The Young Lady Across the Way

The young lady across the way says she can't see any sense in all this red tape and why wouldn't it be just as easy to come right out and call them 46-year Liberty Bonds as to speak of them as 15-20-year ones?

The Advantage

First Motorist — How many miles can you go on a gallon? Second Motorist — How many can you? First Motorist—I asked you first. —Life.

A Tip and a Bat

The woman with a baseball bat advanced ominously. "Are you the teacher that tore Henry's shirt?" "Yes." "What did you do it for?" "Because Henry was naughty and wouldn't behave. To make him listen to me I took him by the collar, and he broke way." "The woman swung the ball bat toward the teacher." "Next time he don't behave," she said "you hit him with this." —Newark News.

The Worst of It

"His wife ran away with their chauffeur." "Oh, how sad!" "Yes; he misses the car awfully, poor chap!"

ONE OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA'S MANY "LITTLE MOTHERS"

SHE'S DOING HER "BIT" FOR THE BOYS IN FRANCE. Mrs. F. Egan, of 400 West Lehigh avenue, is eight-three years old and a great grandmother. She can't fight, but she's knitting socks for the Red Cross to be sent to France.
