

PROGRAM TO UNITE CHURCHES ADOPTED

Federation Idea Subscribed to by Representatives of Eighteen Faiths

PLAN NOT QUITE COMPLETE

Atlantic City, Oct. 3.—A "united front" of the Protestant churches in North America was brought nearer to realization by the formal adoption here of a tentative plan of actual organic union for eighteen evangelical denominations, representing 20,000,000 adherents.

The meeting at which this step looking to a united Church of Christ in the United States was taken by authorized representatives of eighteen faiths was a sequel to an initial gathering held in Philadelphia in December of last year. The Rev. Dr. William Henry Roberts, of Philadelphia, presided as chairman of the meeting here.

The proposed plan of union is not as yet ready for publication, but will be completed next month. It is expected that the council provided for in the new plan of interdenominational union will meet in Philadelphia early in December of this year. Fourteen of the denominations already have selected their representatives.

These include the Methodist Episcopalians, the Protestant Episcopalians and most of the other large denominations, with the exception of the Baptists. The Baptists, in declining to go into the movement, explained that it was impossible for them to enter into organic union with methods for the reason that the Baptist Church is an "aggregation of independent churches."

Bishop Hamilton represented the Methodists in the meeting here. Neither the southern Methodists, or southern Baptists are thus far affiliated. This movement is purely a movement for the federal union of the churches, the Rev. Dr. Roberts said here. "It is not a movement aiming outside to the federal council, for that is simply a means to co-operation. Neither is it opposed to the Inter-church World Movement."

Dr. Frank P. Perkins, Methodist, and Dr. M. G. Kyle, United Presbyterian, were the Philadelphia associates of Mr. Roberts in the conference.

Alexander McCallum Dead

Northampton, Mass., Oct. 3.—Alexander McCallum, of this city, president of the McCallum Hosiery Company, which has mills here and in Providence and Philadelphia, died today at a hotel in Albany, N. Y. He was taken ill three weeks ago while on his way home from the Adirondacks.

President Faces Long Sick Period

Continued From Page One Mr. Wilson's organs, his heart, his kidneys or his arteries. It is not unlikely that they will be followed by other experts who will be consulted as to other organs, until the best medical judgment upon the President's fundamental condition is available.

The keeping of Mr. Wilson in bed is probably a precaution based upon the natural doubt of the organic soundness of a man well past middle age as Mr. Wilson is. It was said today that Mr. Wilson had had no temperature and that this was a good sign. This does not mean that the President is suffering from some other disease than nervous prostration, but that the absence of temperature is taken as confirming the hope that there is no organic complication contributing to the nervous disorder.

Mr. Wilson is found to be organically sound; exercise instead of rest in bed will probably be ordered, since with nervous exhaustion there is always great restlessness, and physical activity is the best outlet for it. The keeping of Mr. Wilson in bed and forbidding all exercise, along with the calling of various specialists, indicate that there are some doubts to be resolved as to his physical condition before the normal course of treatment for nervous exhaustion is adopted, and the President is ordered to the golf links.

McAdoo May Represent Wilson

The illness of the President throws many things into confusion. It is plain that he will be able to take no part in settling the "breast" questions, and that he will have no hand in the industrial conference. Mr. McAdoo's presence here may indicate that he will represent the President in discussions with the Senate leaders and with the business and labor delegates to the industrial conference.

Bernard Baruch, who is in charge of the industrial conference for the President and Senator Hitchcock will represent him in his relations to the treaty. Both men will be strengthened by having the advice of Mr. McAdoo. But in the end each will have to assume responsibility for his action.

Mr. Hitchcock must get upon the treaty and he must be ready to do so at a moment's notice. The illness of the President will increase pressure upon the Senate to dispose of the treaty promptly. Public sympathy will be one with Mr. Wilson and the treaty is one of the subjects which is keeping up the strain upon him.

Therefore the country will have an added reason for insisting upon quick action, and the Democrats must not be in the position of delaying a vote, because in the illness of the President no one has authority to act. The man in charge of the treaty in the Senate for the administration must assume authority.

36 BANKS CHARTERED

Minnesota Commission Denies Application for Ninety-four Others St. Paul, Oct. 6.—More than half the applications for new banks submitted to the State Securities Commission of Minnesota, since its creation in March, 1919, have been denied. During this period applications for charters were granted thirty-six banks and applications of ninety-four were denied. The combined capitalization of the new banks is $871,000. The act providing for the commission provides that before a state bank shall be organized in Minnesota the approval of the commission must be obtained.

C. J. Anderson, executive officer of the commission, says that some of the banks for which charters have been sought are "split" banks, that is, they were formed to retaliate against existing banks because of the latter's activity during the Liberty Loan campaigns. Other improper motives, he says, were also disclosed.

Forty-five cases were contested, all of which were granted by default, all but three failing to appear.

TO FILM WHOLE BIBLE

Los Angeles, Oct. 3. Plans are being made here by a local motion picture producer to make moving pictures of scenes in the Bible from cover to cover. The Bible will be filmed in 100 reels, two to be shown at a time. It is expected the work will require two years and that in some sense the largest motion picture ever appearing in a motion picture will be assembled.

Wilson's Condition Not Improved Today

Continued From Page One not interfere with the industrial conference next week. In the event that the President is not able on Monday to address a communication to the conference, Secretary Tamm will notify the delegates of the President's desires regarding the selection of a permanent presiding officer.

