STUDENTS OF HOSPITAL TO GIVE HALLOWEEN AFFAIR

Nurses' Home of the Samaritan Hospital to Be Elaborately Decorated for the Occasion. Other Affairs

ARRANGEMENTS have been completed by the 1917 class of the training school of the Samaritan Hospital for a Halloween party and dance which will be given in the Nurses' Home on the evening of October 30. From all indications the event this year will eclipse all former entertainments of this nature.

The home will be elaborately decorated for the occasion and nothing is being left undone to make the affair an unequalled success. The decorations will be elaborate and in keeping with the season.

Among the most prominent guests who will attend will be the following: Dr. Wayne M. Babcock, Dr. and Mrs. William Krusen, Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Applegate, Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Arnold, Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Steele and Mr. Frank J. Edwards.

Those officially prominent will include: Dr. Russell Conwell, of Temple University; Mr. and Mrs. I. W. J. McClain, superintendent of the Samaritan Hospital; Dr. Albert Beck, chief resident physician; Miss I. M. Woodburn, directress of the institution, and Miss Edna L. Moore, night directress.

Following the dance a reception will be given by the junior class to the staff doctors, seniors and freshmen nurses. Mr. Henry J. Hettrich will furnish the music.

The 1917 class having the affair in charge is composed of the following young ladies: Miss Alice Goodnow, Miss Maude Levan, Miss Sadie Riley, Miss Ida Price, Miss Marion Martin, Miss Catherine Botthoff, Miss Maria Tiffin, Miss Florida Lawrence, Miss Naomi Blausser, Miss Harriett Stevenson, Miss Susanna Wickley, Miss Marguerite Pickett, Miss Gertrude Costello, Miss Edna Kingstom, Miss Jennie Lyons and Mrs. Clara Immel.

The members of the Junior Auxiliary of the Methodist Episcopal Home for the Aged will give a very attractive musical and literary entertainment tonight in Trinity Methodist Church, 15th and Mt. Vernon streets, in aid of their work for the home. The program will include a lecture recital, "An Evening With James Whitcomb Riley," by Mrs. Mary Miller Jones Kornderfer. This will be preceded by vocal and instrumental solos and duets by Miss Anniel Wallison, Miss Clara I. Ristine, Miss Dorothy Hood, Miss Anna K. Bosser and Miss Louise Simpson.
