Dr. Samuel Bolton, of Frankford Hospital, walks like a soldier, as shown by the snapshot.

A STREET NOT IN LOUVAIN, BUT IN PHILADELPHIA

The inhabitants of this side of Walnut street, between 19th and 20th, have fled from midsummer heat, not the Germans. Among the homes here from left to right are those of F. H. Rosengarten, Ex-Judge Dimmer S. Beeber, Mrs. S. Francis Shaw, Aubrey S. Weightman, Percival S. Foerderer and Samuel F. Bodine.

"PERSONAL TOUCH" METHODS APPLIED TO KITCHENER'S ARMY

Lord Kitchener inspecting a body of troops in front of the Guild Hall in Manchester, England. The black-robed figure is the Lord Mayor. The War Secretary has been appearing more frequently in public than usual of late, in an effort, it is said, to have potential recruits better acquainted with him.

MARCONI ARRIVES IN THE WAR ZONE

The first photograph of the famous wireless inventor showing him in military uniform. The cross indicates Marconi leaving headquarters after consulting with staff officers of the Italian army in the field.

KNOWN TO ALL KENSINGTON

Dr. John Blair has practiced his profession in the northeast for 46 years. His drug store is a neighborhood centre for the discussion of current topics.
