will be given by Mr. and Mrs. J. Franklin McElroy, at their summer home, Radnor Valley Farm, Rosemont.

Saturday will be a day for the "debs" to be. Mrs. Howard E. Graham, of 29 West Chestnut avenue, will entertain at luncheon in honor of her daughter, Miss Maria Thayer Graham. In the evening Mrs. Albert Dent, of 798 Seminoe avenue, will give a dance in honor of her daughter, Miss Margaret M. Dent.

In the evening Mr. Marshall S. Wippeny, of 142 North Broad street, will entertain at dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Waring Hopkinson. Mrs. Hopkinson will be remembered as Miss Anna Florence Woodruff.

Among the prominent people who will come to town to attend a "melodramatic movie" to be held next Thursday on the estate of Mrs. Clement A. Grisco, in Haverford, are Miss Gladys Hanson, who will be the guest of Mrs. Stephen Morris, Mrs. E. W. Morris, Mrs. Edith Wynne Mathison will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Crosby Brown, of Ardmore, and Miss Elizabeth Jordan will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Sinner, of Bryn Mawr. Miss Sinner will close her theatrical season in order to be present.

Mrs. Thomas C. Foster, of 219 Spruce street, gave a small formal dinner last night for her daughter, Miss Josephine C. S. Foster, whose debut will take place upon her return to town in the autumn. The affair was given at the Society Club, and the guests who were chiefly from the debutante set, included Miss Nancy W. Cook, Miss I. Emily Cook, Miss Mary Norris Corbitt, Miss Eleanor Bryant, Miss Agnes Allen, Miss Esther Jean Boehman, Miss Margaret H. Davis, Miss Corinne B. Freeman, Miss Mary de H. Dercum, Miss E. Yvonne Baird, Miss Eleanor Bingham, Miss Elizabeth Page, Miss Sarah H. B. Penrose, Miss Katherine Putnam, Miss Betty Scott, Miss McMichael, Miss Kate Furness, Miss Christine Schaefer, Miss Edith Smythe, Miss Frances Tyson, Miss Marion D. Grant, Miss Elizabeth Griffith, Miss Mariana Gowen, Miss Hannah C. Wright, Miss Mary E. Cohen, Miss Myrtle Denckla, Miss Barbara Boyd and Miss E. Pauline Denckla.

Dr. and Mrs. Francis X. Dercum entertained at dinner before the dance in honor of their daughter, Miss Josephine C. S. Foster, at their home, 219 Spruce street, on Tuesday evening. Dr. and Mrs. Perry B. Allen also gave a dinner for their daughter, Miss Agnes Allen.

Mrs. Herman P. Kremer and her daughter, Miss Katharine Herman Kremer, will close their town house, 206 Walnut street, the end of next week, and will occupy their cottage at Chesler, near the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Williams left for Chelsea last week.

Miss Marian Irwin, of Lansdowne, will entertain at luncheon next Tuesday in honor of Miss Helen E. McKinley, whose marriage to Mr. Barton G. Levin will take place the following week, and Mr. and Mrs. I. Levin of Linden lane, Merion, will give a dinner-dance on Wednesday, June 9, in honor of Miss McKinley.

Mrs. Henry Kuhl Kelly, Jr., of California, who with her infant son is visiting Mr. Kelly's father and mother, Dr. and Mrs. Howard A. Kelly, of Baltimore, will arrive in Bala this month, where she will be the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Samuel Stephenson. Mrs. Kelly will be remembered as Miss Reba Stephenson, and this will be her first visit since her marriage in the autumn of 1913, so that quite a few social affairs are being planned in her honor. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Legee, of Boston, who spent the week-end over Memorial Day with Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson, have returned home.

Mrs. Harold Harvey Hagg gave a delightful buffet luncheon today from 1 until 3 o'clock at her home on Bryn Mawr avenue, Cynwyd, the guests numbering about 100. Mrs. Hagg was assisted in receiving by her daughter, Mrs. Daniel J. Maguire, of Germantown. The first floor of the house was attractively decorated with early summer flowers, consisting of yellow and pink roses and a variety of beautiful peonies, and as each of the connecting rooms varied in color decorations from the others the whole effect was decidedly artistic.

