

NORTHEAST HIGH GRADUATES 107

Diplomas Are Awarded by Dr. G. F. Stradling at Commencement Today

MANY RECEIVE AWARDS

Diplomas to 107 graduates were awarded at the commencement exercises of the Northeast High School, which was held in the auditorium of the William Penn High School, Fifteenth and Mount Vernon streets, this afternoon.

Dr. George F. Stradling, head of the department of science, presented the diplomas and Charles H. Edmunds, of the Board of Education addressed the graduates.

Ralph A. Krauss was salutatorian and Sarkes Tarzian, valedictorian. Numerous prizes and medals were presented to especially meritorious graduates by Frank A. Belford, class of '05, who is associate secretary of the Alumni Association.

A large number of awards of medals and scholarships were made. The recipients of these honors were as follows:

Alumni medal to the highest honor man of the class, to Sarkes Tarzian. Isaac A. Sheppard medals for diligence and hard work—gold medal to Harry Hershey Berntheisel, silver medal to George Carl Bauer.

Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute gold medal for proficiency in mathematics and physics, to Ralph A. Krauss.

Alliance Française bronze medal for proficiency in French and literature, to Gordon R. Clark.

The five honor graduates are Tarzian, Theodore H. Nitsche, John Walter Feeny, Krauss and Louis G. Dietz.

The four men recommended for a Simon Muhr scholarship are: Howard Teaf, Elihu J. Hurwitz, Tarzian and Nitsche.

Other scholarship recommendations were: To the Philadelphia School of Pharmacy, Oscar E. Hysoe; to Temple University, Krauss, Dietz and Raymond G. Wheatcroft; to the School of Industrial Arts, Alfred B. Bowen and William Howard Schumacher; to Wesleyan College, John W. Feeny; to the College of the City of New York, given by the Philadelphia Club of the Alumni of New York University, William E. Gross; Ella scholarships, Feeny and Ralph A. Kinckiner.

The graduates are:

Academic class—Charles Loring Ammetti, Harry Hershey Berntheisel, David Marshall Brooks, Jordan Hudson Clark, Roy Leonard Cook, Louis Dietz, John Walter Feeny, Lester Leon Freedman, John Ralph Gilbert, Wallace George Gendron, Joseph Hall, John Haver, Albert Frederick Hauptberger, William Henry Hopkins, Henry Knorr, Ralph A. Krauss, Edward G. W. Long, Gordon McDaniel, Joseph Mercer, Eugene Newman, Michael Verbon, Clinton Nickelson, David Rensbium, Felix Simon, Albert Frederick Spindelmann, George Hunter Steiner, Benjamin Wagner, Glenn S. Warner, Emanuel Milton Weinberger, Stephen Weisling and Joseph Wynn, Jr.

Manual training course—James G. Anderson, Leon Ames, John Bauman, Carl Beattentumler, George Bickler, Morris Harrison Brown, George Charles, Charles Louis Burghauer, Joseph Cohen, H. Ericson, Alonzo Egan, Arthur Thompson Lee, George Francis Leopold, Howard Wiestling Lewis, Frederick Albert Long, John H. Lutz, Wilbur J. Lutz, Carl H. Martin, Jerome Zlotter Martin, Herbert James Meyer, Roy A. North, Thomas J. O'Brien, David Philip Patterson, Herbert Shirley Ely, Wilson M. Isaac, Stephen D. Green, Jr., William Hilbert, Perry Morton Hood, Donald Keegan Howe, J. Allan Peeling, J. L. Jacobs, Jr., Marshall James W. Har-ol, Kelly, Carl Frederick Krueger, Ernest Otto Kohn, Jr., Ernst Leogger, Max Krueger, Milton Henry Rimschneider, Emil Paul Scheidt, Carl H. Schell, Leonard S. Charles Schmidt, William Howard Schumacher, Joseph Edwin Tobias, George Parrett Tolley, Paul Edward Warren, Harry A. Wickert, Harold George Wilson, John Nages, Charles Commercial course—Raymond, Alburger, Harold George Armstrong, John Ames, George W. Hood, Jr., Irvin Nelson Brown, J. Arthur Burns, Jr., Howard Eugene De-Young, Howard Franklin Ferriter, Jacob Emory Giovanni, Charles L. E. Hub-Emory, James Joseph Loughlin, Benjamin Margolis, George William Martin, George March, Maurice Joseph, John Maxwell, Theodore H. Nitsche, Frank C. Scherer, August P. Schuch, Lee Seidman, Samuel M. Shanks, W. Lewis Spielberger, Alvin C. Stockhouse, Henry S. Trout, George E. Turt, Wesley Dicks Turner, Adam F. Yung.

