

BASE HOSPITAL NO. 10
PRAISED BY COLONEL

William J. Taylor Tells of Pennsylvania Institution's
Great Work

High praise for the work of American surgeons throughout the war was given by Lieutenant Colonel William J. Taylor, who has arrived at his home, 1825 Pine street. Colonel Taylor arrived yesterday and spent only a few hours in Philadelphia, as he was here on leave. He left today for Camp Dix, but expects to return tomorrow.

Colonel Taylor went abroad in May, 1917, with Base Hospital Unit No. 10 of the Pennsylvania Hospital. At that time he was a lieutenant. His promotion to the lieutenant colonel came in recognition of his work with the unit.

Speaking of the accomplishments of Base Hospital No. 10, Doctor Taylor said:

"The remarkable recoveries from the most serious wounds of many of our patients, was the thing that perhaps struck me the most, during my stay in France.

"Some of the wounds received from shrapnel, hand grenades and machine-gun bullets," continued Doctor Taylor, "were of such a nature that the soldier's recovery was almost given up, but a great many of them recovered. Another thing that impressed me was the almost total absence of typhoid and tetanus infections."

Doctor Taylor was stationed with the other members of the unit at the British Hospital No. 16, at Trepport, on the western coast of France, eighteen miles north of Dieppe and about fifty miles east of Amiens. The hospital had 2200 beds, all of which were continually filled. The wounded would be brought to this hospital in ambulances and treated here until such time as they were able to be transported, and then sent to permanent hospitals in England.

Many American soldiers among the units brigaded with the British early in the American participation in the war, were treated at this hospital, Doctor Taylor said, and their spirit and extreme pain was wonderful. The hospital was never bombed by the Hun, the doctor said, and the only time that any apprehension was felt was during the German drive on Amiens last March, when General Gough's Fifth British Army was pushed back, and, for a time, was cut off from the other armies.

Doctor Taylor returned on the steamship Susquehanna, which docked at Newport News. He said that the other members of the unit soon expect to get their release from the British Government and return home.

PROTESTS ANNUITY MERGER

Girls' High Principal Says It
Threatens Teachers' Rights

Many of the older teachers in the city stand to lose their annuity due to them from the local teachers' retirement fund if the merger is effected with the State Retirement Fund, according to J. Eugene Baker, principal of the Girls' High School, and president of the Philadelphia Teachers' Association, which has over 5000 members.

"If the Board of Education decides to merge into the State system, some who are more than seventy years old and are not compelled to retire, under the local system will have to retire," he said. "Under the State system these teachers would be entitled to as many as eight years of $5000 as they have taught in the State of Pennsylvania. If they have taught less than forty years in the State they will retire on less than $1000, by the State law, whatever the earning salary may be."

ART BRINGS HIGH PRICES

Cruikshank Caricatures From Philadelphia's Library

Caricatures by George Cruikshank and illustrated books from the library of J. Barton Townsend, of this city, were sold at auction at the first of five sessions in the American Art Galleries, 120 New York last night. W. W. Swann paid the leading price of $460 for forty colored etchings by Cruikshank in book form.

"The Scourge" and other sketches in twelve volumes by the same artist, to Gabriel Wells for $385 as the second best price of the night. "The Annals of Gallantry," by A. Moore and illustrated by Cruikshank, was bought by J. H. Beeton for $250 as the third best price. The sale brought $5995. Mr. Swann purchased David Carey's "Life in Paris" with Cruikshank illustrations for $175. W. Wells paid $155 for Miss Burney's "Evelina" with six color plates by Cruikshank.

ALTAR IS SON'S MEMORIAL

Joseph B. McCall to Commemorate
Death of Soldier Hero

Joseph B. McCall, president of the Philadelphia Electric Company, will present an altar to the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Epiphany, Third and Chestnut streets above Chestnut, in memory of his son, Captain Howard Clifton McCall, who was killed in France in July while leading Company G, Fifty-ninth United States Infantry.

Several designs have been tentatively for the altar, but none of them has been decided upon by McCall. James H. Windrime, an architect, is drawing plans for the memorial.

DROPS OF MAGIC!
CORNS LIFT OUT

So simple! Drop a little
Freezone on a touchy corn,
instantly that corn stops hurting,
then you lift it off with the fingers. No pain! Try it.

Fresh Fruit
Desserts—2c

Jiffy-Jell desserts, rich
and fruity, cost but 2
cents per serving.

Each package contains
a vial of fruit essence,
made from condensed
fruit juice.

