

Palm Beach Holds a Commanding Position in the Photographic Review of the Day

THE PRODUCER OF "The Follies," Florenz Ziegfeld, and Mrs. Ziegfeld, much better known to playgoers and admirers of the photoplay as Billie Burke, Palm Beach visitors.

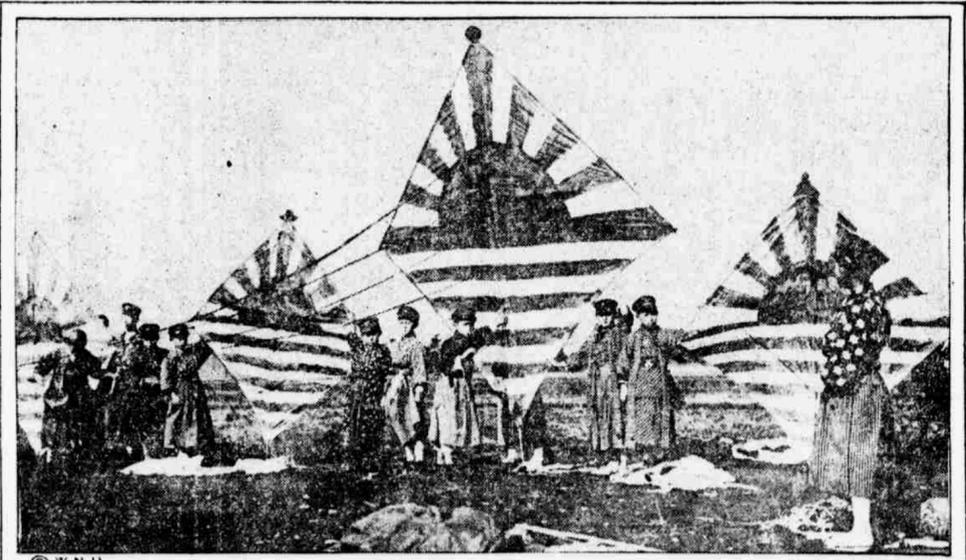

HAROLD VANDERBILT, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt, of New York, headed for a swim in the Palm Beach surf.

MISS ETHEL CAMPBELL, well known in Philadelphia golfing events, putting her police pup "Dan" through his tricks on the Florida beach.

THE MILITARY MAN and the sailor man are very apt to linger if the way leads past the canteen in the Pennsylvania ferry house in Camden. The canteen is managed jointly by the Red Cross, War Camp Community and the Camden Rotary Club.

IN TOKIO, young Japan celebrated the signing of the armistice by kite flying, a very popular sport in Nippon. Many beautiful and odd kites were flown.

MRS. M. F. KERFOOT has charge of the final count of all postage stamps leaving the Bureau of Engraving and Printing at Washington for the Government post offices, amounting to about $700,000 daily.

MISS ANNA REE, of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing in Washington, is responsible for all money leaving the bureau for the U. S. Treasury. At times on the final count about $20,000,000 passes through Miss Ree's hands daily.

ALPINE SUPREME, Commander Spencer Eddy's imported Bull Terrier, ready for the coming specialty show to be given by the Bull Terrier Club of America in New York.