

WHO'S WHO IN THE DAY'S INTERESTING HAPPENINGS

RUTH LAW UNDAUNTED
With the thrills of her narrow escape from death last week still fresh in her mind, America's most intrepid woman aviator is planning new exploits in the air. While making a flight from St. Louis to Chicago her machine took fire, and only by diving headlong toward the earth, 2000 feet below, and righting her machine in the nick of time did the famous aviatrix escape death.

WILL WED LAWYER HERE
Miss Dorothy Luden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Luden, of Reading, whose engagement to Ralph Epenharter, of Philadelphia, has just been announced.

CALLED TO ARMY DUTY
Captain Lewis S. Morey, hero of the skirmish at Corralz between American and Mexican soldiers, has been ordered to rejoin his regiment, the South Cavalry. Since the Corralz affair he has been detailed as instructor at the Pennsylvania Military College at Chester. Captain Morey's class is planning to give him a great "send-off" when he leaves next Thursday.

Patriotism

The other night I went to the theatre With a low-brow friend, And the orchestra played "Little Brown Jug." And he thought it was the national anthem. And he stood up. And I did, too. Darn him.

Why He Flunked

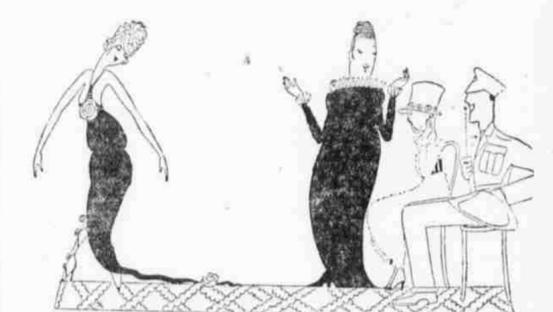

"Why don't you use common sense when writing your 'blue-book'?" queried the rector's prof.
"I don't wish to take an unfair advantage of you, sir," replied the student.—Gargoyles.

SCHOOL DAYS

How True!

The pupils in a class in hygiene were told to set down on paper the reason why, in their opinion, cremation was superior to burial.
"Cremation is good," wrote one boy, "because the person might be in a swoon, and if he is burned he cannot recover."
