Her Turn

Smith got married. The evening of his first pay day he gave his bride £3 of the £3 10s salary and kept only ten shillings for himself. But the second pay day Smith gave his wife ten shillings and kept £3 himself. "Why, John," she cried, in injured tones, "how on earth do you thing I can manage for a whole week on a paltry ten shillings?" "Darned if I know," he answered. "I had a rotten time myself last week. It's your turn now."

THE PADDED CELL

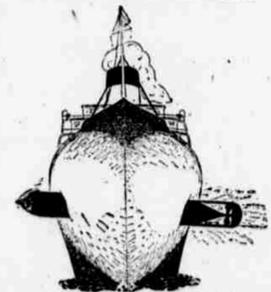

SCHOOL DAYS

Delayed Delivery
Billy had had a serious misunderstanding with his older cousin Conrad. That misunderstanding had been very scrupulously concealed from his mother, so when he came into the house after school she said: "Billy, what would you like to give Conrad for his birthday?" "I know what I'd like to give him," said Billy vindictively, "but I ain't big enough."