MECHANIC ARTS COURSE
William H. Bender, Louis Blumenfeld, Frank Brumetthal, Ella L. Cohen, William Macbrant Cole, Solomon W. Diamond, Calvin Henry Dimer, Roman Egan, Louis Gilbert, Michael Goldberger, Israel M. Green, John Hupp, Abraham L. Knefelke, Harry D. Kutz, Joseph A. O'Donoghue, Henry L. Richter, Carl Jacob Scholtz, Nathan Shapiro, Parker Shook, Joseph J. Sprindler, Anthony Varallo.

COMMERCIAL COURSE
Harold Beier, Jacob Buak, George Aime Busonello, William Griffin Chambers, Harry S. Cohen, Miriam Dabrowski, Charles B. Degan, Theodore R. Herrmann, Jacob Harwitz, Sidney H. Katz, George A. Miller, Louis Moskowitz, Joseph A. O'Donoghue, Henry L. Richter, Carl Jacob Scholtz, Nathan Shapiro, Parker Shook, Joseph J. Sprindler, Anthony Varallo.

ACADEMIC COURSE
Nathaniel Ablesse, Herman P. Abramson, Louis Aare, Joseph Louis Bahitsky, Isaac Isaac, Henry Baker, Dominick Battaglini, Harry N. Baum, Herman Cohen, Robert D. Casanova, J. George G. Dangelio, Philip Dorfman, Albert Alfred Druecker, Louis Elkins, Louis Finkler, Isidor Forman, Nathan Goodman, Benjamin Glaser, Sidney Goodman, Benjamin E. Goodman, Elmer H. Goren, Benjamin Greenberg, Selig Green, Frank P. Iwanoff, Jr., Frank Kishner, Leon Kohn, Joseph A. Kravitz, Max Krachman, Albert J. Langerman, William Francis Leopold, Jr., Samuel J. Lurie, Max H. Mackay, Louis H. Marcellis, Herman Markowitz, Maurice H. Noff, Morris L. Packer, Lewis Pomeroy, Stephen J. Pressman, Philip S. Resnikoff, Samuel D. Reynolds, Leon Sack, Morris S. Saracov, Samuel Schwartzman, Richard S. Seidman, Samuel Michael Segal, Nathan Silver, Harry Simon, Alexander S. Sussman, Morris W. Stein, William O. Stein, Frank Virgil Suttland, Leonard P. Tort, Henry Weiss, Arthur Westman.

Girl Scout Field Day
On Saturday afternoon, at Belmont Plateau, Fairmount Park, the Girl Scouts of Philadelphia will hold their annual field day meet. For weeks past the troops have been getting in trim for this event. There are eight districts of Girl Scouts in the city, each comprising from ten to fifty troops. These have met at district tryouts and the troop best fitted to stand the test for first place in the events of the scout craft. There will be 2000 Girl Scouts to pass the review stand, just before the competitions start.

36 KENSINGTON GRADS
Students Get Diplomas at Commencement Fete Tonight
Kensington High School will graduate thirty-six members of the senior class at the commencement exercises in the auditorium of the school, Amber and Cumberland streets, at 8 o'clock this evening.

The address to the graduates will be made by Charles H. Edmunds, of the Board of Public Education, and the diplomas will be awarded by Beulah A. Feinmore, principal of the school. Essays on the different problems of the day will be delivered by Meriam L. Spade, Florence H. Schwartz, C. Kathryn DeSchlager, Gladys Gwynn and Belle G. Yates are:

ACADEMIC COURSE
Janice E. Craig, Dorothy H. Earley, Lillian S. Fahrman, Gladys Gwynn, Laura Estelle Hausner, Julia Myrtle Ker, Catharine Kretzschmar, Mary E. Nuzum, Ethel S. Reisman, Dorothy Mae Schaaf, Florence H. Schwartz, Meriam Leona Spade, Helen M. Lousie, Emily Elizabeth Waterfield.

HOME ECONOMICS COURSE
Helen Marie DeWitt, Marie Esther Kavel, May Arnes Lotz, Elizabeth A. McCann, Lillie Lorraine Rubin.

COMMERCIAL COURSE
Edith May Bertelot, Jennie K. Bing, Lillian Charisstein, Ruth Duffell, Louise J. Jeanner, Anna Kaufman, Elizabeth M. Jarawick, Ellen McCormick, Estelle Haras, Julia Fried Martin, C. Kathryn DeSchlager, Mary L. Ferrin, Rosalyn Balm, Emily Elizabeth Waterfield, Helen E. Weber.

RESERVE RANSLEY DECISION
Judges to Hand Down Opinion on Congressional Contest Later
Decision on the contest of the nomination of Harry C. Ransley, Vire leader, for Congress from the Third congressional district, succeeding Mayor Moore, was received by Judges Shoemaker and Patterson today.

