

VARE'S GET NAMES ON NEW TICKET

Pre-empt Town Meeting Party Name for Councilmen in Several Wards

COURT FIGHT IN PROSPECT Preparations Made to Try to Have Independent Candidates Thrown Off the Ballot

The Vare-Smith forces today made preparations to take into consideration their efforts to throw off the names of the Town Meeting party candidates.

Vare ward and division leaders invaded the County Commissioners' office and there, under the direction of Lee Edinaker, secretary, Representative William S. Vare, verified the names and addresses of signers of the Town Meeting party nomination petitions.

Three independent workers already arrested in what the leaders of the new party declared was a demonstration by the Vare-Smith police to intimidate workers for the Town Meeting party.

James G. Connor, a Mercantile Appraiser, clerk of the Twenty-second Ward, a former Magistrate Frank L. Rau, a lawyer of the Twenty-ninth Ward, Charles Wharton, of the Twenty-sixth Ward.

Connor appeared voluntarily today at the Central Station and with the two others, arrested yesterday, was held in $1000 bail for a further hearing next Monday.

VARE MEN FILE NEW PARTY PAPERS In the Twenty-sixth Ward, it became known today, the Vare forces have filed party tickets for the Town Meeting party.

The same thing occurred in the Thirtieth Ward, where City Treasurer William McCooch is the Vare leader.

The law committee of the Town Meeting party in the Fourth Ward met today to discuss their procedure.

Illustration of how beneficiaries of the public payroll are "going the limit" to procure support for the Vare-Smith ticket was given yesterday in a letter sent out to every voter in Director William H. Wilson's division in the Forty-eighth Ward.

The letter is signed by H. G. Tyson, holder of a $2500 job as claim adjuster in the Warrenton Commission Board, of which Harry A. Mackey is chairman.

HERB'S WILSON'S LETTER A copy of the letter, received by William Adam, 236 South Garnet street, follows:

Dear Friend and Neighbor—We are approaching an election in which conditions have made an opportunity to make political capital and include in their criticism the other divisions, which are being taken into account.

The charges were unsubstantiated. In fact, there was no effort and really no intent to offer any testimony other than that which Attorney Gray succeeded in injecting into the case.

REFORMED SYNOD PATRIOTIC Adjourns After Passing Resolutions Warmly Supporting Government demanded to know whether or not he had appeared before a notary when he attached his signature to Town Meeting party papers.

Later in the day a detective invaded the headquarters of the Town Meeting party, at 127 Chestnut street, for the purpose of interrogating Warren P. Boone, publicity manager.

In reply to the charges that the police have been thrown back into politics in a desperate effort to aid the Vare machine, Director Wilson, of the Department of Public Safety, issued a statement in which he virtually charged that fraud had been perpetrated in the filing of nomination papers for the Town Meeting party candidates.

When a mere cursory examination shows that nominating petitions required by law to be signed by individual qualified voters, contain vast numbers of signatures in the same handwriting, and thousands of affidavits to these petitions, which the law requires shall be made by the affiants appearing in person, and visible to the public are taken in a short space of time before the same notary, it becomes apparent that names have been forged and affidavits taken in violation of existing law.

Such an investigation is not an injection of politics into politics, but the performance of an official duty which the law casts upon the bureau of police. Such an investigation is now being made and will continue until the last vestige of information is obtained.

Members of the Forty-sixth Ward Town Meeting party will begin a series of street meetings in the interest of good government tomorrow night. Five meetings will be held simultaneously in different sections of the ward at Fifty-second and Chestnut streets, Sixtieth and Chestnut streets, Fifty-sixth and Spruce streets, Sixtieth and Catharine streets, and Fifty-second street and Baltimore avenue.

Mr. Wilson has lived his whole life in this sphere, to care for the people, and his education, he started as a boy working in the streets of his native city, and in the public schools of this section and finished in the law school of this city, and in the University of Pennsylvania, which he is a graduate.

WHO WROTE "CHRISTINE"? The publishers have been attacked because they do not know whether Mrs. Cholmondeley's remarkable book is fact or fiction.

Is CHRISTINE Fact or Fiction? Many readers have openly expressed their opinions of Christine—few have denied it to be one of the most truthful books evoked by the great war.

Is CHRISTINE Worth While? Read what English critics say of Christine:

"A truly remarkable book. There is a sweet, wholesome human picture in the relationship of Christine towards her mother, a sunny wisdom and helpfulness."—The Royal Cornwall Gazette.

"Shows remarkably keen observation, sparkles with humour and is often deeply moving—moving to tears."—Aberdeen Free Press.

"The letters of a loving daughter to a devoted mother—bright, tender, hopeful and witty. A remarkable, pathetic human document."—East London Sentinel.

CHRISTINE has sold more than 40,000 copies in less than three months—a convincing proof of its value, worth and reality to the reading public.
