

SOME DUTCH RECIPES—ADVENTURES WITH A PURSE—PRETTY FROCK—GIRLS WHO ARE LONELY

MRS. WILSON TELLS OF SOME GOOD HOME-MADE DELICACIES

Lancaster Apple Butter Recipe Is That Which Is Used by the Housewives of That Place

By MRS. M. A. WILSON. JUST at the close of the harvest season, the Pennsylvania Dutch housewives feel that it is about time to begin the manufacture of the home-made winter delicacies. Apple butter, scrapple and hoghead cheese usually are about the first on her program.

The good housewives of Lancaster and Lebanon counties like to make this work a labor of love, so just about this season of the year there is much visiting among them to help each other with these homely labors.

The farmers in the district usually have an abundance of apples, so that there is plenty of cider for the making of these delicacies. One to make this delicious conserve with the cider and the other without the use of cider.

Lancaster Apple Butter. Place in the preserving kettle one and one-half quarts of cider. Pare and core and cut in thin slices one-half bushel of apples. Boil the cider one-half hour, add apples and cook until mixture is thick and a dark brown in color, adding: Two level tablespoons of cinnamon, one teaspoon of cloves, one-half teaspoon of ginger, one pound of brown sugar or one and one-half pounds of sugar.

Apple Butter Without Cider. Pare one-half bushel of apples. Place the parings in a preserving kettle and cover with cold water. Cook until soft and then strain the liquid. Measure and place six quarts of this juice in a preserving kettle and add the apples sliced very thin. Cook and then add: One and one-half level tablespoons of cinnamon, one teaspoon of cloves, one-half teaspoon of ginger, one-quarter teaspoon of nutmeg, one-half cup of cider vinegar.

Making Scrapple and Hoghead Cheese. When the family is small these thrifty women usually make the scrapple and hoghead cheese at the same time. Have the butter set for one new hoghead; split and then remove the eyes, brains and tongue. Now scald and cleanse well, rinsing in plenty of cold water. Place in a preserving kettle and add just sufficient cold water to cover the head. Now add: Two onions, two cloves, one bunch of pot or soup herbs, one level teaspoon of poultry seasoning.

Adventures With a Purse. I AM about to write of a personal experience. It is the story of a lost glove, and gloves found! After overcoming the customary and natural feeling of annoyance caused by the loss of my left glove, I turned to the inevitable and sallied forth in search of a new pair, intending to buy a pair of suede gauntlet gloves, which are so smart with a suit. After having the sweater searched through box after box until she found the size and color I had decided upon, I casually asked the price, thinking all the time how I'd come up with the world when I was prepared to pay $3.50 for gloves. To my horror, she told me the suede gloves I was examining were $6.50, making my exit as gracefully and as quickly as possible! And it was not until today that I reached the benefit of exhaustive searching and found some soft, well-fitting and gloves with gauntlet tops for $2.50. They are a remarkable bargain.

In spite of all the many kinds of waists which have made their appearance since pongee waists were first worn, the pongee blouse are still popular. There is something very trim and smart about a pongee waist. One who is having a special sale of trim tailored pongee models with high or low collars and trimmed with tucks down the front, for $3.95. One is not surprised to learn that they were originally valued at $5.

This same shop is having a sale of stockings, and most exceptional are the values. You will find pure silk stockings with cotton feet and tops, in black, brown or gray, for $1.65 a pair, an unusual price for silk stockings in this smart stockings of wool, in a number of colors, for $2 a pair, which is also remarkable. I would strongly advise you to take advantage of this sale.

If you are interested in any or all of the three last-named articles, you have but to ask me where one of them is to be found, and you will know where you can get them all, for all three are being sold at the same shop. The third bargain is a silk petticoat one. Jersey topped petticoats, with soft satiny ruffles, are priced at $4.35. You can get most any shade from a dark, inconspicuous shade to bright blues and greens. One would make a wonderful Christmas gift for some one to whom you give a rather better present.

