

OCCUPATION TAX IN NEW REVENUE BILL

Those in War Industries, Farmers, Teachers and Ministers Exempt

By the Associated Press Washington, Aug. 12. Special taxes of $10 a year on occupations of professions, except the war industry trades, farmers, teachers and ministers of the gospel, were written into the $1,000,000,000 war revenue bill today by the House Ways and Means Committee.

Secretary McAdoo will appear before the committee tomorrow to discuss the Treasury's new plan for an excess profit tax based on rates in the present law, with an alternative war profits tax. This is the main issue between the committee and the Treasury.

Newspapers, press associations and periodicals were exempted from the proposed 10 per cent tax on the amount paid for leased telegraph and telephone wires in the pending $1,000,000,000 revenue bill, after a vigorous fight by Representatives Rainey, of Illinois, and Longworth, of Ohio. It was amended so as to apply only to the stock brokers' lines.

In addition to the ordinary duty of 10 per cent on all jewelry sold at wholesale, the committee has proposed a 10 per cent retail sales tax on jewelry composed wholly or partly of platinum. This is designed to discourage such use of platinum during the war.

NEW PUSH THREATENS TO OUTFLANK ENEMY

Germans Likely to Be Forced to Retire From Roye District

By the Associated Press Allied forces this morning began a general attack against the German line running from Chaumes south to the Oise River, a front of about twenty-five miles. Dispatches filed at London shortly after noon reported important gains at various points, especially on the vital sector south of Lassigny near the Oise.

The Lassigny Massif, the steep slopes of which have been strongly defended by the Germans, is reported to be almost within the grasp of the French, and unofficially dispatches say there is every prospect that this natural fortress will soon be recaptured by the enemy.

Further south the French have advanced to the village of L'Econville, just south of the eastern extremity of Thiéscourt Wood and virtually on the crest of the hills overlooking long reaches of the Oise. West of L'Econville they have made new progress north of St. Claude farm.

As an immediate result of the gains made in that sector, the Germans are abandoning their trenches in the bed of the Oise just west of the village of Bally, east of Ribecourt. It is said that the French have occupied these positions.

North of Lassigny in the region of Roye and along the railroad running northward to Chaumes, there are so far no reports of progress.

If the Allies succeed in carrying the heights south of Lassigny they will force the enemy to retire from the Roye district, as they will have the Roye-Noyon road under their fire and will dominate the whole region with their artillery.

The advance reported during the last few hours, if continued, probably would have an effect on the German positions in the Ourcamp and Carlepont forests, east of the Oise. If the Germans are outflanked by the Allied movement, a retirement from that district would be probable, and this would necessitate a relocation of the line running from the Oise and the Aisne at Soissons.

Hurt in Auto Smashup While returning from a fishing trip at Fortescue last night, a touring car driven by Michael Gabrielle, of 2337 North Fifth street, Philadelphia, struck the soft sand on the State road two miles north of this city and skidded into a telephone pole and was demolished.

Gloucester Man's Body Found The body of Joseph Moen, twenty-six years old, of Gloucester, who was drowned in the Delaware River at National Park last Thursday, when a canoe capsized, was recovered today. Funeral services will be held tomorrow.

What Jim Calls "Camouflage Sauce" Maybe it's creamed chicken, or croquettes, or asparagus, or perhaps it's creamed mushrooms—but Jim says it's smiting up at him under my camouflage sauce it's GOOD. Of course, it's just a white sauce, you know—but the secret is that to it I add about half a tablespoonful of AI Sauce—my miracle worker.

SKIP-STOPS DOWNTOWN

New Schedule Will Be Effective Next Sunday The "skip-stop" system, devised by the fuel administration to conserve coal for war industries and next winter's domestic supply, will be extended to South Philadelphia next Sunday by the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company.

The region affected will be between the Delaware and Schuylkill Rivers from South street to the navy yard. The stops to be eliminated will be announced in a few days.

PLAN FOR SOLDIER VOTE

Men Get Blanks to Authorize Tax Payments at Home More than 40,000 blank forms for soldiers to authorize persons at their homes to pay taxes so that they may vote at camps are being sent to the camps by the Secretary of the Commonwealth Woods. They go to forty-four camps where Pennsylvania soldiers are being trained. The forms will be in the hands of the United States in November so that the commissions can be sent. No decision in regard to the men overseas has been reached.

COMMENDED FOR BRAVERY Raymond E. Schoup, 3020 Wharton street, who, with eight other sailors, has been commended by Secretary Daniels for bravery in taking a vessel through a dense fog and rescuing a shipwrecked crew.

ANOTHER PHILADELPHIA HERO

Sailor Commended by Navy Secretary for Aid in Rescue Another Philadelphia hero has become a war hero. He is Raymond E. Schoup, twenty-seven years old, 3020 Wharton street, and he has been commended for bravery by Secretary of the Navy Daniels.

Schoup was one of the nine United States sailors who took a vessel through a dense fog to the rescue of twenty-six men aboard a British ship.

Schoup has a young wife and baby in this city, and the wife, when told of her husband's act, smiled delightedly, saying it was only what she would have expected of Raymond.

She met her husband first about two and one-half years ago, while he was in duty at the Naval Hospital in this city. He is now a pharmacist's mate.

VOTE QUICK REPORT OF MANPOWER BILL

Amended Measure Provides U. S. Educate Youthful Soldiers After War

By the Associated Press Washington, Aug. 12. The Senate Military Committee today voted to report favorably on Thursday the Administration manpower bill extending draft ages from eighteen to forty-five years.

