

RECEIVING PARTIES ADD THEIR QUOTA OF INTEREST TO SOCIETY

Debutantes Who Will Assist Miss Lillie - Number of Matrons to Receive With Mrs. Graham at Tea Tomorrow - Personals

Among the debutantes who will assist Miss Lillie at the tea which Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lillie will give to introduce their daughter, Miss Theodore Kelso Lillie, at their country home in Haverford on Thursday, October 21, will be Miss Edith Earle, Miss Margaretta Dixon Myers, Miss Sarah Margaret Myers, Miss Sarah C. Utendale Baird, Miss Christine Stockton, Miss Eleanor Vermer, Miss Elizabeth Wilmer Griffiths, Miss Margaret O'ndorck Romak, Miss Martha Thornton McAuliffe, Miss Jean Morgan Hancock, Miss Sarah Franklin, Miss Gertrude Hancock, Miss Eleanor Bryant, Miss Katherine Register, Miss Emilie Fosse Kennedy, Miss Barbara Milfin Boyd, Miss Katherine Gaden, Miss Louise Davis and Miss Katherine Tenney. A supper and dance for the receiving party and a few additional guests will follow the tea.

Cummings, Miss Sue Thibault, Miss Leona Irvin, Miss Alice Woodward, Miss Virginia Hirst, Miss Maytha Callingham, Miss Beatrice Stokes, Miss Arnie Bloomfield, Miss Bernice Hearst and Miss Josephine Bookins.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Lukens will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary this evening at the residence of their daughter, Mrs. C. L. Hemmery, of Mountain avenue, Melrose Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Wood Rawcliffe, of Montgomery avenue, Orono, have had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. William Bratton, of 57 Ripley street, Pittsburgh, Mr. and Mrs. Bratton have been guests for several weeks at the Marlborough-Blenheim, Atlantic City.

West Philadelphia

Miss Mollie Divac, of 5242 Christian street, gave a surprise linen shower at her home on Saturday in honor of Miss Fannie Goldberg, who is engaged to Mr. Divac. The main entertainment of the evening was exhibition of the latest dancing steps by Mr. J. Divac, Miss Mollie Divac and Mr. Leon Vell. The dancing was followed by a Dutch supper. Among those present were Miss Rose Herman, Miss Ida Stewart, Miss Rosalie Rennek, Miss Rae Rennek, Miss Sarah Willet, Miss Mae Epstein, Miss Anna Glickman, Miss Sarah Cohen, Miss Fannie Gerson, Miss Blanche Myers, Miss Rose Gineburg, Miss Annie Goldberg, Doctor Galick, Mr. J. Wilder, Mr. I. Wilder, Mr. J. Halpern, Mr. J. Pressman, Mr. B. Rappaport, Mr. I. Eisenstein, Mr. C. Goldberg, Mr. L. Vell, Mr. H. Taylor, Mr. A. Goldberg, Mr. J. Brannick, Mr. A. Divac, Mr. Joe Divac, Mr. M. Divac, Mr. M. Goldberg, Mr. and Mrs. Goldberg and Mr. and Mrs. Divac.

Mr. Creston M. Clark, of 718 North Budd street, has just returned from a vacation spent at the Panama Exposition.

Miss Helene E. Bates and Miss Lillian E. Bates, of 524 Walton avenue, entertained the members of the Phi Phi Sorority at their home on Saturday afternoon. Those present were Miss Frances L. Barnes, Miss Hele E. Bates, Miss Marie Boehm, Miss Dorothy Buck, Miss Lillian E. Bates, Miss Helen Buchanan, Miss Dorothy F. Glenn, Miss Ruth Pope and Miss Ella Glenn.

South Philadelphia

Invitations have been issued by Mrs. George W. Wise for the marriage of her daughter, Miss Gladys Marguerite Wise, to Mr. John H. Hartzell, Jr., on Tuesday, October 19, at 6 o'clock, at her home, 2129 South 10th street.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Silber gave a dinner-dance last week at their home, 813 Helen street, in honor of their niece, Miss Helen Sofren, of Winthrop, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Viguiera, who have spent the summer season at their country home at Atlantic City, returned to the city this week and opened their home at 15th and Moore streets.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Hamilton, of 2024 South 10th street, entertained last week at a small dinner party in the Adelphi Hotel in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Baldwin, of Chicago, Ill., who have been visiting in Philadelphia and vicinity for the last two weeks.

