

WHITE EVANGELIST, A LA "BILLY" SUNDAY, ENGAGES IN NEGRO UPLIFT WORK AT VARICK TEMPLE

PICTURESQUE PARADE FOR GERMANTOWN
The Philadelphia Electric Company will have this float among the fifty in tonight's procession.

International Film Service.
CHAMPION PERSIAN CATS
"Tatoe" and "Maxixe" won prizes in the New York show. Miss Esther Maria Daly is their owner.

ALONG COBB'S CREEK IN WINTER
Yesterday's downfall of snow whitened the landscape in Cobb's Creek Park at the western end of the city.

THE FURY OF THE JUDGMENT THAT IS TO COME

WHEN THE ROLL IS CALLED UP YONDER

BEWARE OF THE DEVIL, YOU SINNERS

EVANGELIST INMAN A. MCKENNEY, OF THE NATIONAL BIBLE INSTITUTE, EMPLOYS DYNAMIC METHODS TO CONVERT HIS HEARERS

His campaign is being managed by the Citizens' Volunteer Committee, comprising 17 business and professional men, an organization for the spiritual, educational and moral betterment of the negro in Philadelphia. Its aim is to found a vocational institution.