WITH the beginning of June society will entertain at affairs in the country. On Monday Mr. and Mrs. George W. Childs Drexel will entertain at dinner at their home, Woodin, Bryn Mawr.

The large affair for the day on Tuesday will be the Greek play to be given in the new Woodlands Theatre of the Botanical Gardens of the University of Pennsylvania. The affair is under the direction of Granville Barker and a company of English actors, and the play to be given is "Iphigenia in Tauris."

A garden party will be given on Tuesday by Major General George Barnett and Mrs. Barnett in Washington in honor of Rear Admiral William S. Benson and Mrs. Benson, all formerly of this city.

The main affairs for Wednesday will be weddings. At noon, in Christ Church, Easton, Md., the marriage of Miss Mary Foxley Tikhman, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Oswald Tikhman, and Dr. John Fraser, of this city, will be celebrated. At the same time, Miss Marion Clifford Angell, daughter of Mrs. Thomas B. Angell, of Harrisburg, will become the bride of Mr. William S. Godfrey. On Wednesday the wedding of Frederick N. Campbell, Mrs. Cyrus H. K. Curtis, Mrs. H. E. De Puy, Mrs. Horace G. Fetterer, Mrs. William C. Kent, Mrs. George H. Lotimer, Mrs. Victor J. Mulford, Miss Ostheimer, Mrs. Weston Pennwell, Mrs. Allan H. Reed, Mrs. George R. Roden, Mrs. Robert Schackleton, Mrs. Henry Spaulding and Mrs. Frank P. Webb.

There will be several weddings for Thursday, among which will be that of Miss Mildred Thorpe and Mr. Frederick Stanley Whittaker in the home of the bride, Devon.

In the evening the wedding of Miss Marion Wiener Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Edward Jones, and Mr. Warren Corson Graham, will be celebrated in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Scranton, Pa.

In the afternoon from 5 until 7 o'clock a garden party will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Childs Madala at their residence in School lane in honor of Miss Marion D. Grant.

In the afternoon and evening a "moving picture" benefit will be given by the Ladies' Guild of the Episcopal Church of St. Mark, in honor of Mrs. Clement A. Grisco, the proceeds to be devoted to the Charlotte Cushman Club.

On Friday several affairs will be given for the net yet out. At noon Mrs. Gibson Bell, of Highland, Chestnut Hill, will entertain at luncheon in honor of her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Dawson Wheeler, and in the evening Mr. and Mrs. J. Rutherford McAllister, of Brickholm, Seminoe and Hartwell avenues, Chestnut Hill, will give a dinner in honor of their daughter, Miss Martha T. McAllister.

That evening, too, a fancy dress dinner-dance will be given by Mr. and Mrs. J. Franklin McElroy, at their summer home, Radnor Valley Farm, Rosemont.

Saturday will be a day for the "debs" to be. Mrs. Howard E. Graham, of 29 West Chestnut avenue, will entertain at luncheon in honor of her daughter, Miss Maria Thayer Graham. In the evening Mrs. Albert Dent, of 798 Seminoe avenue, will give a dance in honor of her daughter, Miss Margaret M. Dent.

In the evening Mr. Marshall S. Wippeny, of 142 North Broad street, will entertain at dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Waring Hopkinson. Mrs. Hopkinson will be remembered as Miss Anna Florence Woodruff.

Among the prominent people who will come to town to attend a "melodramatic movie" to be held next Thursday on the estate of Mrs. Clement A. Grisco, in Haverford, are Miss Gladys Hanson, who will be the guest of Mrs. Stephen Morris, Mrs. E. W. Morris, Mrs. Edith Wynne Mathison will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Crosby Brown, of Ardmore, and Miss Elizabeth Jordan will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Sinner, of Bryn Mawr. Miss Sinner will close her theatrical season in order to be present.