Mr. J. D. Corcoran, of 1338 South 18th street, is home again after a lengthy stay at Atlantic City.

Mr. George N. Lowery and family, of 1828 South 17th street, who have been traveling all summer, returned home last week.

An outing of the actuary department, Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company, was held last Wednesday at the Country Club in Hon Ar. After a dinner the guests were entertained by the Penn Mutual Quintet, composed of Mr. C. M. T. Parkinson, Mr. A. Irons, Mr. W. S. Knox, Mr. D. S. Woodruff, 3d, and Mr. W. Walters. Mr. Burnett Gibb, chief actuary, gave an interesting talk on life insurance.

Mrs. J. A. Trainer, of 1436 Catharine street, has returned home after spending the summer months at Chelsea.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon D. Eisenhower, of 2142 South Broad street, have returned home after a vacation at their cottage in Atlantic City.

Mr. Thomas Ricketts, of 1419 Moore street, gave his "freedom party" at his home Saturday evening. Many prominent South Philadelphians were among the guests present.

North Philadelphia

Miss Tillie Supkal, of Mount Carmel, is spending a few weeks with Mrs. E. George and sister, Miss H. Roach, of 320 North Woodland street.

Miss Lauretta Griffin, of 1840 North Judson street, has cancelled all engagements until after January 1.

Lansdowne

Mrs. Frank G. Burrows, of East Stewart avenue, will entertain at luncheon this afternoon. Her guests will be the members of the Publicity Committee of the Twentieth Century Club, and include Mrs. A. B. Pennock, Mrs. Clarence Espinalline, Mrs. T. S. Bishop, Mrs. James P. Breen, Mrs. John Davis and Mrs. William C. Jackson.

Under the auspices of the Mothers in Council a benefit musical will be given in the 20th Century Club on November 20.

Miss Mary Long, daughter of Mr. W. H. Rovey, of 13 East Stratford avenue, entered Wellesley College last month.

PRINCIPALS IN SUNDAY WEDDING

The members of the Ringstetten, the Ladies Harge Club, will give a redstring supper at the clubhouse on the River drive this evening. Among those who will entertain are Mr. and Mrs. E. Rittenberger Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Francis R. Becken, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Woodward, Mrs. E. Rosa Carver, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Tucker, Jr., and Mr. George Maloney.

Mr. and Mrs. William Rodgers Sauter, of 13 West Nippon street, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Elizabeth Patterson Sauter.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stobba, of Wissamickon avenue and Stafford street, will return shortly from Long Branch.

Mrs. V. C. Williams, of 630 Quincy street, left for San Francisco, where she will remain until the early part of December.

Miss Mary Craig, of 361 West Walnut street, returned from an extended stay at Atlantic City, N. J.

Along the Reading

Miss June Hammond, of Oak Lane, will act as hostess to the members of her bridge club tomorrow afternoon. Her guests will include Miss Jeanette Wood, Miss Irene Sauter, Miss Josephine Wagoner, Miss Phyllis Dure, Miss Marjorie

MRS. GEORGE UPTON FAVORITE Who was married today at noon in St. Mark's Protestant Episcopal Church.

WEDDING TAKES PLACE IN NEW JERSEY TODAY

Miss Pauline Hart Becomes Bride of Mr. E. C. Dale at Rumson, the Home of Mr. and Mrs. Harding - Miss Leaf and Mr. Favorite Married - Other Nuptials

A wedding of importance which took place today in Rumson, N. J., was that of Miss Pauline Hart and Mr. Edward C. Dale, both of this city. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Doctor Duncan, in the Church of George-by-the-River, and was followed by a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Horace Harding, the former of whom is a cousin of the bride.