Add boiling water, then
this flavor, and you have a fresh-fruit delight.

Compare Jiffy-Jell with
the old-style quick gelatin
desserts. You will find it five times better,
yet it costs no more.

Millions now enjoy it.

Jiffy-Jell

25 Flavors, at Your Grocer's
3 Packages for 25 Cents

And So They Were Married

By HAZEL DEYO BATCHELOR

Copyright, 1919, by Public Ledger Co.

ALICE'S divorce turned out not to be alone, as it happened. Ruth got a special delivery letter telling her so on the morning after Scott left.

MRS. MORRIS L. PARRISH
NURSE WHO LIVED
HERE IS AWARDED
CROIX DE GUERRE

Mrs. Morris L. Parrish Decorated
by Marshal Petain for Heroic
Services

The Croix de Guerre has been awarded to Mrs. Morris L. Parrish, formerly of 315 South Twenty-second street, Philadelphia.

The honor came directly from Marshal Petain in recognition of her service as a volunteer nurse with the French army.
She also received a regimental citation
for devotion to duty.

At the same time the cross of war
was pinned on her uniform the citation
read as follows:

Office of Grand Headquarters,
French Army of the East:
Pursuant to instructions No. 7374,
of May 1, 1918, and orders of May 2, 1918, the marshal commander-in-chief of the French armies of the east, cited
regimental orders:

Mrs. Parrish, American
nurse, ambulance force, surgical
volunteer nurse of American nationality,
has served two years with the ambulances on the French front. Has always shown most generous unselfishness and courageous devotion. On March 27, near the site of a hospital
unit, she established in the oft-shelled railway station of a menaced town a first-aid hospital and a canteen. At this dangerous post she bravely remained night and day for six days,
rendering most important service to the homeless civilian population of the town.

General headquarters, November 28,
1918. PETAIN.

Marshal of France and commander-in-chief of the French armies of the east.

Word of the honors given to Mrs.
Parrish in Philadelphia. She is promoted socially and she appeared personally to obtain financial aid for the hospital to which she is attached
overseas. From the library of Mrs.
Poch's counter-offensive last July until
the signing of the armistice, Mrs.
Parrish worked continuously among the wounded. She frequently was under fire.

HERO SURPRISES FAMILY

Name in Casualty List, Camden
Boy Appears at Home

Sorrow of a father and mother at the appearance of their son's name in the overseas casualty list was suddenly
turned to joy last night when the boy
knocked on the door of his home in the very moment that a newspaper reporter
was trying to obtain from them details
of his reported injury.

The parents thus made happy were
Mr. and Mrs. William Seelye, 644 Erie
street, Camden. The son is Albert Seelye, twenty years of age. On opening the door and seeing her son standing before her, Mrs. Seelye was nearly overcome as she took the boy in her arms.
Young Seelye enlisted in the medical corps in April of last year and went to France in July, where he was with the 360th Field Hospital of the Nineteenth Division. He received wounds in the right arm and leg when a German shell
struck a hospital in which he was working one mile behind the front line in the battle of the Argonne Forest. After being in French hospitals he was invalided home to Camp Lee, where he made his recovery.

He kept his movements secret to surprise his parents. And he succeeded beyond his highest hopes, he said.

Found Dead Under Car

John Eisler, twenty-three years old,
514 Bergen street, Gloucester, was found dead today beneath a freight car at the Reading Railway Station in Gloucester.
He had been employed by the Pusey &
Jones Shipbuilding Company at Gloucester.

Safe Milk
for Infants and Invalids

HORLICK'S
THE ORIGINAL
MALTED MILK

Rich milk, malted grain, in powder form.
For infants, invalids and growing children.
Pure nutrition, upbuilding the whole body.
Invigorates nursing mothers and the aged.
More nutritious than tea, coffee, etc.
Instantly prepared. Requires no cooking.
Substitutes Cost YOU Same Price

DROPS OF MAGIC!
CORNS LIFT OUT

So simple! Drop a little
Freezone on a touchy corn,
instantly that corn stops hurting,
then you lift it off with the fingers. No pain! Try it.

Fresh Fruit
Desserts—2c

Jiffy-Jell desserts, rich
and fruity, cost but 2
cents per serving.

Each package contains
a vial of fruit essence,
made from condensed
fruit juice.

Add boiling water, then
this flavor, and you have a
fresh-fruit delight.

Compare Jiffy-Jell with
the old-style quick gelatin
desserts. You will find it five times better,
yet it costs no more.

