

MAYOR ELLIS, OF CAMDEN, ATTENDS MASQUE BALL
 The eighth annual affair of the Hebrew Ladies' Relief Society of Camden was the most important social event of the year in Jewish circles. With Mayor Ellis are officers of the society, as follows: Standing, left to right, Mrs. L. Weiman, Mrs. M. Myers, Mrs. J. Sivisky and Mrs. S. Frankel; sitting, Mrs. B. Pillecoff.

MISS FANNIE PLOTNICK MADE A HIT IN HER CLOWN COSTUME AT THE CAMDEN MASQUE

THESE PAJAMA TWINS ARE COUSINS. LEFT TO RIGHT, THE MISSES MINERVA BRESY AND BITTY BRENNER. THEIR COSTUMES MARKED THE HEBREW RELIEF SOCIETY'S BALL

ONE OF THE ATTRACTIVE GROUPS AT THE BALL INCLUDED, LEFT TO RIGHT, THE MISSES CLARA MYERS, ROSE I. GARSON AND ROSE MACILMAN, WITH DAVID GOLDSMITH IN THE FOREGROUND

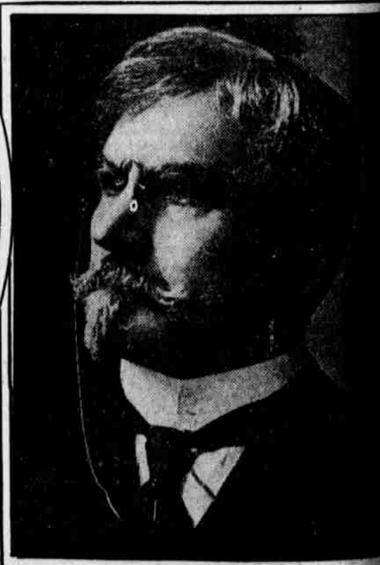

"STRIKING" WAS THE POPULAR VERDICT PASSED UPON MISS LILLIAN SMITH WHO MASQUERADED AS CARMEN

Copyright, Cinedinst Studio.

THE RELEASE OF JACK LAPP BY THE CHICAGO WHITE SOX TO COLUMBUS SENDS ANOTHER OF THE OLD FAVORITES OF THE ATHLETICS BACK INTO THE BUSHES

SENATOR MARTINE, OF NEW JERSEY, WHO SAYS FAREWELL TO THE MEMBERS OF THE SENATE AFTER SIX YEARS OF SERVICE

MISS E. C. HENSEL, OF PHILADELPHIA, ENTERS SEMIFINAL FOR FLORIDA TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP

MICHAEL P. MORRIS

FELIX W. BOLOWICZ

GEORGE C. HERING, JR.

HOMER M. RESPASS

DICKINSON COLLEGE DEBATERS WHO WILL MEET THEIR STATE COLLEGE RIVALS TONIGHT