Charles Deany, the administration candidate who was defeated, contested the election. William A. Carr, counsel for Mr. Ransley, claimed that the Quarter Sessions Court, as represented by the two judges, had no jurisdiction over the case.

Allen S. Morgan, for Mr. Deany, claimed that under the election act of 1871 the position of congressman became a state office and as such the local court had jurisdiction. The decision is expected within a few days. The hearing was held in City Hall.

SO. PHILA. HIGH EXERCISES
98 to Get Diplomas Tonight.
Awards to Be Made
The South Philadelphia High School for Boys will give diplomas to ninety-four members of the graduating class at the annual commencement exercises in the auditorium of the school this evening at 8 o'clock.

Lewis M. Keim, of the faculty of the school, will deliver the invocation, and Harold Baker, of the senior class, will give the salutatory address. The valedictory will be by William H. Bender, and Henry Reike will deliver an oration on "National Extravagance." Medals, honors, scholarships and class gifts also will be presented at this time.

The officers of the graduating class are: Albert Alfred Druecker, president; Frank Virgil Suttland, vice president; Louis Agre, treasurer, and Samuel J. Liechin, secretary.

Harold Baker will act as poet. Leader Forman as historian and Herman Cohen and Samuel Michael Segal as prophets at the class day exercises.

The graduates are:

MECHANIC ARTS COURSE
William H. Bender, Louis Blumenfeld, Frank Brumetthal, Ella L. Cohen, William Macbrant Cole, Solomon W. Diamond, Calvin Henry Dimer, Roman Egan, Louis Gilbert, Michael Goldberger, Israel M. Green, John Hupp, Abraham L. Knefelke, Harry D. Kutz, Joseph A. O'Donoghue, Henry L. Richter, Carl Jacob Scholtz, Nathan Shapiro, Parker Shook, Joseph J. Sprindler, Anthony Varallo.

COMMERCIAL COURSE
Harold Beier, Jacob Buak, George Aime Busonello, William Griffin Chambers, Harry S. Cohen, Miriam Dabrowski, Charles B. Degan, Theodore R. Herrmann, Jacob Harwitz, Sidney H. Katz, George A. Miller, Louis Moskowitz, Joseph A. O'Donoghue, Henry L. Richter, Carl Jacob Scholtz, Nathan Shapiro, Parker Shook, Joseph J. Sprindler, Anthony Varallo.

ACADEMIC COURSE
Nathaniel Ablesse, Herman P. Abramson, Louis Aare, Joseph Louis Bahitsky, Isaac Isaac, Henry Baker, Dominick Battaglini, Harry N. Baum, Herman Cohen, Robert D. Casanova, J. George G. Dangelio, Philip Dorfman, Albert Alfred Druecker, Louis Elkins, Louis Finkler, Isidor Forman, Nathan Goodman, Benjamin Glaser, Sidney Goodman, Benjamin E. Goodman, Elmer H. Goren, Benjamin Greenberg, Selig Green, Frank P. Iwanoff, Jr., Frank Kishner, Leon Kohn, Joseph A. Kravitz, Max Krachman, Albert J. Langerman, William Francis Leopold, Jr., Samuel J. Lurie, Max H. Mackay, Louis H. Marcellis, Herman Markowitz, Maurice H. Noff, Morris L. Packer, Lewis Pomeroy, Stephen J. Pressman, Philip S. Resnikoff, Samuel D. Reynolds, Leon Sack, Morris S. Saracov, Samuel Schwartzman, Richard S. Seidman, Samuel Michael Segal, Nathan Silver, Harry Simon, Alexander S. Sussman, Morris W. Stein, William O. Stein, Frank Virgil Suttland, Leonard P. Tort, Henry Weiss, Arthur Westman.

Girl Scout Field Day
On Saturday afternoon, at Belmont Plateau, Fairmount Park, the Girl Scouts of Philadelphia will hold their annual field day meet. For weeks past the troops have been getting in trim for this event. There are eight districts of Girl Scouts in the city, each comprising from ten to fifty troops. These have met at district tryouts and the troop best fitted to stand the test for first place in the events of the scout craft. There will be 2000 Girl Scouts to pass the review stand, just before the competitions start.

36 KENSINGTON GRADS
Students Get Diplomas at Commencement Fete Tonight
Kensington High School will graduate thirty-six members of the senior class at the commencement exercises in the auditorium of the school, Amber and Cumberland streets, at 8 o'clock this evening.