Millions now enjoy it.

Jiffy-Jell

25 Flavors, at Your Grocer's
3 Packages for 25 Cents

And So They Were Married

By HAZEL DEYO BATCHELOR

Copyright, 1919, by Public Ledger Co.

ALICE'S divorce turned out not to be alone, as it happened. Ruth got a special delivery letter telling her so on the morning after Scott left.

MRS. MORRIS L. PARRISH
NURSE WHO LIVED
HERE IS AWARDED
CROIX DE GUERRE

Mrs. Morris L. Parrish Decorated
by Marshal Petain for Heroic
Services

The Croix de Guerre has been awarded to Mrs. Morris L. Parrish,
formerly of 315 South Twenty-second
street, Philadelphia.

The honor came directly from Marshal
Petain in recognition of her service as a volunteer nurse with the French army.
She also received a regimental citation
for devotion to duty.

At the same time the cross of war
was pinned on her uniform the citation
read as follows:

Office of Grand Headquarters,
French Army of the East:
Pursuant to instructions No. 7374,
of May 1, 1918, and orders of May 2,
1918, the marshal commander-in-chief of the French armies of the east, cited
regimental orders:

Mrs. Parrish, American
nurse, ambulance force, surgical
volunteer nurse of American nationality,
has served two years with the ambulances on the French front. Has always shown most generous unselfishness and courageous devotion. On March 27, near the site of a hospital
unit, she established in the oft-shelled
railway station of a menaced town a first-aid hospital and a canteen. At this dangerous post she bravely remained night and day for six days,
rendering most important service to
the homeless civilian population of the town.

General headquarters, November 28,
1918. PETAIN.

Marshal of France and commander-
in-chief of the French armies of the east.

Word of the honors given to Mrs.
Parrish in Philadelphia. She is promoted socially and she appeared personally to obtain financial aid for
the hospital to which she is attached
overseas. From the library of Mrs.
Poch's counter-offensive last July until
the signing of the armistice, Mrs.
Parrish worked continuously among the wounded. She frequently was under fire.

HERO SURPRISES FAMILY

Name in Casualty List, Camden
Boy Appears at Home

Sorrow of a father and mother at
the appearance of their son's name in
the overseas casualty list was suddenly
turned to joy last night when the boy
knocked on the door of his home in
the very moment that a newspaper reporter
was trying to obtain from them details
of his reported injury.

The parents thus made happy were
Mr. and Mrs. William Seelye, 644 Erie
street, Camden. The son is Albert
Seelye, twenty years of age. On opening the door and seeing her son standing
before her, Mrs. Seelye was nearly overcome as she took the boy in her arms.
Young Seelye enlisted in the medical
corps in April of last year and went
to France in July, where he was with
the 360th Field Hospital of the Nineteenth Division. He received wounds in the right arm and leg when a German shell
struck a hospital in which he was working one mile behind the front line in the battle of the Argonne Forest. After being in French hospitals he was invalided home to Camp Lee, where he
made his recovery.

He kept his movements secret to surprise his parents. And he succeeded beyond his highest hopes, he said.

Found Dead Under Car

John Eisler, twenty-three years old,
514 Bergen street, Gloucester, was found dead today beneath a freight car at the Reading Railway Station in Gloucester.
He had been employed by the Pusey &
Jones Shipbuilding Company at Gloucester.

Safe Milk
for Infants and Invalids

HORLICK'S
THE ORIGINAL
MALTED MILK

Rich milk, malted grain, in powder form.
For infants, invalids and growing children.
Pure nutrition, upbuilding the whole body.
Invigorates nursing mothers and the aged.
More nutritious than tea, coffee, etc.
Instantly prepared. Requires no cooking.
Substitutes Cost YOU Same Price

DROPS OF MAGIC!
CORNS LIFT OUT

So simple! Drop a little
Freezone on a touchy corn,
instantly that corn stops hurting,
then you lift it off with the fingers. No pain! Try it.

Fresh Fruit
Desserts—2c

Jiffy-Jell desserts, rich
and fruity, cost but 2
cents per serving.

Each package contains
a vial of fruit essence,
made from condensed
fruit juice.

Add boiling water, then
this flavor, and you have a
fresh-fruit delight.

Compare Jiffy-Jell with
the old-style quick gelatin
desserts. You will find it five times better,
yet it costs no more.

Millions now enjoy it.

Jiffy-Jell

25 Flavors, at Your Grocer's
3 Packages for 25 Cents

And So They Were Married

By HAZEL DEYO BATCHELOR

Copyright, 1919, by Public Ledger Co.

