

THEATRE BILLS FOR NEXT WEEK

Schedule of Entertainments Includes One "Legitimate" Opening

NEW ATTRACTIONS
LYRIC—A. H. Woods presents Law Fields in the success, "Friendly Enemies," with Charles Winninger and an excellent company. The play tells the story of the stormy but intimate friendship of two men whose sentiments differ on the subject of the war.

CONTINUING ATTRACTIONS
BROAD—Cecil Maude and his notable company in U. Haddon Chambers' latest comedy, "The Saving Grace." Associated with Mr. Maude are Laura Hope Crews, Betty Murray, Annie Hughes, Charlotte Grayville, Edward Douglas and Stanley Harrison.

FORREST—The Klaw and Erlanger musical comedy, "The Velvet Lady," by Victor Herbert and Henry Blossom, a musical version of a popular farce, George O'Ramey, Marie Flynn and Minerva Coverdale are featured.

GARRICK—David Belasco's success, "Polly With a Past," in which Ina Claire makes her first appearance in a dramatic role.

OPERA HOUSE—"Oh, Lady! Lady!" musical comedy, produced by F. Ray Comstock and William Elliott. Book and lyrics by Guy Bolton and G. Wodehouse and score by Jerome Kern. Original New York cast, including Vivienne Segal, Carl Randall and Constance Binney.

SUBERT—Last week of "Maytime," a costume play, with attractive music. Cast headed by John Charles Thomas, John T. Murray and Dorothy Bigelow.

ADDELPHI—"Eyes of Youth," with Alma Tell in the chief role. A mystical play in which the heroine peers into her future through the medium of a crystal globe.

WALNUT—Dramatization of the Dickens novel, "The Garden of Allah." Big scenic production with a big cast and many animals appearing.

VAUDEVILLE
KEITH'S—Bessie Clayton and the Caminos remain for a second week, exhibiting their dancing; Artie Melinger and George W. May in musical selections; Miss Norton and Paul Nicholson in comedy sketch of married life; Muriel Window, singer; Four Elliott gymnasts; F. C. McLaughlin, ventriloquist; Eddy, juggler; "The Four of Us," a new quartet of singers.

GLOBE—"The Mimic World," musical comedy; Colina's Variety Dancers; Anderson and Golden; Carl McLaughlin; Douglas Family; Morgan Grey, and Paul Earl.

BROADWAY—H. Bart McHugh presents "Here They Come," musical comedy; Five Musical Melodians, Cliff Clark and photoplay, "Greatest Thing in Life," first half of week. Roland West heads the program the last half of the week in "Fixing the Furnace."

CROSS KEYS—Stanley and Birback, in a transformation act; Roland West, in "Fixing the Furnace"; Leonora Simonson, and Pippifax, and Penlo, first half of week. "Love and Kisses" is the chief attraction the last half of the week.

WILLIAM PENN—Fred Adair, in "The Singing School"; Hoey and Lee; Tetter Brothers; J. C. Lewis, Jr., in "Billy's Santa Claus," first half of week. Billy Montgomery and Minnie Allen are the headliners the last half of the week.

GRAND—"Oh, Auntie," a futuristic shop of musical comedy material; Florence Hackett and Herbert Denton, in "Poughkeepsie"; Dave Roth, comedian; Cook and Savo, and Zert's Dogs.

COLONIAL—General Pisano and company in "On the Italian Front"; Willard Mack's "Don't Do It"; Madison and Winchester; Bob, Tip and company, and photoplay, "Temple of the Dusk," with Sessue Hayakawa, first half of week. Walter Weems heads the bill the last half of the week.

NIXON—Walter Weems, comedian; Orth and Cody, "The Decorators"; McRae and Clegg, "The International Five, acrobats, first half of week. James Kennedy and company, in Willard Mack's "Don't Do It," is the main attraction the last half of the week.

PHOTOPLAYS
STANLEY—"The Squaw Man" is the latest Cecil B. De Mille production, although it has been shown in the films before. Many improvements in motion picture making have been utilized in this re-made version of the story.

PALACE—"Arizona" is another re-made production, and Douglas Fairbanks is the featured player. It will be shown for the entire week.

ARCADE—"Branding Broadway" will bring William S. Hart in his latest play. It was written by C. Gardner Sullivan and shows the player in a different sort of character from which he has been accustomed to appear in his movie stories. Seena Owen is his leading woman.

VICTORIA—"I'll Say So" has George Walsh as the star. This actor has a host of followers and his work is worth watching. Mr. Walsh's work is not unlike that of Douglas Fairbanks.

REGENT—Harry Houdini will make his first appearance as a star in the serial production, "The Master Mystery," and Emmy Wehlen will be seen in "Sylvia on a Spree," the first half of the week. Dorothy Griffith is the featured player in D. W. Griffith's latest story, "The Hope Chest," the last half of the week.

STRAND—D. W. Griffith's "The Greatest Thing in Life," is the feature the first half of the week, and Ethel Clayton, in "The Mystery Girl," has been selected for presentation the last half of the week.

LOCUST—Pauline Frederick in "A Daughter of the Old South," the first three days of the week, and Shirley Mason and Ernest Truex in "Goody, Bill," the last half of the week.

BURLESQUE
CABINO—Jean Bedini and his "Puss Puss" company in a burlesque called "Apple Sauce." Bedini plays the role of a movie director and is surrounded by a big cast, which includes his "Kitten Chorus."

TROCADERO—The Speedway Girls, with Edythe Lyon and Stella Morrissey playing the big parts. Others in the cast are George Ward, Frank Anderson, George Beck, Charles Levine and Dorothy Dean.