The address to the graduates will be made by Charles H. Edmunds, of the Board of Public Education, and the diplomas will be awarded by Beulah A. Feinmore, principal of the school. Essays on the different problems of the day will be delivered by Meriam L. Spade, Florence H. Schwartz, C. Kathryn DeSchlager, Gladys Gwynn and Belle G. Yates are:

ACADEMIC COURSE
Janice E. Craig, Dorothy H. Earley, Lillian S. Fahrman, Gladys Gwynn, Laura Estelle Hausner, Julia Myrtle Ker, Catharine Kretzschmar, Mary E. Nuzum, Ethel S. Reisman, Dorothy Mae Schaaf, Florence H. Schwartz, Meriam Leona Spade, Helen M. Lousie, Emily Elizabeth Waterfield.

HOME ECONOMICS COURSE
Helen Marie DeWitt, Marie Esther Kavel, May Arnes Lotz, Elizabeth A. McCann, Lillie Lorraine Rubin.

COMMERCIAL COURSE
Edith May Bertelot, Jennie K. Bing, Lillian Charisstein, Ruth Duffell, Louise J. Jeanner, Anna Kaufman, Elizabeth M. Jarawick, Ellen McCormick, Estelle Haras, Julia Fried Martin, C. Kathryn DeSchlager, Mary L. Ferrin, Rosalyn Balm, Emily Elizabeth Waterfield, Helen E. Weber.

RESERVE RANSLEY DECISION
Judges to Hand Down Opinion on Congressional Contest Later
Decision on the contest of the nomination of Harry C. Ransley, Vire leader, for Congress from the Third congressional district, succeeding Mayor Moore, was received by Judges Shoemaker and Patterson today.

Charles Deany, the administration candidate who was defeated, contested the election. William A. Carr, counsel for Mr. Ransley, claimed that the Quarter Sessions Court, as represented by the two judges, had no jurisdiction over the case.

Allen S. Morgan, for Mr. Deany, claimed that under the election act of 1871 the position of congressman became a state office and as such the local court had jurisdiction. The decision is expected within a few days. The hearing was held in City Hall.

SO. PHILA. HIGH EXERCISES
98 to Get Diplomas Tonight.
Awards to Be Made
The South Philadelphia High School for Boys will give diplomas to ninety-four members of the graduating class at the annual commencement exercises in the auditorium of the school this evening at 8 o'clock.

Lewis M. Keim, of the faculty of the school, will deliver the invocation, and Harold Baker, of the senior class, will give the salutatory address. The valedictory will be by William H. Bender, and Henry Reike will deliver an oration on "National Extravagance." Medals, honors, scholarships and class gifts also will be presented at this time.

The officers of the graduating class are: Albert Alfred Druecker, president; Frank Virgil Suttland, vice president; Louis Agre, treasurer, and Samuel J. Liechin, secretary.

Harold Baker will act as poet. Leader Forman as historian and Herman Cohen and Samuel Michael Segal as prophets at the class day exercises.

The graduates are:

MECHANIC ARTS COURSE
William H. Bender, Louis Blumenfeld, Frank Brumetthal, Ella L. Cohen, William Macbrant Cole, Solomon W. Diamond, Calvin Henry Dimer, Roman Egan, Louis Gilbert, Michael Goldberger, Israel M. Green, John Hupp, Abraham L. Knefelke, Harry D. Kutz, Joseph A. O'Donoghue, Henry L. Richter, Carl Jacob Scholtz, Nathan Shapiro, Parker Shook, Joseph J. Sprindler, Anthony Varallo.

COMMERCIAL COURSE
Harold Beier, Jacob Buak, George Aime Busonello, William Griffin Chambers, Harry S. Cohen, Miriam Dabrowski, Charles B. Degan, Theodore R. Herrmann, Jacob Harwitz, Sidney H. Katz, George A. Miller, Louis Moskowitz, Joseph A. O'Donoghue, Henry L. Richter, Carl Jacob Scholtz, Nathan Shapiro, Parker Shook, Joseph J. Sprindler, Anthony Varallo.

ACADEMIC COURSE
Nathaniel Ablesse, Herman P. Abramson, Louis Aare, Joseph Louis Bahitsky, Isaac Isaac, Henry Baker, Dominick Battaglini, Harry N. Baum, Herman Cohen, Robert D. Casanova, J. George G. Dangelio, Philip Dorfman, Albert Alfred Druecker, Louis Elkins, Louis Finkler, Isidor Forman, Nathan Goodman, Benjamin Glaser, Sidney Goodman, Benjamin E. Goodman, Elmer H. Goren, Benjamin Greenberg, Selig Green, Frank P. Iwanoff, Jr., Frank Kishner, Leon Kohn, Joseph A. Kravitz, Max Krachman, Albert J. Langerman, William Francis Leopold, Jr., Samuel J. Lurie, Max H. Mackay, Louis H. Marcellis, Herman Markowitz, Maurice H. Noff, Morris L. Packer, Lewis Pomeroy, Stephen J. Pressman, Philip S. Resnikoff, Samuel D. Reynolds, Leon Sack, Morris S. Saracov, Samuel Schwartzman, Richard S. Seidman, Samuel Michael Segal, Nathan Silver, Harry Simon, Alexander S. Sussman, Morris W. Stein, William O. Stein, Frank Virgil Suttland, Leonard P. Tort, Henry Weiss, Arthur Westman.