For names of shops address Woman's Page Editor, or phone Walnut 3300.

Madame Berthe Talot of Paris and New York Will Exhibit on Thursday and Friday Nov. 20th & Nov. 21st at Bellevue-Stratford Hotel. A beautiful collection of French lingerie, blouses, negligees, children's dresses, real lace. Unusual novelties for Christmas gifts, also exclusive chapeaux.

Where You Can See Mrs. Wilson's Movies

These interesting cooking pictures will be shown during this week at the following theatres on the following days:

CORN MUFFINS. Wednesday, New Broadway Theatre, York and Hope streets. Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Grand Theatre Garden. CHARLOTTE RUSSE. Thursday and Friday, Broadway Theatre, Broad and Snyder avenue. LEBANON CRUMB CAKE. Wednesday and Thursday, Sherwood Theatre, Fifty-sixth and Baltimore avenue. Friday and Saturday, Duzdand, Frankford avenue and Birch street. For copies of these recipes apply at the box offices of the theatre or send a self-addressed stamped envelope to the Editor of Woman's Page.

Scrapple and Hoghead Cheese Can Be Made From Same Cut of Meat With Some Left for Later. One cup of water, Juice of one large lemon, and the following spices tied in a piece of cheesecloth: One tablespoon of cinnamon, one teaspoon of ginger, one-half teaspoon of nutmeg, one-half teaspoon of cloves. Boil the sugar or syrup and water for ten minutes and then add the yellow tomato, grated rind of one lemon and one package of seeded raisins. Cook until thick and then fill into sterilized jars and seal. Store in a cool place. No. 30. My dear Mrs. Wilson: Kindly insert a recipe for the famous restaurant cheese cake.

The Woman's Exchange. Address of "Movie" Actor. Dear Madam:—Would you please print Douglas Fairbanks' address? Douglas Fairbanks' address is Hollywood, Cal.

How to Clean a Sink. Dear Madam:—Would you kindly publish in the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER what would take a stain out of a white enamel sink, which I think is disclosed from the hot water? A READER. Sand soap or one of the prepared powders that are sold for this purpose usually removes stains from white sinks. Try rubbing with a cloth wet with kerosene, but be very careful with it as it is inflammable. Be sure to wash the kerosene thoroughly out after using.

Some Beauty Hints. Dear Madam:—Will you please print in your valuable column a good remedy for blackheads and large pores? I have tried facial soap for over a year and can't seem to see any difference. I would be very grateful if you would tell me what to do for my hair. After this, wash the sink every day with the powder, and once in a while polish it with whiting. This will keep it white and shiny.

Mrs. Wilson Answers Queries. No. 50. My dear Mrs. Wilson: Please tell me the reason why when I bake a cake it has holes in it. I am most ashamed of it, and it tastes O. K. but looks bad. Please let me know the reason. I would also like to know how I can make distasteful sugar. Thanking you for your advice. J. W. M. Lessons on cake baking will soon appear on this page. The use of a private still is prohibited by law. No. 53. My dear Mrs. Wilson: Kindly publish recipe for sweet pickles and also the recipe for preserved yellow tomatoes. I will appreciate your kindness very much. READER. For the sweet pickles use the pickle recipes issued August 14. Yellow Tomato Preserve. Wash and pierce each yellow tomato several times with a fork to prevent the skin from bursting. Place in a preservative bottle. Two pounds of sugar, or white corn syrup.

FURS EXCLUSIVE AT LOWER COST. Let us make you a fur garment to your order or after your old fur. TELLIS BROS., ARCH ST.

The thing to do when you're tired and out of sorts is to drink a steaming cup of Tetley's—full-flavored and stimulating—almost makes you feel better to look at that cup of deep-colored fragrant tea!

It's the skillful blending that makes Tetley's such good tea—a blend of teas from 15 or more of the world's finest gardens.