ALICE'S divorce turned out not to be alone, as it happened. Ruth got a special delivery letter telling her so on the morning after Scott left.

MRS. MORRIS L. PARRISH
NURSE WHO LIVED
HERE IS AWARDED
CROIX DE GUERRE

Mrs. Morris L. Parrish Decorated
by Marshal Petain for Heroic
Services

The Croix de Guerre has been awarded to Mrs. Morris L. Parrish,
formerly of 315 South Twenty-second
street, Philadelphia.

The honor came directly from Marshal
Petain in recognition of her service as a volunteer nurse with the French army.
She also received a regimental citation
for devotion to duty.

At the same time the cross of war
was pinned on her uniform the citation
read as follows:

Office of Grand Headquarters,
French Army of the East:
Pursuant to instructions No. 7374,
of May 1, 1918, and orders of May 2,
1918, the marshal commander-in-chief of the French armies of the east, cited
regimental orders:

Mrs. Parrish, American
nurse, ambulance force, surgical
volunteer nurse of American nationality,
has served two years with the ambulances on the French front. Has always shown most generous unselfishness and courageous devotion. On March 27, near the site of a hospital
unit, she established in the oft-shelled
railway station of a menaced town a first-aid hospital and a canteen. At this dangerous post she bravely remained night and day for six days,
rendering most important service to
the homeless civilian population of the town.

General headquarters, November 28,
1918. PETAIN.

Marshal of France and commander-
in-chief of the French armies of the east.

Word of the honors given to Mrs.
Parrish in Philadelphia. She is promoted socially and she appeared personally to obtain financial aid for
the hospital to which she is attached
overseas. From the library of Mrs.
Poch's counter-offensive last July until
the signing of the armistice, Mrs.
Parrish worked continuously among the wounded. She frequently was under fire.

HERO SURPRISES FAMILY

Name in Casualty List, Camden
Boy Appears at Home

Sorrow of a father and mother at
the appearance of their son's name in
the overseas casualty list was suddenly
turned to joy last night when the boy
knocked on the door of his home in
the very moment that a newspaper reporter
was trying to obtain from them details
of his reported injury.

The parents thus made happy were
Mr. and Mrs. William Seelye, 644 Erie
street, Camden. The son is Albert Seelye, twenty years of age. On opening the door and seeing her son standing
before her, Mrs. Seelye was nearly overcome as she took the boy in her arms.
Young Seelye enlisted in the medical
corps in April of last year and went
to France in July, where he was with
the 360th Field Hospital of the Nineteenth Division. He received wounds in the right arm and leg when a German shell
struck a hospital in which he was working one mile behind the front line in the battle of the Argonne Forest. After being in French hospitals he was invalided home to Camp Lee, where he
made his recovery.

He kept his movements secret to surprise his parents. And he succeeded beyond his highest hopes, he said.

Found Dead Under Car

John Eisler, twenty-three years old,
514 Bergen street, Gloucester, was found dead today beneath a freight car at the Reading Railway Station in Gloucester.
He had been employed by the Pusey &
Jones Shipbuilding Company at Gloucester.

Safe Milk
for Infants and Invalids

HORLICK'S
THE ORIGINAL
MALTED MILK

Rich milk, malted grain, in powder form.
For infants, invalids and growing children.
Pure nutrition, upbuilding the whole body.
Invigorates nursing mothers and the aged.
More nutritious than tea, coffee, etc.
Instantly prepared. Requires no cooking.
Substitutes Cost YOU Same Price

DROPS OF MAGIC!
CORNS LIFT OUT

So simple! Drop a little
Freezone on a touchy corn,
instantly that corn stops hurting,
then you lift it off with the fingers. No pain! Try it.

Fresh Fruit
Desserts—2c

Jiffy-Jell desserts, rich
and fruity, cost but 2
cents per serving.

Each package contains
a vial of fruit essence,
made from condensed
fruit juice.

Add boiling water, then
this flavor, and you have a
fresh-fruit delight.

Compare Jiffy-Jell with
the old-style quick gelatin
desserts. You will find it five times better,
yet it costs no more.

Millions now enjoy it.

Jiffy-Jell

25 Flavors, at Your Grocer's
3 Packages for 25 Cents

And So They Were Married

By HAZEL DEYO BATCHELOR

Copyright, 1919, by Public Ledger Co.

ALICE'S divorce turned out not to be alone, as it happened. Ruth got a special delivery letter telling her so on the morning after Scott left.