Girl Scout Field Day
On Saturday afternoon, at Belmont Plateau, Fairmount Park, the Girl Scouts of Philadelphia will hold their annual field day meet. For weeks past the troops have been getting in trim for this event. There are eight districts of Girl Scouts in the city, each comprising from ten to fifty troops. These have met at district tryouts and the troop best fitted to stand the test for first place in the events of the scout craft. There will be 2000 Girl Scouts to pass the review stand, just before the competitions start.

36 KENSINGTON GRADS
Students Get Diplomas at Commencement Fete Tonight
Kensington High School will graduate thirty-six members of the senior class at the commencement exercises in the auditorium of the school, Amber and Cumberland streets, at 8 o'clock this evening.

The address to the graduates will be made by Charles H. Edmunds, of the Board of Public Education, and the diplomas will be awarded by Beulah A. Feinmore, principal of the school. Essays on the different problems of the day will be delivered by Meriam L. Spade, Florence H. Schwartz, C. Kathryn DeSchlager, Gladys Gwynn and Belle G. Yates are:

ACADEMIC COURSE
Janice E. Craig, Dorothy H. Earley, Lillian S. Fahrman, Gladys Gwynn, Laura Estelle Hausner, Julia Myrtle Ker, Catharine Kretzschmar, Mary E. Nuzum, Ethel S. Reisman, Dorothy Mae Schaaf, Florence H. Schwartz, Meriam Leona Spade, Helen M. Lousie, Emily Elizabeth Waterfield.

HOME ECONOMICS COURSE
Helen Marie DeWitt, Marie Esther Kavel, May Arnes Lotz, Elizabeth A. McCann, Lillie Lorraine Rubin.

COMMERCIAL COURSE
Edith May Bertelot, Jennie K. Bing, Lillian Charisstein, Ruth Duffell, Louise J. Jeanner, Anna Kaufman, Elizabeth M. Jarawick, Ellen McCormick, Estelle Haras, Julia Fried Martin, C. Kathryn DeSchlager, Mary L. Ferrin, Rosalyn Balm, Emily Elizabeth Waterfield, Helen E. Weber.

RESERVE RANSLEY DECISION
Judges to Hand Down Opinion on Congressional Contest Later
Decision on the contest of the nomination of Harry C. Ransley, Vire leader, for Congress from the Third congressional district, succeeding Mayor Moore, was received by Judges Shoemaker and Patterson today.

Charles Deany, the administration candidate who was defeated, contested the election. William A. Carr, counsel for Mr. Ransley, claimed that the Quarter Sessions Court, as represented by the two judges, had no jurisdiction over the case.

Allen S. Morgan, for Mr. Deany, claimed that under the election act of 1871 the position of congressman became a state office and as such the local court had jurisdiction. The decision is expected within a few days. The hearing was held in City Hall.

SO. PHILA. HIGH EXERCISES
98 to Get Diplomas Tonight.
Awards to Be Made
The South Philadelphia High School for Boys will give diplomas to ninety-four members of the graduating class at the annual commencement exercises in the auditorium of the school this evening at 8 o'clock.

Lewis M. Keim, of the faculty of the school, will deliver the invocation, and Harold Baker, of the senior class, will give the salutatory address. The valedictory will be by William H. Bender, and Henry Reike will deliver an oration on "National Extravagance." Medals, honors, scholarships and class gifts also will be presented at this time.

The officers of the graduating class are: Albert Alfred Druecker, president; Frank Virgil Suttland, vice president; Louis Agre, treasurer, and Samuel J. Liechin, secretary.

Harold Baker will act as poet. Leader Forman as historian and Herman Cohen and Samuel Michael Segal as prophets at the class day exercises.

The graduates are:

MECHANIC ARTS COURSE
William H. Bender, Louis Blumenfeld, Frank Brumetthal, Ella L. Cohen, William Macbrant Cole, Solomon W. Diamond, Calvin Henry Dimer, Roman Egan, Louis Gilbert, Michael Goldberger, Israel M. Green, John Hupp, Abraham L. Knefelke, Harry D. Kutz, Joseph A. O'Donoghue, Henry L. Richter, Carl Jacob Scholtz, Nathan Shapiro, Parker Shook, Joseph J. Sprindler, Anthony Varallo.