An amendment offered by Senator Reed, of Missouri, was injected to have the Government provide two years' education free for all boys under twenty-one years old, to be given after the war. The Reed amendment affects both army and navy volunteers and those who have been drafted. Under its provisions, upon application, the youths would be given "an education at the expense of the Government at approved educational institutions, the period of such education being equivalent in point of time to the period by him served in the army or navy, but shall not exceed two years."

"Application for such educational privilege," the amendment provides, "shall be made within six months after discharge, and the applicant shall begin his studies promptly after his application shall have been approved."

Still another amendment offered by the Missouri Senator would permit soldiers and sailors, regardless of age, who have either volunteered or been drafted, to receive commissions. They also would be made eligible for admission to officers' schools.

The measure was also amended so as to provide that the wife of a soldier or sailor shall not be disqualified for any position under the Government because she is a married woman.

J. H. BROWN, BANKER, DEAD

Prominent in Politics as Member of Councils Twenty-five Years Joseph H. Brown, vice president of the Holmesburg Trust Company since its organization and for twenty-five years, a representative of the extreme northeastern part of the city in City Councils, died on Sunday at his home, 3012 Frankford avenue, Holmesburg.

For nearly half a century Mr. Brown, who was a staunch Republican, was a member of the Union League. He was treasurer of Mystic Lodge of Odd Fellows, Holmesburg, forty-five years, and for a long time was the representative of Jerusalem Lodge of Masons in the Masonic Grand Lodge.

DIES ON BATTLEFIELD Private Stanley H. Berry, of 187 West Weaver street, Germantown, reported killed in action.

VICE CRUSADERS SEIZE 10 IN FRANKLIN SQUARE

Alleged Bootleggers and Enlisted Men Sifted From Raided Crowd Department of Justice agents, volunteering from the American Protective League and a detachment of Colonel Hatch's marines drew a cordon around historic Franklin Square early today and gathered in all within its shady precincts.

It was a peaceful scene when the soldiers and sailors were stretched out on the moist turf or holding down the benches. Bootleggers flitted to and fro, supplying both liquid and solid refreshments. A few fair ones traced the scene. Groups here and there were handing out close rammies to the delight of the usual collection of bums who infest that square.

Then came the raid. All were lined up, closely questioned, made to show their credentials and released only after being solemnly warned not to hang around the square in future.

Eventually the "field" was narrowed to ten four alleged bootleggers, charged with selling liquor to sailors and soldiers, and six enlisted men, charged with having purchased it. No slacks were landed in the raid.

The prisoners had hearings before United States Commissioner Long, in the Postoffice Building.

L'AUSTRIA CHIUDE LE SUE FRONTIERE

Le Nemico Preparerebbe un'Altra Offensiva Contro l'Italia

AZIONI DI ARTIGLIERIA

Published and Distributed Under Authority of the Postoffice of Philadelphia, Pa., by order of the President, S. BIRLESOM, Postmaster General.

Berna, 13 agosto. L'Austria ha chiuso le sue frontiere fin da sabato. La chiusura delle frontiere austriache e' indizio di un'altra offensiva contro l'Italia. Per il passato l'Austria e' sempre ricorsa a tale provvedimento prima di iniziare una grande campagna militare e cio' per impedire la diffusione di notizie riguardanti i movimenti di truppe. Cio' spiegherebbe anche l'aumentata attivita' che per parecchie volte si e' notata al fronte di battaglia italiano ai grandi movimenti di truppe che sono stati segnalati.

Roma, 13 agosto. Un comunicato del Ministero della Guerra, pubblicato nel pomeriggio di ieri, annunzia quanto appresso: "Nella regione del Tonale, nella Valle Lagarina e nell'area orientale del distretto di Asiago le nostre batterie efficacemente hanno molestato il nemico. A nord di Col del Rosso le nostre pattuglie forarono un posto avanzato nemico a Rittirad. "Cinque aeroplani avversari sono stati abbattuti durante i combattimenti aerei. "In Albania il nemico e' stato obbligato ad evacuare dalla testa di ponte di Jacodina ed a passare sulla riva destra del fiume. "Il Ministero della Guerra austriaco ha pubblicato, ieri, un comunicato nel quale e' falsamente detto che gli aviatori italiani, volando a basse altitudini sopra Feltra e nella regione del Sette Comuni, hanno attaccato alcuni ospedali uciati tanto eroicamente combattono sul campo di battaglia.

mondo la bandiera americana e' stata issata sulla piu' alta vetta del Monte Gensargentu, a duemila piedi sul livello del mare, nell'Isola di Sardegna. La bandiera americana e quella italiana ora sventolano intorno alla grande statua del Redentore, eretta sulla montagna durante l'inaugurazione della Colonia Estiva per i bambini deboli, fondata dalla Croce Rossa Americana. In nessun'altra regione d'Italia come in Sardegna la Croce Rossa reale e' popolare il nome dell'America tra quelle forti popolazioni, i figli delle quali tanto eroicamente combattono sul campo di battaglia.

A tribute from President Wilson to the Women of America

"I THINK the whole country has appreciated the way in which women have risen to this great occasion. They have not only done what they have been asked to do, and done it with ardor and efficiency, but they have shown a power to organize for doing things on their own initiative, which is quite a different thing and a very much more difficult thing. I think the whole country has admired the spirit and the capacity and devotion of the women of the United States. It goes without saying that the country depends upon women for a large part of the inspiration of its life. That is obvious. But it is now depending upon the women also for suggestions of service, which have been rendered in abundance and with the distinction of originality."
