

WIDENER DEPICTS ART CENTER HERE

Institution Similar to Metropolitan Museum Is Planned

TO HOUSE RARE WORKS

Corporation Free From Political Control to Care for Treasures

Plans are being considered to create an art corporation in Philadelphia for the purpose of ultimately making the city one of the leading art centers of the world.

It is the purpose of the art corporation to take care of the city's rare artistic works and conduct along the same policy as that of the Metropolitan Museum in New York.

Plans for the proposed institution were announced by Joseph E. Widener, president of the Art Jury. The necessity of such a place was brought to his attention following the recent controversy over the portraits in Independence Hall.

My entire work in the interest of the city's art," said Mr. Widener, "has been without hope of compensation. It has ever been tending toward the establishment of a body of men of political control to care for our treasures."

Mr. Widener said that plans had been completed for an art temple on the Parkway for the John G. Johnson collection.

"As regards the Johnson collection," he said, "my plan is to house it in what will be the best kind of a permanent memorial to John G. Johnson. I have had plans drawn for a beautiful little temple of art to be erected on the Parkway to house this collection exclusively."

"Originally, plans were drawn for a free-standing building on the Johnson home in South Broad street. That work would cost $200,000. Even when complete, and with a wing added to the present building, there would be room enough to present the collection properly."

"My idea is to ask the courts whether we cannot take advantage of the paragraph of Mr. Johnson's will in which he says that the paintings may be removed elsewhere if it becomes injudicious to keep them there."

U. S. ANNALS BULLET CONTRACT

Cancellations Affect Large Order for Missiles Held Here

Cancellation of a large contract for incendiary bullets, awarded the Hero Manufacturing Company, Stockley street, West Chester, Pa., has been ordered today by the War Department.

Construction work on thirteen other projects was abandoned under the same order.

No work had actually been done by the Hero company on the bullet contract, as it was necessary first for the government to erect an additional plant to house it. This plant has just been completed, but no deliveries were scheduled until later this month.

The contract for which work has been stopped are: Locomobile Company plant, Bridgeport, Conn.; enlargement of Camp Lee, Va.; hospital construction, Camp Jackson, S. C.; hospital alterations, State school for deaf, Columbus, Ohio; Elizabeth N. J. proving ground, enlargement, Camp Custer, Mich.; Marlin-Rockwell plant for bomb loading, Delaware City, Del.; enlargement of Camp Sherman; enlargement of officers' dining camp, Camp Clear, Okla.; Springs proving grounds; alterations at Seaview Hospital, Staten Island, N. Y.; permanent building, Camp Beersheba, Pa.

The training schools at Camps Gordon and Hancock are 60 per cent complete and the stationing and abandonment of construction would mean material loss to the Government.

WRITES OF FLEET SURRENDER

Charles Wardell Brown Tells Mother Scene Was Impressive

An American sailor's feelings on seeing the German fleet strike its flag without making a fight are described in a letter from Charles Wardell Brown, son of Mrs. Samuel Houston, of Chestnut Hill, in a letter written the day after the surrender.

He was aboard one of the American warships that attended the surrender and the most impressive thing about the whole affair, he writes, was the thought of the German sailors, trained to fight and risk their lives, sailing out to give their floating fortresses without firing a shot to the very men they had been trained to hate and fight.

The worst of the war is yet to come, he writes as the English are planning a series of parades and celebrations, in which the American Jackies will play a prominent part.

"It is a great get used to submarines and such dangers than to parade," he concludes.

M. F. Doyle Resigns Ordnance Post. Michael Francis Doyle, who has been acting as special agent to the chief of ordnance, has tendered his resignation, to take effect at once.

Mr. Doyle has been handling labor problems in connection with the manufacture and production of army supplies. This work will be continued by the Department of Labor at Washington. Mr. Doyle declined the offer of a commission.

MISS LILLIE P. MURDOCH Who for ten years was a clerk in the Department of Health and Charities, has resigned to become a missionary among the Indians of the Andes, in Bolivia. Miss Murdoch's home is at 422 East Allegheny avenue. She prepared for foreign service under the instruction of the Philadelphia School of the Bible.

