

PHILADELPHIA MARKETS

GRAIN AND FLOUR
WHEAT—Receipts, 105,058 bush. The market ruled steady under moderate offerings and a fair demand. Quotations: Car lots, in export...

Police Court Chronicles

Joseph Jefferson Jackson and Ephraim Jones argued long and loud. Their remarks were somewhat international in character for they shifted from this country to Europe and thence to Mexico.

"DEVIL LURKS AROUND CHURCH DOORS," SAYS LENTEN SPEAKER

Wandering Thoughts at Services Bad Habit, Asserts Rev. H. C. Stone
"The devil lurks around the church doors more than any other place," said the Rev. Henry C. Stone at the noonday Lenten services in St. Paul's Church, 2d street, below Walnut.

OLD CHRIST CHURCH SERVICE

Doctor Pierce Speaks at Noonday Meeting
"There are some persons today who earnestly believe that God fashioned their lives to condemn them—that He bears a personal grudge against them," said the Rev. Dr. Charles S. Pierce in his noonday Lenten sermon today at Old Christ Church, 2d street above Market.

FATHER BENNETT'S SERMON

Lenten Service at St. John the Evangelist
"God's instinct is to save his child from harm at the risk of his life," he declared. "He pitied men before they ever knew the meaning of the word. Surely, no one can rightfully accuse Him of being against any one. We are all His children."

Machine Cuts Off Man's Arm

Enock Larleslow, 25 years old, an employe of the Miller Waste Manufacturing Company, Swanson street and Snyder avenue, lost his left arm today. It is thought that Larleslow reached in to adjust one of the machines and his arm in some way became caught in the mechanism.

Steals Cigar Coupons and 55 Cents

Somewhere in this city there is an extremely angry burglar who has in his possession a fat envelope containing several hundred cigar coupons and 55 cents in cash. He obtained the money from Nathan Canter, of 1220 South 34th street, who was awakened at an early hour today by a noise. Behind the revolver was a man who insisted that Canter arise and go to the store on the first floor of his residence and the owner of the revolver took the fat envelope from the cash drawer and departed through a cellar door, from which the lock had been broken.