The wedding took place at 1 o'clock. Miss Hart was attended by Mrs. Ernest du Pont, favorite matron of honor, and there were no bridesmaids. Miss Evelyn Drayton and Miss Laura Harding were little flower girls. Mr. Hermann A. Denchka, a cousin of Mr. Dale's, acted as best man, and the ushers were Dr. Arthur Newlin, Mr. John Strawbridge, Mr. Walter Lippincott, Mr. Arthur H. Brockie, Mr. Albert F. Gerhard, Mr. George L. Justice, Dr. Frederick Fralay, Mr. Harry Maybin Hart, Dr. John Cruise and Mr. Charles West Churchman.

The marriage of Miss Harriet Clay Leaf, daughter of Mrs. Edward Bowman Leaf, to Mr. George Upton Favorite took place at noon today in St. Mark's Church, the Rev. Elliot White, the pastor, officiating. The bride, who was given in marriage by her mother, wore an exquisite gown of ivory tulle and duchesse satin with a long square train and her slim tulle veil was attached to the hair by a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a graceful shower bouquet of the bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Leaf was groomed in tulle velvet trimmed with brown fox fur and silver lace and wore a silver lace hat trimmed with fur and tulle velvet plumes. The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Frances E. Leaf, who wore a charming little frock of pale pink chiffon trimmed with silver lace and silver ribbon and a hat of pink chiffon and silver lace to match. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Mr. Favorite had his father, Mr. W. F. Favorite, as best man, and the ushers were Mr. Frank Coyle, Mr. Chicago, Mr. Jervis Burdick, Mr. Calvin Favorite, Mr. Stephen Hewitt, of West Virginia, Mr. Cormack Eggleston and Mr. Reed Kilpatrick, of New York.

A beautiful wedding will take place tonight in the Gaston Protestant Church, 11th street and Lehigh avenue, when Miss Jane S. Winder, daughter of Mrs. A. Sligg Winder, of 553 North 11th street, will be given in marriage by her brother, Mr. William D. Winder, to Mr. Marcus B. Wechsler, of Westville, N. J. The ceremony will be performed at 8 o'clock in the evening at the church. The Rev. Dr. Walter Greenway, of the bride's gown is of lustrous white crepe meteor, which is shown off to splendid advantage by the simple cut. The court train is panned velvet. The bride's train will be attached to a cap of real lace made from the wedding veil worn by the bride's mother 33 years ago tonight.

Mrs. Robert H. Mooney will be sister of the bride, Miss Bertha Winder, also a sister of the bride, and Miss Reba Wechsler, sister of the bridegroom. Master Edgar Jones, Jr., clad in a quaint court costume, will be the ring bearer.

Mr. Paul Wechsler will attend his brother as best man, and the ushers will be Mr. Harry Winder, Mr. John Winder, Mr. W. F. Favorite, Mr. Edgar Jones and Mr. Robert H. Mooney. The service will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's mother, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Favorite, at 10th and Lehigh streets. Mr. and Mrs. Wechsler upon their return from the wedding journey will live at the best Sydney street, Lorain, where they will receive after November 15.

A very pretty wedding took place on Saturday afternoon at St. Monica's Church when Miss Elizabeth Sexton, daughter of Mr. John McBride, became the bride of Mr. John F. Farley. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. P. J. McGarrity. Breakfast followed the ceremony. On their return from their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Farley will reside with Mr. Farley's mother at 3430 South 20th street.

The marriage of Miss Rebecca Light, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Light, of 123 South 8th street, to Mr. Benjamin Silber, of Bristol, Pa., will be solemnized tonight at the residence of Rabbi B. Levinthal, 725 Pine street, who will officiate. The ceremony will be followed by a dinner and reception, after which Mr. and Mrs. Silber will leave on a return tour to Niagara Falls, returning early this winter to their new home in Bristol, Pa.

A romance of several years will be culminated this morning when nuptial Mass is celebrated at St. Joachim's Church, Frankford, between Miss Mary M. Kelly and William J. Barry, Jr. Barry is an amateur actor of high repute, and his start in amateur theatricals threw him opposite Miss Kelly, both playing leads. Barry soon began to play a double game, not only wooing Miss Kelly behind the footlights, but also on the stage. He is a member of the Philadelphia Institute, which produces high-class plays.