KEYSTONE UNITS TO STAY ABROAD TO LAST MINUTE

Many Philadelphians Will Not Come Home Until After Peace Is Signed

Philadelphia and other Pennsylvania soldiers now overseas may be among the last to come home from France.

This impression is given by a statement of Secretary of War Baker. It is his opinion that the veteran divisions will remain overseas until after peace has been formally declared.

These tried fighters, who have proved they are more than a match for the enemy, will be kept in France and Germany to meet any eventualities that may come.

The famous Iron Division and the Rainbow Division are among the veterans. The Seventy-ninth Division also has seen considerable action, and may be considered a tried unit. They undoubtedly will form part of the army of occupation of 125,000.

The K. I. L. M. Companies of the old Fourth Regiment, N. G. P., are the Pennsylvania units in the Rainbow Division. The Iron Division is composed entirely of National Guard regiments from this State.

Another veteran organization in France is the Nineteenth Railway Engineers, the first unit to get abroad from this State.

The Seventy-ninth Division is made up of drafted men from this State, Maryland and the District of Columbia.

OPEN SALE FOR HOSPITAL

All Sorts of Articles Offered at Hahnemann Aid Bazaar

Furniture, clothing, books, ornaments, phonograph records, games, toys and dozens of other articles are included in the rummage sale which managers of the Hahnemann Hospital opened at 822 Chestnut street today.

Proceeds of the sale will be used to alleviate the suffering of needy persons. Mrs. Clarence Bartlett is chairman and associated with her are Mrs. T. H. Carmichael, Mrs. Walter Madeira, Mrs. William J. Montgomery, Mrs. John H. Whitaker, Mrs. R. C. Goldsmith, Mrs. Biddle R. Marsden, Mrs. Howard C. Potts, Mrs. George C. Thomas, Jr., Mrs. J. P. E. Scott, Mrs. George W. Stewart and Mrs. L. Herrine Evans.

Christmas shopping is all the pleasanter for a visit to Whitman's.

Candies Luncheon Afternoon Tea

Open in the evening till eleven-thirty for soda and for candies

1516 Chestnut St.

Whitman's

BANISHED SUGAR BOWLS BACK AND FULL TO BRIMS

Restaurant Patrons Welcome Dish as Lovable as Famous Old Oaken Bucket

Some Places Still Parcel Out Sweetness in Doctors' Powder Envelopes

Sugar dropped one-half cent a pound today, and is scheduled to go lower. Cut rate stores announced granulated sugar at ten cents a pound.

The sugar bowl is back again, looking none the worse for its enforced rest.

It smiled a welcome to thousands in the business section restaurants and was filled to the brim with sweetness.

When restrictions on the use of sugar were removed, the food administration announced that proprietors of public eating places "may place the sugar bowl back on the table."

Restaurant patrons today greeted it like an old friend. But there was no unreasonable raids on the contents, as everyone is aware of the fact that extremes are dangerous even in the face of plenty.

Of course, there were some diners who took four teaspoonfuls just as they do at home. There were others, however, who took only one or two, and others drank their coffee sugarless.

In some places the bowl failed to reappear. The proprietors were evidently not aware that the receptacles had been

LOOK WHO'S HERE!

RAILWAY FACILITIES ASSURED TO PORT

Regional Director Promises Boosters Adequate Service for Shippers

The railroad administration has assured that the Philadelphia port boosters adequate rail transportation facilities will be assured.

The promise is contained in a communication from Regional Railroad Director Markham to the port development committee, said Director Webster of Wharves, Docks and Ferries, who is chairman of the committee, this afternoon.

It reply from the committee is being framed.

"Not only has the regional director told us the railroads could take care of all the trade to and from this port, but that we might go ahead and assure shippers and ship lines that they will be afforded ample rail service," said the Director.

Director Webster also said he had received numerous communications from business and manufacturing houses desiring to ship through this port. Many are primarily interested in South American trade.

Many of the letters, which the Director displayed to his listeners were forwarded to steamship lines contemplating furnishing service to the port of Philadelphia. The names of the concerns anxious to use this port were withheld from publication for business reasons.

The committee conferred today with a representative of the Trades Association on the question of developing greater coastwise trade. G. P. Hanke was the trade body representative.

