

Belgium's Courageous Cardinal Guest of City : Wilsonian Smiles : New Overseas Chief's

THE PROCESSION of automobiles bearing Cardinal Mercier, members of his party and representatives of the municipal reception committee turning into Broad street at Arch street. Great crowds lined both sides of the route from North Philadelphia Station to the center of the city.

THE SUCCESSOR to General Pershing in France—Brigadier General W. D. Connor, seated, now in command of the American soldiers overseas, and Brigadier General E. E. Booth, his chief of staff, in the A. E. F. headquarters in Paris

THOUSANDS OF school children welcomed the courageous Belgian prelate to Philadelphia along the Parkway with waving flags, cheers and song.

Ledger Photo Service

GETTING THE proper angle and much expert advice for a side-pocket shot at St. Stephen's newsboys' club. The members' good guardian, the Reverend Frederick S. Keable, is at the right.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

LEAGUE OF NATIONS smiles—cheerful visages of the Chief Executive and Mrs. Wilson as they are vociferously acclaimed and welcomed in a Far West city during the President's peace treaty tour.

MARSHAL HAIG and his two young daughters watching the army athletic championships at Aldershot, England.

MISS MARIE FERMOIL, 514 Cypress street, Philadelphia. Photographs for this back-page feature should be submitted through the mail, addressed to the Beauty Corner, EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.