

FAITHFUL TO THE LAST—HIS DOG
Though other friends may desert, it is all the same to humble Mutt. A scene recorded by the camera man in the purlieus of the city.

DOCK STREET, ALTHOUGH QUITE A DISTANCE FROM BROAD AND CHESTNUT, IS NEVERTHELESS ONE OF PHILADELPHIA'S BUSIEST SPOTS
Truck wagons and delivery carts are continually unloading or carrying away baskets of vegetables from this city's produce clearing house. It is a source of wonder to the uninitiated how the hundreds of swiftly moving vehicles wind in and out of the maze of traffic without colliding.

HE EXHUMED THE CAPITOL SCANDAL
William H. Berry is here repeating his story that T. Lawrence Eyre, of Chester County, is charged in the Sanderson confession with knowing a lot about graft in the Harrisburg building.

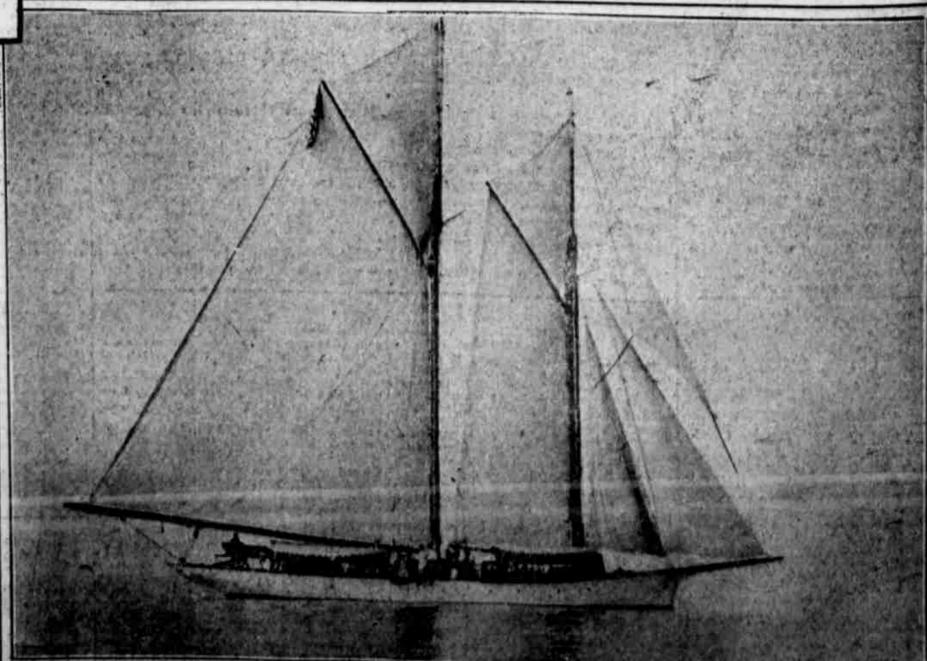

YOU CAN SEE HIM AROUND CITY HALL
Thomas W. Cunningham, Clerk of the Court of Quarter Sessions, is one of the busiest men in the vicinity of Penn Square.

THERE'S ALWAYS MORE THAN ONE SOLUTION TO EVERY PROBLEM
Here are two ways to solve the high cost of living problem. At the left is a "vegetable picker" who gathers in her basket slightly spoiled and bruised vegetables which she picks up around the wholesale stalls. On the right is a wise woman who finds it pays to buy by the basket.

THEY MAY CALL IT THE P. R. T., BUT THIS IS CERTAINLY UNRAPID TRANSIT
This is the time of year when "we had to wait for a coal wagon to get out of the track" is being offered as an excuse for tardiness in every school and office building in the city. It's an old, sad story, but true.

LOWLY END FOR FAMOUS CUP DEFENDER
The yacht Priscilla, fastest of the New York Yacht Club fleet in 1888, has been bought by H. A. Hitner's Sons Company, which will convert the hull into a fishing schooner and probably sell the keel to bullet makers.