MRS. ESTHER K. ALSOP DIES Descendant of Old Family and Elder in Society of Friends

Mrs. Esther K. Alsop, eighty years old, member of one of Philadelphia's oldest families, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Carter, in Lansdowne today.

For many years Mrs. Alsop was an elder in the Friends Society, a manager of the Home for Aged and Infirm Colored Persons, Girard avenue and Forty-fourth street, and actively interested in other charities.

Six children, sixteen grandchildren and two great-grandchildren survive. Mrs. Alsop had been critically ill for many weeks.

The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Friends' Meeting House in Lansdowne.

BAILEY, BANKS & BIDDLE CO. JEWELERS SILVERSMITHS STATIONERS

Platinum Jewelry

- Pearls, Diamonds, Sapphires, Emeralds, Rubies, Black Onyx, Aqua Marines, Black Opals

THE THINGS OF FRANCE

THIS YEAR the artistic products of France are in great demand. Our Army will spread OVER HERE an appreciation of the beautiful things that only the French can produce! Furniture, vases, porcelains, jewel-cases, electroliers, mirrors, in alluring variety, all made in Bordeaux, Lille or Paris. And you will be surprised at the moderate prices!

The Rosenbach Galleries

1320 WALNUT STREET Christmas Cards and Calendars

JOHN HAWORTH COMPANY Eastman Kodak Co. 1020 Chestnut Street

Atlantic City Store 1637 Boardwalk

CITY AND STATE JOIN IN HONORING BRITAIN

Governor Appoints Committee—Mayor Calls for Flag Display; Schools Celebrate

Governor Brumbaugh today appointed the following committee to "make arrangements for the proper observance of Britain's day, tomorrow, and in the churches, Sunday.

Senator Philander C. Knox, Valley Forge; Chancellor S. R. McCormick, Pittsburgh; Benjamin Thaw, Sewickley; W. A. Magee, Pittsburgh; Charles M. Schwab, South Bethlehem; A. W. Mellon, Charles E. B. Childers, Lieutenant C. M. Harnise, John A. Sharp, Andrew M. McKnight, Robert Garland, James J. Buchanan, the Rev. E. M. McFadden, M. L. Lesser, Charles Hyde, George S. Harrison, J. C. M. White, and Allan Clarke, all of Pittsburgh; Louis Follett, Canonsburg; M. J. Farkhill, Pittsburgh; Wm. H. Wick, Pittsburgh; George Wharton Pepper, W. A. Glasgow, Percy A. Legge, George Flint, Spencer D. Wright, Charles Bond, Herbert J. Tilly, Dr. John Welsh Crookley, Dr. L. Webster Fox and John Weaver, all of this city.

British history and geography, particularly of the last four years, are of particular interest to Philadelphia's public school children who observed Britain's Day with special programs today.

Thousands of parents were entertained with bits of interesting information concerning the British army and navy, and the part the British have played in the war.

Some of the schools the children were asked to write essays on subjects relative to England.

Mayor Smith issued the following proclamation:

Saturday, December 7, having been designated as Britain's Day, when America will give public acknowledgment of the splendid services of our British ally in the great world war, I ask that a free display of the British colors be made on homes and business offices, and that in every way possible we show appreciation of the great record made by our ally in the war, bearing in mind the remembrance the fact that the ally we honor has given nearly a million lives that liberty might become the blessed inheritance of millions hereafter denied its beneficent influence.

A mass-meeting will be held tomorrow night at the Metropolitan Opera House, Alfred Noyes, the poet, and Major General James MacLachlan, of the British army, will speak.

There will also be exercises in Camden tomorrow night in honor of Great Britain. Representative Patrick H. Kelly, who recently visited the French battlefields, will make an address at the mass-meeting in the First Methodist Episcopal Church.

Y. W. C. A. NEEDS AIDES Demand for trained secretaries which has been created by the enlarged program among women in industry inaugurated by the Young Women's Christian Association as part of its reconstruction work, has led to the establishment of a new bureau here.

In the office of the eastern field, 620 Witherspoon Building, there has been opened a personal bureau which supplies information for those interested in the work. It is in charge of Miss Marguerite Lauterbach, 2318 De Lancy place.