COMMERCIAL COURSE
Harold Beier, Jacob Buak, George Aime Busonello, William Griffin Chambers, Harry S. Cohen, Miriam Dabrowski, Charles B. Degan, Theodore R. Herrmann, Jacob Harwitz, Sidney H. Katz, George A. Miller, Louis Moskowitz, Joseph A. O'Donoghue, Henry L. Richter, Carl Jacob Scholtz, Nathan Shapiro, Parker Shook, Joseph J. Sprindler, Anthony Varallo.

ACADEMIC COURSE
Nathaniel Ablesse, Herman P. Abramson, Louis Aare, Joseph Louis Bahitsky, Isaac Isaac, Henry Baker, Dominick Battaglini, Harry N. Baum, Herman Cohen, Robert D. Casanova, J. George G. Dangelio, Philip Dorfman, Albert Alfred Druecker, Louis Elkins, Louis Finkler, Isidor Forman, Nathan Goodman, Benjamin Glaser, Sidney Goodman, Benjamin E. Goodman, Elmer H. Goren, Benjamin Greenberg, Selig Green, Frank P. Iwanoff, Jr., Frank Kishner, Leon Kohn, Joseph A. Kravitz, Max Krachman, Albert J. Langerman, William Francis Leopold, Jr., Samuel J. Lurie, Max H. Mackay, Louis H. Marcellis, Herman Markowitz, Maurice H. Noff, Morris L. Packer, Lewis Pomeroy, Stephen J. Pressman, Philip S. Resnikoff, Samuel D. Reynolds, Leon Sack, Morris S. Saracov, Samuel Schwartzman, Richard S. Seidman, Samuel Michael Segal, Nathan Silver, Harry Simon, Alexander S. Sussman, Morris W. Stein, William O. Stein, Frank Virgil Suttland, Leonard P. Tort, Henry Weiss, Arthur Westman.

Girl Scout Field Day
On Saturday afternoon, at Belmont Plateau, Fairmount Park, the Girl Scouts of Philadelphia will hold their annual field day meet. For weeks past the troops have been getting in trim for this event. There are eight districts of Girl Scouts in the city, each comprising from ten to fifty troops. These have met at district tryouts and the troop best fitted to stand the test for first place in the events of the scout craft. There will be 2000 Girl Scouts to pass the review stand, just before the competitions start.

36 KENSINGTON GRADS
Students Get Diplomas at Commencement Fete Tonight
Kensington High School will graduate thirty-six members of the senior class at the commencement exercises in the auditorium of the school, Amber and Cumberland streets, at 8 o'clock this evening.

The address to the graduates will be made by Charles H. Edmunds, of the Board of Public Education, and the diplomas will be awarded by Beulah A. Feinmore, principal of the school. Essays on the different problems of the day will be delivered by Meriam L. Spade, Florence H. Schwartz, C. Kathryn DeSchlager, Gladys Gwynn and Belle G. Yates are:

ACADEMIC COURSE
Janice E. Craig, Dorothy H. Earley, Lillian S. Fahrman, Gladys Gwynn, Laura Estelle Hausner, Julia Myrtle Ker, Catharine Kretzschmar, Mary E. Nuzum, Ethel S. Reisman, Dorothy Mae Schaaf, Florence H. Schwartz, Meriam Leona Spade, Helen M. Lousie, Emily Elizabeth Waterfield.

HOME ECONOMICS COURSE
Helen Marie DeWitt, Marie Esther Kavel, May Arnes Lotz, Elizabeth A. McCann, Lillie Lorraine Rubin.

COMMERCIAL COURSE
Edith May Bertelot, Jennie K. Bing, Lillian Charisstein, Ruth Duffell, Louise J. Jeanner, Anna Kaufman, Elizabeth M. Jarawick, Ellen McCormick, Estelle Haras, Julia Fried Martin, C. Kathryn DeSchlager, Mary L. Ferrin, Rosalyn Balm, Emily Elizabeth Waterfield, Helen E. Weber.

RESERVE RANSLEY DECISION
Judges to Hand Down Opinion on Congressional Contest Later
Decision on the contest of the nomination of Harry C. Ransley, Vire leader, for Congress from the Third congressional district, succeeding Mayor Moore, was received by Judges Shoemaker and Patterson today.

Charles Deany, the administration candidate who was defeated, contested the election. William A. Carr, counsel for Mr. Ransley, claimed that the Quarter Sessions Court, as represented by the two judges, had no jurisdiction over the case.

Allen S. Morgan, for Mr. Deany, claimed that under the election act of 1871 the position of congressman became a state office and as such the local court had jurisdiction. The decision is expected within a few days. The hearing was held in City Hall.

SO. PHILA. HIGH EXERCISES
98 to Get Diplomas Tonight.
Awards to Be Made
The South Philadelphia High School for Boys will give diplomas to ninety-four members of the graduating class at the annual commencement exercises in the auditorium of the school this evening at 8 o'clock.