The bridesmaid will be Miss Kathryn Kelly, a sister of the bride, and the best man will be Nicholas T. Barry, of New York city. The couple, after a honeymoon of several weeks, will be at home, at 226 Penn street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Isles and their daughter, Miss Esther Isles, have returned to their home at Fox Chase after having spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. William Hollingsworth, of 5421 Water street, Olney.

A delightful reception was given Monday night in honor of Mrs. Rosina Metzler at her home, 132 Concord street, Roxborough, in celebration of her 90th birthday anniversary. Mrs. Metzler was born on October 9, 1825, in Alsace-Lorraine and came to this country with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Metzler, in 1855 and settled in Roxborough, where she was married that year to Mr. Frederick Metzler. The latter died in 1896. Mrs. Metzler has five sons, Peter, Frederick, Michael, Jacob and Martin, all well-known business men; 19 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren. The entertainment was arranged by Mrs. Metzler's children and the Rev. J. J. O'Connell, of the German Lutheran Church of Roxborough, of which she has been an active member since its organization. Unusually well preserved, with bright eyes that have never been dimmed by glass, Mrs. Metzler walks to church on all clear Sundays and takes an active interest in all its varied works and charities.

The house was beautifully decorated with autumn and winter flowers. There were about 300 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Gill, of Haddonfield, are enjoying a Western trip, including a visit to the two expositions.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Sicker, of 414 Cooper street, and Mr. and Mrs. David Jester, of 6th and Linden streets, will motor to the Egypt Mills clubhouse, Montebello, Pa., tomorrow to remain for some time.

Miss Florence M. Story, of Highland Park, entertained the "T. G. L. C." Club at her home on Friday evening.

Four generations participated in the golden wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards, of Fernwood, last night. Children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren were present. Mr. Edwards, who is in the meat and provision business in Fernwood, is a veteran of the Civil War. A few years ago he was active in political affairs in Delaware County, and has been an ardent suffragist. He announced himself in favor of the woman's vote in 1872. He has never been such a thing as universal suffrage was hardly thought of. Before her marriage Mrs. Edwards was Miss Emma Holt, daughter of the late Thomas Holt, a Delaware County manufacturer.

Belmont Improvement Association, Grand avenue and 10th street, p. m. Free. Colnebrook Board of Trade, Diamond and 9th streets, 8 p. m. Free. First Fourth Street Business Men's Association, 5342 Haverford avenue, 8 p. m. Free. Germantown Business Men's Association, 2614 Germantown avenue, 8 p. m. Free. P. M. and Grand Street Business Men's Association, 1550 North 22d street, 8 p. m. Free. P. M. and Grand Street Business Men's Association, 1550 North 22d street, 8 p. m. Free. P. M. and Grand Street Business Men's Association, 1550 North 22d street, 8 p. m. Free. P. M. and Grand Street Business Men's Association, 1550 North 22d street, 8 p. m. Free.

Supper at 8 o'clock, when Miss Marjorie Menamin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Minnich, becomes the bride of Mr. Charles Henry Jones in the Woodland Presbyterian Church, 424 and Pine streets. The Rev. James Ramsay Swain, pastor of the church, will officiate.

Debutante Doings

Miss Martha Thornton McAllister will be formally presented today at a tea to be given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Rutherford McAllister, at their home Brickholm, Chestnut Hill. The receiving party will include Miss Margaretta Dixon Myers, Miss Sarah Margaret Myers, Miss Margaret O'ndorck Romak, Miss Christine Hare Stockton, Miss C. Eleanor Pepper, Miss Edith Earle, Miss Barbara Milfin Boyd, Miss Emilie Fosse Kennedy, Miss Anne B. Merrick, Miss Gertrude L. Hancock, Miss Barbara Benson, Miss Theodora Keith Lillie, Miss Elizabeth C. Adams, Miss Sarah Claypoole Neilson and Miss Eleanor Vermer.