INDEPENDENTS DEFY VARE-SMITH FORCES

Declare No Financial Measures Shall Pass Councils Without Sharp Scrutiny

Many changes in councilmatic procedure relative to financial measures are forecast today through recent Independent-Pennosa victories. Repeatedly the minority held up and defeated Administration measures requiring a two-thirds vote.

With the Vars-Smith forces unable to pass legislation requiring more than a bare majority vote the Independent leaders in both branches have adopted blocking tactics that are likely to result in much discomfiture to the Administration during the last year of the Smith regime.

The first evidence of this has occasioned delay and revision of the appropriation bill for the Sheriff's office.

Charles H. Von Tagen, Common Councilman from the Forty-second Ward, has served notice on the Vars-Smith faction that no "deal" will be entered into to approve legislation for both factions, and that in the future the thirty-two members of the lower branch will oppose any financial measure that is not in the interest of good government.

One custom that the administration will be forced to abandon is that of including extra clerk hire bills and claims for work already done, in straight transfer measures, in the hopes that they will pass unnoted.

From now on Independent members will closely scrutinize every financial measure and all that carry such items will be defeated.

Seldom in years past has a minority taken such an active part in blocking what was considered vicious legislation as was the case yesterday, and a number of finance bills awaiting passage are likely to meet delay or be sent to the scrap heap for revision before the year ends.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

City Solicitor Connelly is drafting a bill making effective the constitutional amendment fixing the city's borrowing capacity and permitting the city to borrow 2 per cent for general municipal purposes as well as for port and transit facilities. This gives the city a borrowing capacity of 10 per cent for all purposes, the former limit being 7 per cent.

The 3195 Winter Suits and 1837 Winter Overcoats in this Extraordinary Intensified Value Sale at the One Uniform Price $30

are of unquestionable and unqualified $35, $38, $40 and $45 quality—and you have only to examine them to see that they are easily worth those prices today!

That is the thing that makes this an EXTRAORDINARY Intensified Value Sale. Under ordinary circumstances and under ordinary market conditions a Perry Intensified Value Sale is an event in the clothing season—today it is the achievement of the almost-impossible, for GOOD merchandise was never so scarce, and the prices never so high. We turned the trick by cutting up for this Sale fabrics that we have owned for over two years; we secured others under exceptional circumstances at considerable price concessions; and we have lopped off almost all our own legitimate profits, so that you are able to buy Suits and Overcoats of unquestionable and unqualified $35, $38, $40 and $45 quality in this

Intensified Value Sale at the One Uniform Price $30

Nearly 2000 Overcoats Over 3000 Suits

Single-breasted Double-breasted Fly-fronts Button-through Fronts Velvet Collars Cloth Collars Close-fitting Waists Chesterfields Double-breasted Ulsters Convertible Collar Coats Hudson Seal-Collar Coats A large assortment of fabrics, patterns, colors

Plain Worsted Silk-mixed Worsted Blue Flannels Brown Flannels Green Flannels Fine Cassimeres Cheviots in dark patterns and novelty mixtures Blues, Grays, Oxfords Soft Indistinct Stripes Conservative Models A few Cut-Off-Waisters

All of unquestionable $35, $38, $40 and $45 quality in Overcoats and Suits, and good values at those prices in today's market, but in this

Intensified Value Sale at One Uniform Price, $30

The Rosenbach Galleries 1320 WALNUT STREET Christmas Cards and Calendars

PERRY & CO., "N. B. T." 16th & Chestnut Sts.

Remount Your Old Jewels for Christmas

Now that the Government again permits us to use platinum we are prepared to remodel old jewelry into modern platinum mountings.

Our skill in this work is unexcelled and our suggestions original. Designs and estimates cheerfully submitted.

We advise that orders be placed promptly to insure delivery before Christmas.

If you have not received a copy of our new Catalog call or write for one. It will be helpful in making Christmas gift selections.

S. Kind & Sons, 1110 Chestnut St. DIAMOND MERCHANTS—JEWELERS—SILVERSMITHS We advise early Christmas shopping.

Atlantic City Store 1637 Boardwalk