Tetley's Tea. Try a cup of Tetley's Green Label Tea. It's surprising how much better you'll feel. And you'll enjoy it!

Scrapple and Hoghead Cheese Can Be Made From Same Cut of Meat With Some Left for Later. One cup of water, Juice of one large lemon, and the following spices tied in a piece of cheesecloth: One tablespoon of cinnamon, one teaspoon of ginger, one-half teaspoon of nutmeg, one-half teaspoon of cloves. Boil the sugar or syrup and water for ten minutes and then add the yellow tomato, grated rind of one lemon and one package of seeded raisins. Cook until thick and then fill into sterilized jars and seal. Store in a cool place. No. 30. My dear Mrs. Wilson: Kindly insert a recipe for the famous restaurant cheese cake.

The Woman's Exchange. Address of "Movie" Actor. Dear Madam:—Would you please print Douglas Fairbanks' address? Douglas Fairbanks' address is Hollywood, Cal.

How to Clean a Sink. Dear Madam:—Would you kindly publish in the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER what would take a stain out of a white enamel sink, which I think is disclosed from the hot water? A READER. Sand soap or one of the prepared powders that are sold for this purpose usually removes stains from white sinks. Try rubbing with a cloth wet with kerosene, but be very careful with it as it is inflammable. Be sure to wash the kerosene thoroughly out after using.

Some Beauty Hints. Dear Madam:—Will you please print in your valuable column a good remedy for blackheads and large pores? I have tried facial soap for over a year and can't seem to see any difference. I would be very grateful if you would tell me what to do for my hair. After this, wash the sink every day with the powder, and once in a while polish it with whiting. This will keep it white and shiny.

Mrs. Wilson Answers Queries. No. 50. My dear Mrs. Wilson: Please tell me the reason why when I bake a cake it has holes in it. I am most ashamed of it, and it tastes O. K. but looks bad. Please let me know the reason. I would also like to know how I can make distasteful sugar. Thanking you for your advice. J. W. M. Lessons on cake baking will soon appear on this page. The use of a private still is prohibited by law. No. 53. My dear Mrs. Wilson: Kindly publish recipe for sweet pickles and also the recipe for preserved yellow tomatoes. I will appreciate your kindness very much. READER. For the sweet pickles use the pickle recipes issued August 14. Yellow Tomato Preserve. Wash and pierce each yellow tomato several times with a fork to prevent the skin from bursting. Place in a preservative bottle. Two pounds of sugar, or white corn syrup.

FURS EXCLUSIVE AT LOWER COST. Let us make you a fur garment to your order or after your old fur. TELLIS BROS., ARCH ST.

The thing to do when you're tired and out of sorts is to drink a steaming cup of Tetley's—full-flavored and stimulating—almost makes you feel better to look at that cup of deep-colored fragrant tea!

It's the skillful blending that makes Tetley's such good tea—a blend of teas from 15 or more of the world's finest gardens.

Tetley's Tea. Try a cup of Tetley's Green Label Tea. It's surprising how much better you'll feel. And you'll enjoy it!

A STUNNING GOWN TRIMMED WITH JET

This attractive frock of black crepe meter is offset with jet ornaments and buttons on the edge of the tunic and the waist. The hat is also jet-trimmed, and made of black velvet.

IF THAT young cousin of yours who is so fond of the monogrammed hat, she wants a frock trimmed with jet, don't become disturbed. And don't, if you want her to believe that you are posted on matters of fashion, tell her that jet is "to old" for her. To be sure unless you have seen the way jet is being used on some of the new frocks you might feel this way about it. You remember the black peau-de-seigne dress that your grandmother used to wear to church on Sundays with its yoke of jet that lasted for years. So it is no wonder that you feel startled when daughter announces that she wants to wear a jet-trimmed frock.

