

JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Second Day of Horse Show Proves of Great Interest—Various Matters of Social Moment Are Discussed by Nancy Wynne

IT COULD not have been expected that the second day of the Horse Show would be attended as well as the first...

Peggy Thayer had a luncheon and came with four or five of her guests, who are also debutantes of the coming season to the show.

But to return to the debs. Peggy had on a lovely dark-blue frock and close little yellow straw hat, and Gladys Fox, who was one of her guests and who is also extremely pretty, was in pearl-gray with a dinky little sports hat.

JOHN was riding, and his get-up was quite "ketchy"; accent on the fish, please. A white scarf was swathed about his neck. There was much discussion between John and Marie Louise, because Marie Louise and Ethel, whose last name I did not know, but who wore a hat much like Mrs. Bobby Cattatt, wanted to take the car and leave John Ford.

ONE of the most interesting clubs I have heard of recently is the "Bird Club," out on the Main Line.

Sara Penrose and Hannah Wright, who seem never to travel alone, arrived about 4 o'clock at the show.

It's funny how rumors start and stories rise out of virtually nothing these days. Only a little while ago we all heard that Constance Vaulain had sold her horses and would not exhibit owing to the clash at the last Devon show.

Lisa Norris, in a huge hat, and Alva Bergant came together and joined the spectators about the oval. Of course Lisa had other things besides the hat.

It's funny how rumors start and stories rise out of virtually nothing these days. Only a little while ago we all heard that Constance Vaulain had sold her horses and would not exhibit owing to the clash at the last Devon show.

Margaretta Jeanes, by the way, is awfully attractive. She was at the show wearing a stunning suit of lavender tulle and a sports hat of the same shade, and the effect was perfectly lovely.

EVERY day we are treated to surprises, but it is owing to the war generally, these days, that many do not wait to announce their engagements before joining in the holy bonds of matrimony.

A wedding which surprised many of her friends took place yesterday when Lucile Luson was married to Russell Butler. The young people decided, with conscription coming so soon, I suppose, it would be better not to wait; so, having gained her parents' consent, they were married yesterday by the Rev. John Wheeler, who was formerly stationed at St. John's Church, at Thirtieth and Chestnut streets.

Lucile came out last year, you remember, and had a very good time. She is very French in appearance—dark hair and eyes and the same lovely coloring her mother has.

THE eighth annual meeting of the Lovers of Children was held yesterday at Lovens mansion at 3:30 o'clock. Tea followed the meeting, at which Mrs. J. Willis Martin spoke on "Cases of Infantile Paralysis and the Care of Them by the Special Committee of the Emergency Aid."

The newly elected officers of the society of the Lovers of Children are: Hon. president, Kate Douglas Wiggin; president, Miss Sarah Bache Hodge; first vice president, Mrs. David English Darrin; second vice president, Mrs. James Starr, Jr.; recording secretary, Mrs. Churchill Wilcox; corresponding secretary, Mrs. F. Richardson; directors, Mrs. J. J. Lippincott Cassard, Mrs. Theron

MRS. HARRISON K. CANER, JR.

Mrs. Caner, whose marriage took place last fall, was Miss Uytendale Baird. She is an interested attendant at the Horse Show.

I. Crane, Mrs. Baltzar E. L. de Mare, Mrs. Thomas B. Homer, Mrs. Norman M. Jones, Mrs. George B. Kaurle, Mrs. John Lloyd, Mrs. Joseph D. McIlhenny, Mrs. Charles Price Manie, Mrs. C. Willmer Middleton, Jr., Mrs. Harold M. Hill, Mrs. Daniel Whitner, Mrs. Franklin McCrea Wingard and Mrs. James W. Wister.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon L. Bloch, who have been spending some time in the South visiting Louisville, Ky.; Nashville, Tenn., and French Lick Springs, have returned to their home, 7121 North Broad street.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Blich have returned from Atlantic City, where they spent their honeymoon, and will be at home at 475 Gerhard street. Mrs. Blich was Miss Mabel B. Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Ross, of 377 Leimont street.

The members of the Manyuk Harmonie Society and their families held a patriotic service and flag raising on Wednesday night. This is one of the oldest singing societies in Philadelphia.

THE LAYMAN'S IDEA OF HOW HORSEPOWER IS DETERMINED.

CONTRABAND

A Romance of the North Atlantic

By RANDALL PARRISH

There was nothing more to be done; the boat rode steady, and one man could easily keep her clear of water.

The others disposed themselves as best they might, occasionally exchanging a word or two, but mostly staring about at the expanse of sea, which lay like a blue and white filler, while I held to Robert's hand, and we spoke in low voices for each other alone.

"It is wonderful," I whispered, "how you stand all this hardship; your eyes are tired, but it has not otherwise marked your face."

"I am glad. It is because you are with me. I cannot tell you how I suffered while you remained on board that ship. I cried out for you; I could not help it."

"And it was your voice which saved me. I answered soberly. 'The sound of it brought me to myself. I never had so much experience. The horror of that night suddenly revealed in smoke and flame, my inability to aid McCann seemed to completely paralyze every faculty. I had the feeling of a dead man; I could not move through these waters clapped in your feet, that way in the snare of a snake. It was your cry—your word 'Robert'—which restored me to life, and sent me hurtling over the rail. You saved me, truly I do not know how. I thought you had reached out and grasped me."

"Oh, I am so glad; all the love of my heart was that, and the train to prevent the relief work in the near future on the battlefields of France. The Temple unit comprises thirty-six men, all members of the University Alumni, active students and a few friends."

The men already have had training in hospital and relief work. The final polishing will be received at the training camp at Allentown, Pa. They will have charge of twelve ambulances.

Eager and enthusiastic, the men have been awaiting daily the order to "march." They will be accompanied by Dr. J. M. W. J. Chock, Paul Reed, Robert Schenck, S. B. Rhaum, John Roberts, John Ryan, Charles Wood, Robert J. Journe, W. B. Gesselman, John Harshay, B. T. Pollock, C. Henry R. K. Kernaghan, A. H. Lockhart, G. H. Wheeler, W. H. Briggs, J. H. King, W. A. WOMEN WOULD GO TO FRONT

Physicians Want Government to Drop Bar Against Sex

Women physicians of Philadelphia are working to have the Government abrogate its rule barring women from military service. They are to be sent to France a hospital unit recruited from women physicians and nurses of the Philadelphia Woman's Hospital.

Leaders in the movement are Dr. Gertrude A. Walker, who will interview Surgeon General Gorgas in Washington; Dr. Clara Marshall, dean of the Woman's Medical College; Dr. Laura Hunt, of the college faculty; and Dr. Alice Seabrook, superintendent of the Woman's Hospital.

Dr. Seabrook said the formation of a women's unit would be discussed at an Alumnae Association convention next Thursday.

VERNON CASTLE HAS FALL

TORONTO, Ont., June 1.—W. E. Frazer, of Winnipeg, Canadian aviation cadet, was killed and Lieutenant Vernon Castle, dancer and aviation instructor, critically wounded, when their plane crashed at the Royal Flying Corps training grounds, Mohawk Camp, it has become known.

Castle and his pupil were just ascending when something went wrong with the engine, and there was an explosion. The machine smashed into a building and Castle was thrown out on to the road. The cadet was burned to death. Castle is not badly hurt.