A dinner and dance will follow for the members of the receiving party and younger men.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wetherill Hansell, of Lancaster avenue, Ardmore, will introduce their daughter, Miss Helen Hansell, this afternoon at a tea. There will be no receiving party.

Frankford

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Mount, of 6015 Rising Sun avenue, are awaiting congratulations on the birth of a daughter.

Miss Antonia Holden, 425 Frankford Avenue, has gone to the Pacific coast, and will attend the National W. C. T. U. convention at Seattle.

Mrs. William Felton and daughter, Mrs. Jonathan Jones, of Milltown, Md., have returned to their home after having spent a week as the guests of Miss Mary Felton, of 5421 Rising Sun avenue.

A surprise party was given Mrs. Walter M. Fiske at her home on Academy road Saturday evening upon her return from California, where she has been spending the last six months. Those present were Mrs. Albert Munn, Mrs. Frank Waters, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Thomas, Miss Mary MacIntyre, Mr. and Mrs. George Sinclair, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bayne, Miss Fanny Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Atkins, Mrs. George Loutch, Miss Ida Bidding, Mr. and Mrs. John Stackhouse, Mr. and Mrs. George Rosenbaum, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Yardwood and Mr. and Mrs. John Humphreys.

A harvest home fete and Dutch supper will be given at St. Bartholomew's Church Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Isles and their daughter, Miss Esther Isles, have returned to their home at Fox Chase after having spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. William Hollingsworth, of 5421 Water street, Olney.

Roxborough

A delightful reception was given Monday night in honor of Mrs. Rosina Metzler at her home, 132 Concord street, Roxborough, in celebration of her 90th birthday anniversary. Mrs. Metzler was born on October 9, 1825, in Alsace-Lorraine and came to this country with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Metzler, in 1855 and settled in Roxborough, where she was married that year to Mr. Frederick Metzler. The latter died in 1896. Mrs. Metzler has five sons, Peter, Frederick, Michael, Jacob and Martin, all well-known business men; 19 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren. The entertainment was arranged by Mrs. Metzler's children and the Rev. J. J. O'Connell, of the German Lutheran Church of Roxborough, of which she has been an active member since its organization. Unusually well preserved, with bright eyes that have never been dimmed by glass, Mrs. Metzler walks to church on all clear Sundays and takes an active interest in all its varied works and charities.

The house was beautifully decorated with autumn and winter flowers. There were about 300 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Gill, of Haddonfield, are enjoying a Western trip, including a visit to the two expositions.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Sicker, of 414 Cooper street, and Mr. and Mrs. David Jester, of 6th and Linden streets, will motor to the Egypt Mills clubhouse, Montebello, Pa., tomorrow to remain for some time.

Miss Florence M. Story, of Highland Park, entertained the "T. G. L. C." Club at her home on Friday evening.

Four generations participated in the golden wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards, of Fernwood, last night. Children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren were present. Mr. Edwards, who is in the meat and provision business in Fernwood, is a veteran of the Civil War. A few years ago he was active in political affairs in Delaware County, and has been an ardent suffragist. He announced himself in favor of the woman's vote in 1872. He has never been such a thing as universal suffrage was hardly thought of. Before her marriage Mrs. Edwards was Miss Emma Holt, daughter of the late Thomas Holt, a Delaware County manufacturer.

Belmont Improvement Association, Grand avenue and 10th street, p. m. Free. Colnebrook Board of Trade, Diamond and 9th streets, 8 p. m. Free. First Fourth Street Business Men's Association, 5342 Haverford avenue, 8 p. m. Free. Germantown Business Men's Association, 2614 Germantown avenue, 8 p. m. Free. P. M. and Grand Street Business Men's Association, 1550 North 22d street, 8 p. m. Free. P. M. and Grand Street Business Men's Association, 1550 North 22d street, 8 p. m. Free. P. M. and Grand Street Business Men's Association, 1550 North 22d street, 8 p. m. Free.

Supper at 8 o'clock, when Miss Marjorie Menamin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Minnich, becomes the bride of Mr. Charles Henry Jones in the Woodland Presbyterian Church, 424 and Pine streets. The Rev. James Ramsay Swain, pastor of the church, will officiate.