Really, jet is very smart, and there is no reason that I can see why the younger girls ought not to wear it, providing they do not wear it applied too heavily. The slender young girl never should wear a frock that is heavily laden with any metallic or bead effect for then she appears too slender. It accentuates her awkwardness and immaturity.

In the frock sketched here there is only a moderate use of jet. It forms ornaments on the front of the bodice, and there are jet buttons on the tunic and sleeves to catch the light and lend brilliance to the frock, which is of black crepe meter. With the frock in the sketch is worn a hat of black velvet, the trimming being embroidery in jet beads and two jet hat pins.

Copyright, 1919, by Florence Ross.

How quickly Resinol Soap cleared my skin. "Do you remember, Marie, how bad my skin looked a short time ago? I was so miserable about it. I never really enjoyed myself. I wouldn't have believed what an improvement Resinol Soap could make. It is wonderful how it gets right into the pores and cleanses them from little particles of dust, etc. It makes my skin feel so refreshed, too, because it has such a wholesome odor, and is so soothing. I wish everybody would try it!" At all druggists' and toilet goods counters.

Please Tell Me What to Do

By CYNTHIA

"Former Marine" Answers. Dear Cynthia—Will you please publish this little letter in reply to "Marine Hater"?

I am taking this opportunity to answer your letter and trust you may see things in a different light. Your first appearance in this column was a four-inch-long letter. Tonight's was an inch longer and in it you accused me of saying "he was across twenty-eight months." We will leave it to Cynthia to see if I am not right in what I say. The EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER of October 31, which contains my reply to you, says that he had been away for "more than two years." Your first letter says: "He left on the 10th of July, 1917," and "came home on August 5, 1919." Now, if that is not more than two years I do not know what is.

You ask me if I had a sweetheart when I left for overseas. I'll say I did and she was right here, waiting for me to come back; and if she should read this I'll leave it up to her. But my fellow did not have one as good as mine and you couldn't give me the other half of the world with a force around it for her. When I say "every fellow did not have one like mine" I mean that some fellows did not have a girl's friend, some fellows did not have a girl's friend, some fellows did not have a girl's friend.

This friend of mine left his girl with every assurance that she would wait for him to come home. Well, he was talked about her to me, as we were tented and generally were together. She wrote him nice letters and told him that she was waiting for him to come home. Anyhow, the last letter I received from her said she had been a few weeks after I did. He arrived at his home one afternoon and decided to go over at once and see his girl. It seems that he had a letter from her. She had been married as he was crossing the ocean to see if he could find her. He does not say all the details just because of his disappointment, but says he may find the right one some time.

Take my advice and do not condemn a class of men for the faults of one. Just because your friend did not turn out what you wish you no reason to say that all marines are alike.

HEAR THE New Edison "The Phonograph With a Soul" The Cheney "Its Tone Is Nature's Own" Come to our attractive homelike salesroom, or private demonstration given in your home. W. C. STIVER CO. 64 W. Chelten Ave. OPEN EVENINGS Phone: Gtn. 5595

THE SCIENTIFIC REMOVAL OF SUPERFLUOUS HAIR. As Stationary Multiple Electric Needle, endorsed by physicians as the ONLY method which permanently eradicates superfluous hair, is a marvelous appliance working like a number of human hands, steadily and accurately. This method is absolutely painless and leaves the skin in perfect condition, eliminating all danger of scarring. JEAN PINAUD 104 Flanders Bldg. 15th & Walnut Sts.

NO FEAR OF TEACHER SENDING HER HOME BECAUSE KIL-YE IS USED ON HER HEAD. KIL-YE kills the live vermin and positively destroys the eggs or nits that cling to the hair. It is not oily or sticky and is easily applied. KIL-YE does not interfere with the color or growth of the hair. KIL-YE is a household necessity. Don't be ashamed to ask for it.

