PRETTY WEDDING IN RIDLEY PARK

Another Marriage of Interest This Evening in Adelphia Hotel

The wedding of Miss Helen Garzigues, daughter of Mr. Thomas Ogilvy Haydock, and Mr. Samuel Penchy Ryland, of Richmond, Va., took place last evening at Christ Episcopal Church, Ridley Park.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Francis M. Taitt, rector of St. Paul's Church, Chester, assisted by the Rev. Charles Eder, rector of Christ Church, Ridley Park. The bride was attired in a white satin gown and tulle veil, carrying double white lilies, Sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley.

She was given in marriage by her father, and assisted by her sister, Miss Emily G. Haydock, as maid of honor, who wore a salmon-pink taffeta gown, veiled with tulle, caught with silver ribbons, and a brown tulle hat, and carried white lilies, lavender sweetpeas and Ward roses. The six bridesmaids were Miss Martha May Reynolds, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; Mrs. Thomas Ogilvy Haydock, Jr., of Ridley Park; Miss Mary E. Weldon, of Philadelphia; Miss Barbara M. Loring, of New York; Miss Mildred Seeler, of Philadelphia; and Mrs. J. Milton Hagy, of Lansdowne.

Their gowns were of turquoise blue taffeta with rose quillings, and they wore tulle hats and carried bouquets of white lilies, bronze snapdragons and pink roses. Little Miss Betty Haydock was flower girl. Her frock was pale pink organdy with an old blue sash caught with forget-me-nots. She carried a basket filled with white lilies and Sweetheart roses.

Mr. Ryland had his brother, John Ryland, of Richmond, Va., as best man, and Mr. Robert L. Saville, Mr. Richard E. Cunningham, Mr. Robert H. Broadbent, Mr. James Hage Ricks, of Richmond, Va.; Mr. Roger Haydock, of Ridley Park; and Mr. Frederick F. Chapman, of Wilmington, Del., as ushers. A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's father, 305 Trainor street, Ridley Park, after which the bride and bridegroom left for an extended trip through the South. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Ryland will live at 832 West Grace street, Richmond, Va., where they will be at home after February 1.