Mrs. Thomas C. Foster, of 219 Spruce street, gave a small formal dinner last night for her daughter, Miss Josephine C. S. Foster, whose debut will take place upon her return to town in the autumn. The affair was given at the Society Club, and the guests who were chiefly from the debutante set, included Miss Nancy W. Cook, Miss I. Emily Cook, Miss Mary Norris Corbitt, Miss Eleanor Bryant, Miss Agnes Allen, Miss Esther Jean Boehman, Miss Margaret H. Davis, Miss Corinne B. Freeman, Miss Mary de H. Dercum, Miss E. Yvonne Baird, Miss Eleanor Bingham, Miss Elizabeth Page, Miss Sarah H. B. Penrose, Miss Katherine Putnam, Miss Betty Scott, Miss McMichael, Miss Kate Furness, Miss Christine Schaefer, Miss Edith Smythe, Miss Frances Tyson, Miss Marion D. Grant, Miss Elizabeth Griffith, Miss Mariana Gowen, Miss Hannah C. Wright, Miss Mary E. Cohen, Miss Myrtle Denckla, Miss Barbara Boyd and Miss E. Pauline Denckla.

Dr. and Mrs. Francis X. Dercum entertained at dinner before the dance in honor of their daughter, Miss Josephine C. S. Foster, at their home, 219 Spruce street, on Tuesday evening. Dr. and Mrs. Perry B. Allen also gave a dinner for their daughter, Miss Agnes Allen.

Mrs. Herman P. Kremer and her daughter, Miss Katharine Herman Kremer, will close their town house, 206 Walnut street, the end of next week, and will occupy their cottage at Chesler, near the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Williams left for Chelsea last week.

Miss Marian Irwin, of Lansdowne, will entertain at luncheon next Tuesday in honor of Miss Helen E. McKinley, whose marriage to Mr. Barton G. Levin will take place the following week, and Mr. and Mrs. I. Levin of Linden lane, Merion, will give a dinner-dance on Wednesday, June 9, in honor of Miss McKinley.

Mrs. Henry Kuhl Kelly, Jr., of California, who with her infant son is visiting Mr. Kelly's father and mother, Dr. and Mrs. Howard A. Kelly, of Baltimore, will arrive in Bala this month, where she will be the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Samuel Stephenson. Mrs. Kelly will be remembered as Miss Reba Stephenson, and this will be her first visit since her marriage in the autumn of 1913, so that quite a few social affairs are being planned in her honor. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Legee, of Boston, who spent the week-end over Memorial Day with Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson, have returned home.

Mrs. Harold Harvey Hagg gave a delightful buffet luncheon today from 1 until 3 o'clock at her home on Bryn Mawr avenue, Cynwyd, the guests numbering about 100. Mrs. Hagg was assisted in receiving by her daughter, Mrs. Daniel J. Maguire, of Germantown. The first floor of the house was attractively decorated with early summer flowers, consisting of yellow and pink roses and a variety of beautiful peonies, and as each of the connecting rooms varied in color decorations from the others the whole effect was decidedly artistic.

WITH the beginning of June society will entertain at affairs in the country. On Monday Mr. and Mrs. George W. Childs Drexel will entertain at dinner at their home, Woodin, Bryn Mawr.

The large affair for the day on Tuesday will be the Greek play to be given in the new Woodlands Theatre of the Botanical Gardens of the University of Pennsylvania. The affair is under the direction of Granville Barker and a company of English actors, and the play to be given is "Iphigenia in Tauris."

A garden party will be given on Tuesday by Major General George Barnett and Mrs. Barnett in Washington in honor of Rear Admiral William S. Benson and Mrs. Benson, all formerly of this city.

The main affairs for Wednesday will be weddings. At noon, in Christ Church, Easton, Md., the marriage of Miss Mary Foxley Tikhman, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Oswald Tikhman, and Dr. John Fraser, of this city, will be celebrated. At the same time, Miss Marion Clifford Angell, daughter of Mrs. Thomas B. Angell, of Harrisburg, will become the bride of Mr. William S. Godfrey. On Wednesday the wedding of Frederick N. Campbell, Mrs. Cyrus H. K. Curtis, Mrs. H. E. De Puy, Mrs. Horace G. Fetterer, Mrs. William C. Kent, Mrs. George H