DESTROYS VERMIN ON CHILDREN'S HEADS. So Near and Yet—SO FAR, unless you particularly ask your dealer for Wilburbuds, the only genuine Chocolate Buds. No other Confection equals these morsels of Solid Vanilla Chocolate. They are wholesome and pure, and entirely free from any substance that might injure the digestion of the young. Safeguard yourself and your children by always asking for the genuine article.

Human," good for you! You have the right idea. Do you speak, write and read Italian, French, German and Latin? I am a son of sunny Italy and only two years in America. You are the girl that I hoped I would find in great numbers in this great country, but you're the first. I have studied the history of the United States of America from the Pilgrim to the present. I have studied the characters of the women and men of the ancient times and of the modern.

The majority of the young men and young women of today seek pleasure only. The impression I felt during my first walk in New York, on the day of my arrival, was of stupor, admiration, but at the same time almost disgust in seeing so many painted dolls. Other strangers will receive the same impression and America will be thought of as a frivolous country. By painted dolls I mean those too-colored faces we see so often. Why should this wonderful country of yours be thought of as a nation where women have no self-respect? Why not try to correct and stop the degrading of the American character? I love America and I am sorry that some day I must leave this great nation and wander to another country and study the people that live there.

Science calls me, for in it is all my joy and comfort. I gave my country almost all and I regret that I was not able to give her all. Sweet and heavenly it is to die as my fatherland. See What "Twenty-one" Thinks. Dear Cynthia—Please publish this answer to J. G. F. Good for Sergeant Amex! He is a real gentleman and has high ideals. I cannot agree at all with J. G. F. on the remark made, "A girl of today makes a steady custom of kissing a boy." I consider it a highly insulting remark to the better living girls. It is girls like herself who make kissing cheap and the class of fellows which they go with do it, too.

Sergeant Amex, fortunately, must still have some of those good and fine ideals of our grandmothers, which, if they still existed, would make us happier and more moral. I would strictly this ideal and am none the less happy than any other girl who thinks it is a part of everyday pleasures of life.

THE JULIET J. Lawler 1126 Walnut St. Next Door to 12th St. SPECIAL SALE Smart Millinery We have taken 200 of our choice models, formerly priced $12.50 to $20.00 and marked them $7.50 to $10.00 For a Special Clearance

Weight Table for Parents: If you do not know standard figures for weight and measurement of children, ask our driver for our free booklet "What Is the Relation to Normal Weight." Or phone the main office—(Bell) Poplar 5505

Supplee-Wills-Jones Philadelphia, Ocean City, Atlantic City, Chester Fresh Milk—Vital Food for Children

© 1919, By H. O. WILBUR & SONS, INC., Phila., Pa. So Near and Yet—SO FAR, unless you particularly ask your dealer for Wilburbuds, the only genuine Chocolate Buds. No other Confection equals these morsels of Solid Vanilla Chocolate. They are wholesome and pure, and entirely free from any substance that might injure the digestion of the young. Safeguard yourself and your children by always asking for the genuine article.

GIRLS WHO WANT TO KNOW HOW THEY CAN MAKE FRIENDS

Will Find It Much Easier if They Start by Being Friendly Themselves Instead of Trying to Wake Friendliness in Others

LONESOME girls so often write to me and ask how they can make friends. "I am so lonely," they say, unhappily, "but somehow I can't seem to make people like me." I wish they could all know a Miss Henderson, and learn her method or recipe for making friends. Miss Henderson is the girl in your office or your neighborhood who is not pretty or striking, or well dressed, or remarkable in any way. But everybody knows her. You may not know just exactly what she does or where she lives or what her name is, but you know her. She is the girl who goes into a neighborhood or an office or a party and immediately, without half trying, creates a large circle of friends.

The secret of her popularity lies in that little phrase, "without half trying." For there is nothing obvious about Miss Henderson's method. She doesn't go through life with an innate smile on her lips. She doesn't start out in the morning with the thought, "Now, I am going to make some friends today," and then spend the day smiling until her jaws ache, treating until her pocketbook gives out, and advertising for friends until they all turn from her in disgust.