Lewis M. Keim, of the faculty of the school, will deliver the invocation, and Harold Baker, of the senior class, will give the salutatory address. The valedictory will be by William H. Bender, and Henry Reike will deliver an oration on "National Extravagance." Medals, honors, scholarships and class gifts also will be presented at this time.

The officers of the graduating class are: Albert Alfred Druecker, president; Frank Virgil Suttland, vice president; Louis Agre, treasurer, and Samuel J. Liechin, secretary.

Harold Baker will act as poet. Leader Forman as historian and Herman Cohen and Samuel Michael Segal as prophets at the class day exercises.

The graduates are:

MECHANIC ARTS COURSE
William H. Bender, Louis Blumenfeld, Frank Brumetthal, Ella L. Cohen, William Macbrant Cole, Solomon W. Diamond, Calvin Henry Dimer, Roman Egan, Louis Gilbert, Michael Goldberger, Israel M. Green, John Hupp, Abraham L. Knefelke, Harry D. Kutz, Joseph A. O'Donoghue, Henry L. Richter, Carl Jacob Scholtz, Nathan Shapiro, Parker Shook, Joseph J. Sprindler, Anthony Varallo.

COMMERCIAL COURSE
Harold Beier, Jacob Buak, George Aime Busonello, William Griffin Chambers, Harry S. Cohen, Miriam Dabrowski, Charles B. Degan, Theodore R. Herrmann, Jacob Harwitz, Sidney H. Katz, George A. Miller, Louis Moskowitz, Joseph A. O'Donoghue, Henry L. Richter, Carl Jacob Scholtz, Nathan Shapiro, Parker Shook, Joseph J. Sprindler, Anthony Varallo.

ACADEMIC COURSE
Nathaniel Ablesse, Herman P. Abramson, Louis Aare, Joseph Louis Bahitsky, Isaac Isaac, Henry Baker, Dominick Battaglini, Harry N. Baum, Herman Cohen, Robert D. Casanova, J. George G. Dangelio, Philip Dorfman, Albert Alfred Druecker, Louis Elkins, Louis Finkler, Isidor Forman, Nathan Goodman, Benjamin Glaser, Sidney Goodman, Benjamin E. Goodman, Elmer H. Goren, Benjamin Greenberg, Selig Green, Frank P. Iwanoff, Jr., Frank Kishner, Leon Kohn, Joseph A. Kravitz, Max Krachman, Albert J. Langerman, William Francis Leopold, Jr., Samuel J. Lurie, Max H. Mackay, Louis H. Marcellis, Herman Markowitz, Maurice H. Noff, Morris L. Packer, Lewis Pomeroy, Stephen J. Pressman, Philip S. Resnikoff, Samuel D. Reynolds, Leon Sack, Morris S. Saracov, Samuel Schwartzman, Richard S. Seidman, Samuel Michael Segal, Nathan Silver, Harry Simon, Alexander S. Sussman, Morris W. Stein, William O. Stein, Frank Virgil Suttland, Leonard P. Tort, Henry Weiss, Arthur Westman.

Girl Scout Field Day
On Saturday afternoon, at Belmont Plateau, Fairmount Park, the Girl Scouts of Philadelphia will hold their annual field day meet. For weeks past the troops have been getting in trim for this event. There are eight districts of Girl Scouts in the city, each comprising from ten to fifty troops. These have met at district tryouts and the troop best fitted to stand the test for first place in the events of the scout craft. There will be 2000 Girl Scouts to pass the review stand, just before the competitions start.

36 KENSINGTON GRADS
Students Get Diplomas at Commencement Fete Tonight
Kensington High School will graduate thirty-six members of the senior class at the commencement exercises in the auditorium of the school, Amber and Cumberland streets, at 8 o'clock this evening.

The address to the graduates will be made by Charles H. Edmunds, of the Board of Public Education, and the diplomas will be awarded by Beulah A. Feinmore, principal of the school. Essays on the different problems of the day will be delivered by Meriam L. Spade, Florence H. Schwartz, C. Kathryn DeSchlager, Gladys Gwynn and Belle G. Yates are:

ACADEMIC COURSE
Janice E. Craig, Dorothy H. Earley, Lillian S. Fahrman, Gladys Gwynn, Laura Estelle Hausner, Julia Myrtle Ker, Catharine Kretzschmar, Mary E. Nuzum, Ethel S. Reisman, Dorothy Mae Schaaf, Florence H. Schwartz, Meriam Leona Spade, Helen M. Lousie, Emily Elizabeth Waterfield.

HOME ECONOMICS COURSE
Helen Marie DeWitt, Marie Esther Kavel, May Arnes Lotz, Elizabeth A. McCann, Lillie Lorraine Rubin.

