U. S. "BONE DRY" AFTER JULY, 1919

President Signs Food-Stimulation Bill Containing Prohibition Clause

NEAR VETO BY DEFAULT

Approval Came Just a Few Minutes Before Congress Adjourned Sine Die

Washington, Nov. 22.—The food-stimulation bill with the Jones nationwide "bone-dry" rider, which makes the entire nation arid from June 30 next until demobilization has been accomplished, was signed by the President just in time to prevent a veto by default.

It was but a few minutes before Congress adjourned, when the President attached his signature to the bill making it law. Had he wanted a matter of five minutes the measure would have failed, as it could not be signed after the adjournment sine die.

In many quarters the President's action occasioned surprise. Supporters of the measure were fearful and its opponents hopeful of a presidential veto, as the bill in all its features is a wartime emergency measure and by many was regarded as no longer necessary.

The distillation of whisky has been stopped for more than a year, and the brewing of beer is to stop in a comparatively few days under executive action for the period of the war. The Jones rider goes beyond this, however. It will be effective even after the proclamation of peace if the army is not demobilized.

PARADE FOR BALTIMORE

Service Men to March at Southern Commercial Congress Meeting

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 22.—(By A. P.) A large army and military pageant has been arranged to be held here on Thursday, December 12, in connection with the Southern Commercial Congress. The Eleventh Division National Army, at Camp Meade, will furnish the military feature.

Secretary Daniels has promised Mayor Preston the full co-operation of the Navy Department in making the event a big success. He will send about 10,000 jacks to participate in the parade. The Secretary also accepted the invitation of Mayor Preston to come to Baltimore on that day.

Vice President Marshall has accepted the invitation to make the opening address at the convention on Monday, December 9. He will speak on the organization of a league to enforce peace.

U. S. LUMBERMEN MEET

Rebuilding Problems in War Area Will Be Considered

Chicago, Nov. 22.—(By A. P.)—Problems connected with supplying materials with which to rebuild the devastated parts of France and Belgium are to be taken up at a convention of lumbermen from all parts of the United States which opened here today.

The convention was called by the National Lumber Manufacturers' Association, because of the signing of the armistice and the stopping of work on cantonments and other War Department construction which took the entire output of the mill. Lumber which would have gone into war work in this country now may be used for reconstruction purposes in Europe.

TO TRAIN WOMEN AT STATE

Pre-Nursing Course Will Be Opened on January 1

State College, Pa., Nov. 22.—A pre-nursing course for women will be opened at the Pennsylvania State College on January 1. Intensive study will be conducted for twelve weeks in the scientific subjects that are a part of the regular hospital training.

Despite the cessation of hostilities there is a growing need for trained nurses in the army hospitals, according to M. M. Ireland, surgeon general of the army.

The course will include the study of hygiene, physiology, anatomy, chemistry, bacteriology, invalid cookery, elementary nursing, and lectures by the college physician.

He Gave Her $40 Every Friday and Talked System!

Do you HATE THE WORD "SYSTEM"? Many women do, because a husband often does not appreciate the fact that the system which made his business a success might be entirely unsuited to a home.

One woman, who had tried and tried to instal the "system" her husband always was talking about; who had struggled hard to make the square peg of his office routine fit the round hole of her household work, wrote at last in desperation to the Editor of the Woman's Home Companion.

THE Editor sent her suggestions for a system that fitted the facts; suggestions based on the real, practical, home experience of thousands of other women, who had struggled with, and solved successfully, the problems that confronted her.

She tried this system for a month, and then she wrote:

"Your letter was a big help. My household doesn't run like clockwork yet, but it does run a lot smoother. And I've saved a little every week.

"When I showed John my account book yesterday, he said, 'Fine! You're the best little wife a man ever had. Jove! we owe the Companion a vote of thanks!'

"And we do, Companion; we're very thankful.

"I knew you would not fail me!"

There are systems applicable to household work; systems that will enable you to plan and cook and serve the meals; to make over clothing for the children and yourself; to do the daily household work better, and keep the home neat and tidy—at a smaller expenditure of time, of energy and of your weekly money allowance. And the Companion gives them to you.

MORE-THAN-A-MILLION American women are finding the WOMAN'S HOME COMPANION much more than a monthly magazine. To all, it is a helper; to many, it has become a dearest friend. They feel that they can turn to it for counsel in any need. THEY KNOW IT WILL NOT FAIL THEM.