The marriage of Miss Rebecca Light, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Light, of 123 South 8th street, to Mr. Benjamin Silber, of Bristol, Pa., will be solemnized tonight at the residence of Rabbi B. Levinthal, 725 Pine street, who will officiate. The ceremony will be followed by a dinner and reception, after which Mr. and Mrs. Silber will leave on a return tour to Niagara Falls, returning early this winter to their new home in Bristol, Pa.

A romance of several years will be culminated this morning when nuptial Mass is celebrated at St. Joachim's Church, Frankford, between Miss Mary M. Kelly and William J. Barry, Jr. Barry is an amateur actor of high repute, and his start in amateur theatricals threw him opposite Miss Kelly, both playing leads. Barry soon began to play a double game, not only wooing Miss Kelly behind the footlights, but also on the stage. He is a member of the Philadelphia Institute, which produces high-class plays.

The bridesmaid will be Miss Kathryn Kelly, a sister of the bride, and the best man will be Nicholas T. Barry, of New York city. The couple, after a honeymoon of several weeks, will be at home, at 226 Penn street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Isles and their daughter, Miss Esther Isles, have returned to their home at Fox Chase after having spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. William Hollingsworth, of 5421 Water street, Olney.

A delightful reception was given Monday night in honor of Mrs. Rosina Metzler at her home, 132 Concord street, Roxborough, in celebration of her 90th birthday anniversary. Mrs. Metzler was born on October 9, 1825, in Alsace-Lorraine and came to this country with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Metzler, in 1855 and settled in Roxborough, where she was married that year to Mr. Frederick Metzler. The latter died in 1896. Mrs. Metzler has five sons, Peter, Frederick, Michael, Jacob and Martin, all well-known business men; 19 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren. The entertainment was arranged by Mrs. Metzler's children and the Rev. J. J. O'Connell, of the German Lutheran Church of Roxborough, of which she has been an active member since its organization. Unusually well preserved, with bright eyes that have never been dimmed by glass, Mrs. Metzler walks to church on all clear Sundays and takes an active interest in all its varied works and charities.

The house was beautifully decorated with autumn and winter flowers. There were about 300 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Gill, of Haddonfield, are enjoying a Western trip, including a visit to the two expositions.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Sicker, of 414 Cooper street, and Mr. and Mrs. David Jester, of 6th and Linden streets, will motor to the Egypt Mills clubhouse, Montebello, Pa., tomorrow to remain for some time.

Miss Florence M. Story, of Highland Park, entertained the "T. G. L. C." Club at her home on Friday evening.

Four generations participated in the golden wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards, of Fernwood, last night. Children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren were present. Mr. Edwards, who is in the meat and provision business in Fernwood, is a veteran of the Civil War. A few years ago he was active in political affairs in Delaware County, and has been an ardent suffragist. He announced himself in favor of the woman's vote in 1872. He has never been such a thing as universal suffrage was hardly thought of. Before her marriage Mrs. Edwards was Miss Emma Holt, daughter of the late Thomas Holt, a Delaware County manufacturer.

Belmont Improvement Association, Grand avenue and 10th street, p. m. Free. Colnebrook Board of Trade, Diamond and 9th streets, 8 p. m. Free. First Fourth Street Business Men's Association, 5342 Haverford avenue, 8 p. m. Free. Germantown Business Men's Association, 2614 Germantown avenue, 8 p. m. Free. P. M. and Grand Street Business Men's Association, 1550 North 22d street, 8 p. m. Free. P. M. and Grand Street Business Men's Association, 1550 North 22d street, 8 p. m. Free. P. M. and Grand Street Business Men's Association, 1550 North 22d street, 8 p. m. Free.

Supper at 8 o'clock, when Miss Marjorie Menamin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Minnich, becomes the bride of Mr. Charles Henry Jones in the Woodland Presbyterian Church, 424 and Pine streets. The Rev. James Ramsay Swain, pastor of the church, will officiate.