People like her because she likes them first, not because she tries to make them like her. She is so busy enjoying them that she hasn't time to bother about whether they like her or not. It wouldn't bother her anyhow, because she has so many friends that she does not have to make new ones. And yet she does make new ones all the time.

It's just this way: Miss Henderson's nature is one of those widespread, sunny, cordial affairs that spread friendship around just as a sunbeam radiates warmth. This kind of a nature does not trust itself upon any one. It simply uses the trade-mark of a cordial smile and a friendly personality and allows other people to seek it out, just as they seek out a sunbeam on a cold day.

IT'S not what you do that gains friends for you. It's what you think. If your attitude toward another girl is "Oh, I wish she would like me!" you are likely to advertise your feelings and become annoying in your attempts to attract her friendship. On the other hand, if you think, "My, I like her," your friendliness will reach out to meet her. There are few people in this world who will not realize that feeling of admiration and, meeting it halfway, will grasp it in the middle, like a rope, and give back the other end, making it doubly strong. So if you want to make friends just be friendly, lonely girls, and somebody who recognizes that trade-mark will see it in you and want to share that friendship with you.

MILK—best food for stunted children. If your child is under-size, under-weight, and under-nourished, more milk will help development. Your doctor will tell you that; also, that milk is Nature's best food—which fact you can prove readily for yourself. Just try this: Weigh your child today. Then allow one quart of milk a day for a month (in addition to the regular diet). And then weigh again. You will be surprised at the improvement and will readily appreciate that milk is a builder of bone and tissue; that it contains all the food elements which the body requires—and some not found in other foods. Remember—Milk will help to bring your child up to normal weight.

Supplee-Wills-Jones Philadelphia, Ocean City, Atlantic City, Chester Fresh Milk—Vital Food for Children

It wouldn't bother her anyhow, because she has so many friends that she does not have to make new ones. And yet she does make new ones all the time.

It's just this way: Miss Henderson's nature is one of those widespread, sunny, cordial affairs that spread friendship around just as a sunbeam radiates warmth. This kind of a nature does not trust itself upon any one. It simply uses the trade-mark of a cordial smile and a friendly personality and allows other people to seek it out, just as they seek out a sunbeam on a cold day.

IT'S not what you do that gains friends for you. It's what you think. If your attitude toward another girl is "Oh, I wish she would like me!" you are likely to advertise your feelings and become annoying in your attempts to attract her friendship. On the other hand, if you think, "My, I like her," your friendliness will reach out to meet her. There are few people in this world who will not realize that feeling of admiration and, meeting it halfway, will grasp it in the middle, like a rope, and give back the other end, making it doubly strong. So if you want to make friends just be friendly, lonely girls, and somebody who recognizes that trade-mark will see it in you and want to share that friendship with you.

MILK—best food for stunted children. If your child is under-size, under-weight, and under-nourished, more milk will help development. Your doctor will tell you that; also, that milk is Nature's best food—which fact you can prove readily for yourself. Just try this: Weigh your child today. Then allow one quart of milk a day for a month (in addition to the regular diet). And then weigh again. You will be surprised at the improvement and will readily appreciate that milk is a builder of bone and tissue; that it contains all the food elements which the body requires—and some not found in other foods. Remember—Milk will help to bring your child up to normal weight.

Supplee-Wills-Jones Philadelphia, Ocean City, Atlantic City, Chester Fresh Milk—Vital Food for Children

© 1919, By H. O. WILBUR & SONS, INC., Phila., Pa. So Near and Yet—SO FAR, unless you particularly ask your dealer for Wilburbuds, the only genuine Chocolate Buds. No other Confection equals these morsels of Solid Vanilla Chocolate. They are wholesome and pure, and entirely free from any substance that might injure the digestion of the young. Safeguard yourself and your children by always asking for the genuine article.