

ILLUSTRATED

Evening Ledger

THURSDAY
June 15, 1916

GRAPHIC NOTES AND COMMENT ON THE VARIED NEWS OF THE DAY AS RECORDED BY THE CAMERA

BATTLESHIP PENNSYLVANIA NOW A UNIT OF THE UNITED STATES FLEET
This is a broadside view of the superdreadnought just after she was placed in commission at Norfolk on Wednesday.

Photo by Griffith.

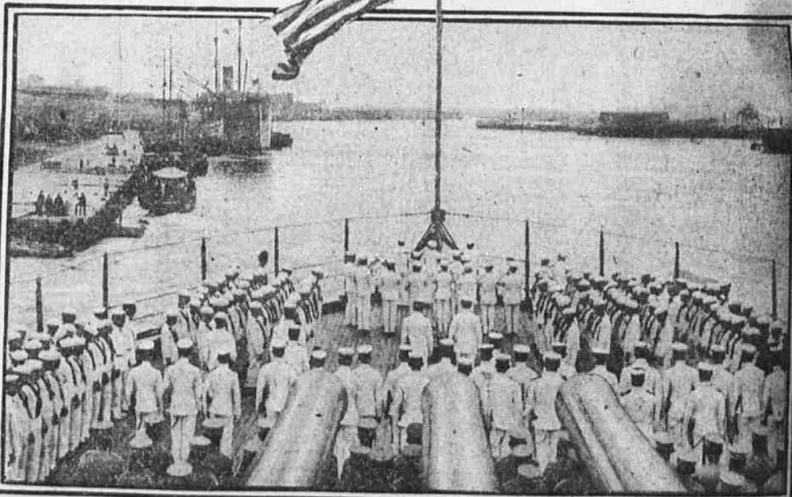

Photo by Thompson.

IN THE ROBES OF DOCTORS OF LAW
Senator Henry Cabot Lodge and General Leonard Wood after receiving the degree at Princeton University on Wednesday.

FRENCH DANCE IN THE "FETE OF NATIONS"
Held yesterday on the Elkins estate at Latham Park for the benefit of Hahnemann Hospital.

Photos by International Film Service.

RAISING THE OFFICIAL FLAG ON BOARD THE NEW PENNSYLVANIA
This ceremony, in which sailors, marines and officers took part, placed the new craft in commission. On the left is her commander, Captain Henry S. Wilson.

Photos by International Film Service.

THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION ALSO HAS ITS WOMEN DELEGATES
This one is Mrs. Harrison Foster from the State of Washington. She is conversing with Urey Woodson, a politician of note in his native State of Kentucky.

ELSIE FERGUSON BECOMES THE BRIDE OF A NEW YORK BANKER
"Decidedly not," was the reply of the pretty stage favorite when asked if she intended now to retire from the boards. "Not," she added, "I shall not remain on the stage too long." She was married in New York yesterday to Thomas B. Clarke, Jr.