TIOGA TO OPEN INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION BY LARGE PARADE

Fraternal Societies, Decorated Floats and Various Organizations in Costume to Be Leading Features of the Celebration

TIOGA'S Industrial Exhibition will open on Thursday night with a motor parade of fraternal societies, decorated floats, business men's associations, industrial displays and costumed organizations through the streets of that section, starting at 7th street and Rising Sun avenue and going over the following route: To Butler street, to 8th street, to Erie avenue, to Germantown avenue, to Allegheny avenue, to Venango street, to Broad street, to Butler street, to Germantown avenue, to Rising Sun avenue. It is expected that about 5000 people will be in line. Mr. Arthur Swain is chairman of the Parade Committee. He will have as his aids in the parade Messrs. George W. Hobson, Eugene J. McAleer and Wilbur H. Zimmerman. The General Committee includes Messrs. Frank Kramer, George E. Weber, Louis Gilbert, George Lohr, Louis Schifren, Theodore Marquand, Michael Walker, Thomas Kelly, and Burton Riedinger. The exhibition given by local business men will continue until Saturday, October 23.

At the annual meeting of the Tioga Business Men's Association these officers were elected: President, Mr. Wilbur H. Zimmerman; vice presidents, Mr. Thomas Bluet, Mr. Edward C. Snyder, Jr.; receiving secretary, Mr. Matthew J. Donohoe; financial secretary, Mr. Edgar A. Hobson; treasurer, Mr. Jacob Lohr; directors, Mr. William Alexander, Mr. John Schuster, Mr. John M. Gross, Louis Gilbert, Mr. Harry Smith, Mr. Wesley Smith, Mr. Michael Walker, Mr. Carroll Dobbin, Mr. P. J. Lyons, Mr. William Sells, Mr. William Peter, Jr., George Steas, Mr. J. E. McIntire, Mr. George H. Lohr and Mr. William H. Clarke.

The auxiliary of the Northeastern Ladies' Benevolent Society held their first meeting at the house of the Misses Tieman. Elections of officers took place and include Miss Nan K. Cohen, president; Miss Kittie Friedman, secretary; Miss Sarah R. Tieman, financial secretary; Miss Lenora V. Sollard, treasurer.

Plans are being made for a concert and dance to be given on Sunday evening, November 7, at Apollo Hall.

A dinner was given last week by Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Fox, of 815 South 5th street, in honor of their daughter, Miss Sara Fox, who recently announced her betrothal. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. M. Gerber, Mr. and Mrs. Zilkin, Mr. and Mrs. Lahov, Mr. and Mrs. J. Rudolph and Mr. and Mrs. H. Zilkin, of New York; Miss Esther Fox, Miss Reba Fox, Miss Lena Fox, Mr. August Zilkin, Mr. Louis Zilkin, Mr. David Zilkin and Mr. Leonard Lewis.

SOCIAL ENTERTAINMENTS AROUND THE WOMAN'S CLUBS

INVITATIONS have been sent out by the Society of Arts and Letters for its first meeting, which will take place at the New Century Drawing Rooms tomorrow evening at 8. The program is as follows: Piano solo, Mrs. Octavus Marvin Harcum; songs, Mrs. Wallace Houston; trio for piano, violin and cello, Joseph W. Clarke, Emil F. Schmidt and William A. Schmidt; reading by Aladino A. Autilio, Miss Florence R. Sheets, Miss Alice E. Bennett and Dr. Sylvester L. James Deehan. Dr. Joseph Packard Laird will read a paper on "Washington Irving and Some of His Friends" and the subject of the paper read by Harry E. Graves will be "The Hudson River School of Painters." A literary and musical competition has been announced by the society, the prizes being two gold medals.

The Saturday Club of Wayne will hold a reception tomorrow afternoon at 3. The artists who will contribute to the entertainment include Mrs. A. G. D. Peterson, Mrs. Robert Le Bouillier, Miss Elder, Miss Zohar, Mrs. Clarke Schuch, Mrs. A. N. Elliott, and Miss J. Scott. On Thursday a harvest home fete will be held under the auspices of the Neighborhood League.