President Wilson, said to be "a very sick man" by his physician, Dr. Grayson, today entered a period of absolute rest, which, it is said, will be necessary for some time for his recovery from the attack of nervous exhaustion which a week ago interrupted his speaking tour.

This course of treatment was announced last night by Dr. Grayson after consultation with Dr. F. X. Doremus, a Philadelphia neurologist, and two Washington physicians. In his bulletin last night Doctor Grayson reiterated his statement earlier in the day that the President's condition is "less favorable."

Diagnosis Approved

The physician called in for consultation, it was said at the White House, agreed thoroughly with the diagnosis and the method of treatment outlined by Dr. Grayson. The President's physician would not elaborate on his bulletin and the Washington physicians participating in the consultation said that anything regarding the patient's condition must come from Dr. Grayson.

Although the bulletin made no mention of it, it was learned that Dr. John B. Dobbis, director of the naval dispensary in Washington, visited the White House during the day.

Last Night's Bulletin

When the consulting physicians left the White House shortly after half-past 6 o'clock, Dr. Grayson remained and at 10 o'clock he went to the executive offices and gave out his bulletin through Secretary Tamm.

The bulletin follows:

The President is a very sick man. His condition is less favorable today and he has remained in bed throughout the day.

After consultation with Dr. Francis X. Doremus, Dr. Sterling Ruffin and Dr. Reginald Stitt, in which all agreed as to his condition, it was determined that absolute rest is essential for some time.

McAdoo at White House

Former Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, the President's son-in-law, called at the White House yesterday, but it could not be learned whether he had been requested to come to Washington because of Mr. Wilson's illness or was in the city on a business trip.

Scores of inquiries as to the President's health are being received at the White House from officials, diplomats and friends. Those calling at the White House during the morning included Chief Justice White, of the Supreme Court; W. A. F. Ekengren, the Swedish minister, and Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor.

Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 3.—(By A. P.)—Francis B. Sayre, son-in-law of President Wilson, and now a member of the faculty at Harvard law school, left this afternoon for Washington. He was preceded a few hours earlier by Mrs. Sayre. It was said that the Sayres had not received any personal word of an alarming nature regarding the condition of the President, but both wished to be with him at this time.

Towing Tug at Ashland, Wis., Laid Up for Winter

Ashland, Wis., Oct. 3.—That the steel strike has resulted in the elimination of tow barges at the Ashland ore docks for the remainder of the season is seen in the fact that the vessel-towing tug Crosby left for Duluth to lay up for the winter. This leaves the port without a vessel-towing tug.

Chicago Prelate Says It's Vain to Say Wars Are Past

Washington, Oct. 3.—Bishop Samuel Fellows, of the Reformed Episcopal Church, Chicago, urged the House affairs committee yesterday to adopt a system of universal military training for the United States. "It is idle," he declared, "to say there will be no more wars. David Starr Jordan said a few days before this started there would never be any more wars. We should do something to prevent the slaughtering of our young men in battle because they are unprepared."

Bishop Fellows declared "militarism" as generally understood could not come about in the United States. "There is no word that is more abused than militarism," he said. "That means the rule of a nation by a military force of soldiers being in charge. There is not the slightest danger that the United States will ever become a nation ruled by militarism of that sort. In the hills before Congress, there is nothing at all of militarism."

TEUTON LABOR TO ATTEND

Supreme Council Admits Delegates to Labor Conference

Paris, Oct. 3.—The supreme council yesterday considered the question of the admission of enemy and neutral delegates to the international labor conference to be held in Washington this month and decided to grant to German and Austrian representatives facilities to reach Washington.

It will be for the labor conference itself at its first meeting to invite to its sessions enemy representatives and other members who have expressed a wish to follow the work of the conference.

The House that Heppé built Founded in 1865 "The greatest of all musical instruments—and the most complete" The DUO-ART PIANOLA-PIANO A Piano, a Player-Piano, a Reproducing-Piano—all in one instrument—made by the Greatest Piano Manufacturers in the World The new Duo-Art Pianola-Piano is a type of musical instrument distinct from any other yet invented. It is all that the finest piano is— It is all that the greatest player-piano is— And in addition it is all that the most vivid inventive genius ever conceived as the ultimate conception of music producing pianos. It is all of these combined in one instrument! Bauer's Art actually recorded! The new Duo-Art will do on the piano exactly what Harold Bauer does when he plays. It will make the keys move; it will operate the pedals; it will give the exact pressure that Bauer uses on every key. Every little touch is accurately reproduced. It is Bauer that you actually hear when the Duo-Art Pianola-Piano plays a Bauer selection. The Duo-Art music-roll requires no interpretation on your part. The Duo-Art is a genuine Pianola-Piano In addition to its reproducing powers the Duo-Art is a genuine Pianola-Piano—the recognized standard of all player-piano construction. The Duo-Art as a player-piano will play any standard music-roll. It contains all of the famous Aeolian Pianola patents. The genuine Pianola is the foundation on which the Duo-Art reproducing parts are constructed. Built in the Finest Pianos in the World The Duo-Art is made only in five pianos—each one a leader in its respective class—and all embodying the highest quality known to the piano world. The Duo-Art Pianola is obtainable only in the Steinway, Weber, Steck, Wheelock and Stroud pianos—all on sale at Heppé's. There are a variety of styles and finishes in both Upright and Grand pianos.