MRS. MORRIS L. PARRISH
NURSE WHO LIVED
HERE IS AWARDED
CROIX DE GUERRE

Mrs. Morris L. Parrish Decorated
by Marshal Petain for Heroic
Services

The Croix de Guerre has been awarded to Mrs. Morris L. Parrish,
formerly of 315 South Twenty-second
street, Philadelphia.

The honor came directly from Marshal
Petain in recognition of her service as a volunteer nurse with the French army.
She also received a regimental citation
for devotion to duty.

At the same time the cross of war
was pinned on her uniform the citation
read as follows:

Office of Grand Headquarters,
French Army of the East:
Pursuant to instructions No. 7374,
of May 1, 1918, and orders of May 2,
1918, the marshal commander-in-chief of the French armies of the east, cited
regimental orders:

Mrs. Parrish, American
nurse, ambulance force, surgical
volunteer nurse of American nationality,
has served two years with the ambulances on the French front. Has
always shown most generous unselfishness and courageous devotion. On March 27, near the site of a hospital
unit, she established in the oft-shelled
railway station of a menaced town a first-aid hospital and a canteen. At this dangerous post she bravely remained night and day for six days,
rendering most important service to
the homeless civilian population of the town.

General headquarters, November 28,
1918. PETAIN.

Marshal of France and commander-
in-chief of the French armies of the east.

Word of the honors given to Mrs.
Parrish in Philadelphia. She is promoted socially and she appeared personally to obtain financial aid for
the hospital to which she is attached
overseas. From the library of Mrs.
Poch's counter-offensive last July until
the signing of the armistice, Mrs.
Parrish worked continuously among the wounded. She frequently was under fire.

HERO SURPRISES FAMILY

Name in Casualty List, Camden
Boy Appears at Home

Sorrow of a father and mother at
the appearance of their son's name in
the overseas casualty list was suddenly
turned to joy last night when the boy
knocked on the door of his home in
the very moment that a newspaper reporter
was trying to obtain from them details
of his reported injury.

The parents thus made happy were
Mr. and Mrs. William Seelye, 644 Erie
street, Camden. The son is Albert
Seelye, twenty years of age. On opening the door and seeing her son standing
before her, Mrs. Seelye was nearly overcome as she took the boy in her arms.
Young Seelye enlisted in the medical
corps in April of last year and went
to France in July, where he was with
the 360th Field Hospital of the Nineteenth Division. He received wounds in the right arm and leg when a German shell
struck a hospital in which he was working one mile behind the front line in the battle of the Argonne Forest. After being in French hospitals he was invalided home to Camp Lee, where he
made his recovery.

He kept his movements secret to surprise his parents. And he succeeded beyond his highest hopes, he said.

Found Dead Under Car

John Eisler, twenty-three years old,
514 Bergen street, Gloucester, was found dead today beneath a freight car at the Reading Railway Station in Gloucester.
He had been employed by the Pusey &
Jones Shipbuilding Company at Gloucester.

Safe Milk
for Infants and Invalids

HORLICK'S
THE ORIGINAL
MALTED MILK

Rich milk, malted grain, in powder form.
For infants, invalids and growing children.
Pure nutrition, upbuilding the whole body.
Invigorates nursing mothers and the aged.
More nutritious than tea, coffee, etc.
Instantly prepared. Requires no cooking.
Substitutes Cost YOU Same Price

DROPS OF MAGIC!
CORNS LIFT OUT

So simple! Drop a little
Freezone on a touchy corn,
instantly that corn stops hurting,
then you lift it off with the fingers. No pain! Try it.

Fresh Fruit
Desserts—2c

Jiffy-Jell desserts, rich
and fruity, cost but 2
cents per serving.

Each package contains
a vial of fruit essence,
made from condensed
fruit juice.

Add boiling water, then
this flavor, and you have a
fresh-fruit delight.

Compare Jiffy-Jell with
the old-style quick gelatin
desserts. You will find it five times better,
yet it costs no more.

Millions now enjoy it.

Jiffy-Jell

25 Flavors, at Your Grocer's
3 Packages for 25 Cents

And So They Were Married

By HAZEL DEYO BATCHELOR

Copyright, 1919, by Public Ledger Co.

ALICE'S divorce turned out not to be alone, as it happened. Ruth got a special delivery letter telling her so on the morning after Scott left.

MRS. MORRIS L. PARRISH
NURSE WHO LIVED
HERE IS AWARDED
CROIX DE GUERRE</