The executive board of the Century Club, of Norwood, will hold a meeting tomorrow at 1 p. m. "What Suffrage Will Mean to the Women and Children of Our State" will be discussed by Mrs. Isaac H. Rhoads.

The executive board of the Woman's League for Good Government meets at 1 p. m. at its headquarters in the Stephen Girard Building on Thursday.

Three thousand invitations have been issued for the reception which is being planned in honor of the League's 10th anniversary. The guests of honor will include Mayor and Mrs. Rudolph Blankenburg and Mr. and Mrs. George D. Porter. The Hathaway-Shakespeare Club will hold its third meeting on Friday afternoon. Poets and authors will be the subject under discussion, some of the speakers, including Mrs. A. H. McOwen.

The "Nettlers" of Haddon will hear travelers' tales at their regular meeting on Saturday afternoon. Miss Elinor Morgan will describe motoring in the United States, and Mrs. Penrose D. Hamilton will speak of art at the Exposition.

The Mount Airy Literary Club has joined the State Federation, and has arranged to send a delegate to Wilkes-Barre. The meetings are held on Thursday mornings at the home of Mrs. Archie E. Waugh, Rumfort road.

"Personal Interest in Our City Government" will be the subject of a paper read by Mrs. Frank Miles Day next Saturday evening at 8. A fair will be held in the afternoon at the New Century Guild, beginning at 2 p. m. Supper will be served at 8.

The "Nettlers" of Haddon will hear travelers' tales at their regular meeting on Saturday afternoon. Miss Elinor Morgan will describe motoring in the United States, and Mrs. Penrose D. Hamilton will speak of art at the Exposition.

The "Nettlers" of Haddon will hear travelers' tales at their regular meeting on Saturday afternoon. Miss Elinor Morgan will describe motoring in the United States, and Mrs. Penrose D. Hamilton will speak of art at the Exposition.

The "Nettlers" of Haddon will hear travelers' tales at their regular meeting on Saturday afternoon. Miss Elinor Morgan will describe motoring in the United States, and Mrs. Penrose D. Hamilton will speak of art at the Exposition.

The "Nettlers" of Haddon will hear travelers' tales at their regular meeting on Saturday afternoon. Miss Elinor Morgan will describe motoring in the United States, and Mrs. Penrose D. Hamilton will speak of art at the Exposition.

The "Nettlers" of Haddon will hear travelers' tales at their regular meeting on Saturday afternoon. Miss Elinor Morgan will describe motoring in the United States, and Mrs. Penrose D. Hamilton will speak of art at the Exposition.

The "Nettlers" of Haddon will hear travelers' tales at their regular meeting on Saturday afternoon. Miss Elinor Morgan will describe motoring in the United States, and Mrs. Penrose D. Hamilton will speak of art at the Exposition.

The "Nettlers" of Haddon will hear travelers' tales at their regular meeting on Saturday afternoon. Miss Elinor Morgan will describe motoring in the United States, and Mrs. Penrose D. Hamilton will speak of art at the Exposition.

The "Nettlers" of Haddon will hear travelers' tales at their regular meeting on Saturday afternoon. Miss Elinor Morgan will describe motoring in the United States, and Mrs. Penrose D. Hamilton will speak of art at the Exposition.

The "Nettlers" of Haddon will hear travelers' tales at their regular meeting on Saturday afternoon. Miss Elinor Morgan will describe motoring in the United States, and Mrs. Penrose D. Hamilton will speak of art at the Exposition.

The "Nettlers" of Haddon will hear travelers' tales at their regular meeting on Saturday afternoon. Miss Elinor Morgan will describe motoring in the United States, and Mrs. Penrose D. Hamilton will speak of art at the Exposition.

The "Nettlers" of Haddon will hear travelers' tales at their regular meeting on Saturday afternoon. Miss Elinor Morgan will describe motoring in the United States, and Mrs. Penrose D. Hamilton will speak of art at the Exposition.

The "Nettlers" of Haddon will hear travelers' tales at their regular meeting on Saturday afternoon. Miss Elinor Morgan will describe motoring in the United States, and Mrs. Penrose D. Hamilton will speak of art