COMMERCIAL COURSE
Edith May Bertelot, Jennie K. Bing, Lillian Charisstein, Ruth Duffell, Louise J. Jeanner, Anna Kaufman, Elizabeth M. Jarawick, Ellen McCormick, Estelle Haras, Julia Fried Martin, C. Kathryn DeSchlager, Mary L. Ferrin, Rosalyn Balm, Emily Elizabeth Waterfield, Helen E. Weber.

RESERVE RANSLEY DECISION
Judges to Hand Down Opinion on Congressional Contest Later
Decision on the contest of the nomination of Harry C. Ransley, Vire leader, for Congress from the Third congressional district, succeeding Mayor Moore, was received by Judges Shoemaker and Patterson today.

Charles Deany, the administration candidate who was defeated, contested the election. William A. Carr, counsel for Mr. Ransley, claimed that the Quarter Sessions Court, as represented by the two judges, had no jurisdiction over the case.

Allen S. Morgan, for Mr. Deany, claimed that under the election act of 1871 the position of congressman became a state office and as such the local court had jurisdiction. The decision is expected within a few days. The hearing was held in City Hall.

SO. PHILA. HIGH EXERCISES
98 to Get Diplomas Tonight.
Awards to Be Made
The South Philadelphia High School for Boys will give diplomas to ninety-four members of the graduating class at the annual commencement exercises in the auditorium of the school this evening at 8 o'clock.

Lewis M. Keim, of the faculty of the school, will deliver the invocation, and Harold Baker, of the senior class, will give the salutatory address. The valedictory will be by William H. Bender, and Henry Reike will deliver an oration on "National Extravagance." Medals, honors, scholarships and class gifts also will be presented at this time.

The officers of the graduating class are: Albert Alfred Druecker, president; Frank Virgil Suttland, vice president; Louis Agre, treasurer, and Samuel J. Liechin, secretary.

Harold Baker will act as poet. Leader Forman as historian and Herman Cohen and Samuel Michael Segal as prophets at the class day exercises.

The graduates are:

MECHANIC ARTS COURSE
William H. Bender, Louis Blumenfeld, Frank Brumetthal, Ella L. Cohen, William Macbrant Cole, Solomon W. Diamond, Calvin Henry Dimer, Roman Egan, Louis Gilbert, Michael Goldberger, Israel M. Green, John Hupp, Abraham L. Knefelke, Harry D. Kutz, Joseph A. O'Donoghue, Henry L. Richter, Carl Jacob Scholtz, Nathan Shapiro, Parker Shook, Joseph J. Sprindler, Anthony Varallo.

COMMERCIAL COURSE
Harold Beier, Jacob Buak, George Aime Busonello, William Griffin Chambers, Harry S. Cohen, Miriam Dabrowski, Charles B. Degan, Theodore R. Herrmann, Jacob Harwitz, Sidney H. Katz, George A. Miller, Louis Moskowitz, Joseph A. O'Donoghue, Henry L. Richter, Carl Jacob Scholtz, Nathan Shapiro, Parker Shook, Joseph J. Sprindler, Anthony Varallo.

ACADEMIC COURSE
Nathaniel Ablesse, Herman P. Abramson, Louis Aare, Joseph Louis Bahitsky, Isaac Isaac, Henry Baker, Dominick Battaglini, Harry N. Baum, Herman Cohen, Robert D. Casanova, J. George G. Dangelio, Philip Dorfman, Albert Alfred Druecker, Louis Elkins, Louis Finkler, Isidor Forman, Nathan Goodman, Benjamin Glaser, Sidney Goodman, Benjamin E. Goodman, Elmer H. Goren, Benjamin Greenberg, Selig Green, Frank P. Iwanoff, Jr., Frank Kishner, Leon Kohn, Joseph A. Kravitz, Max Krachman, Albert J. Langerman, William Francis Leopold, Jr., Samuel J. Lurie, Max H. Mackay, Louis H. Marcellis, Herman Markowitz, Maurice H. Noff, Morris L. Packer, Lewis Pomeroy, Stephen J. Pressman, Philip S. Resnikoff, Samuel D. Reynolds, Leon Sack, Morris S. Saracov, Samuel Schwartzman, Richard S. Seidman, Samuel Michael Segal, Nathan Silver, Harry Simon, Alexander S. Sussman, Morris W. Stein, William O. Stein, Frank Virgil Suttland, Leonard P. Tort, Henry Weiss, Arthur Westman.

Girl Scout Field Day
On Saturday afternoon, at Belmont Plateau, Fairmount Park, the Girl Scouts of Philadelphia will hold their annual field day meet. For weeks past the troops have been getting in trim for this event. There are eight districts of Girl Scouts in the city, each comprising from ten to fifty troops