

PORKERS AS PETS. Girls at the Allentown fair walk about the grounds with two of the pig exhibits. It is not a new fad. Ledger Photo Service.

WATCHING A CLOSE FINISH. A group of spectators at the races, which are proving an interesting part of the Allentown fair. Below is a close finish in one of the events. Ledger Photo Service.

BRITISH AMBASSADOR AT TENNIS. Sir Auckland Geddes was photographed as he played on the courts at Wardman Park, Washington. Keystone-View Co.

GOING ON A VACATION. Blanche Sweet, the movie actress, on the Aquitania, bound for Europe. Central News Photo.

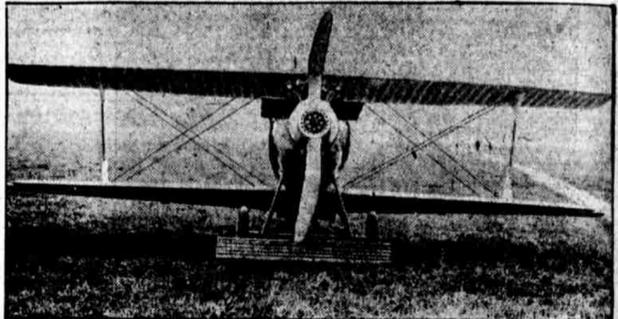

THE WOMEN'S JUSTICE BELL. Cast at Troy, N. Y., in 1915, the bell, that will ring out freedom to women as voters of the land at the celebration to be held on Saturday, has been set in place in Independence Square. At the left it is being lifted from the truck and at the right three registered voters are examining the bell on the stand. Ledger Photo Service.

AT THE CLOSE OF COURT. Mrs. Emma C. Bergdoll (right) leaving the Federal Building yesterday afternoon, following the close of the United States court for the day. She is accompanied by a neighbor. Ledger Photo Service.

DR. JOHN PRESTON SUTHERLAND, dean of the Boston School of Medicine, presided at the International Homeopathic Council at The Hague. Paul Thompson.

THE ARMY'S ENTRY. A Neville scout will represent the United States army in the Gordon Bennett international airplane races, to be held in Paris next week.

AMERICANIZATION GATHERING. Several hundred employees of the Barrett Co., Thirty-sixth street and Grays Ferry road, at noon yesterday, listened to Dr. H. H. Hallowell, of Chicago, talk on Americanization. Ledger Photo Service.

DR. JOHN A. MILLER, who discusses the subatomic theory in an interview on the editorial page. Ledger Photo Service.

REGISTERING AT PENN. This group took the curb for a seat, as they made out their registration cards to enter the Wharton School yesterday. Ledger Photo Service.

THE FIRST STEP. Miss Beatrice Griffith filling in her registration card on the back of another beginner, Miss Olive Fairbanks, at the University of Pennsylvania. Ledger Photo Service.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

OPERATING A MACHINE THAT DRILLS 300,000 holes a day in cutters for meat chopping machines. This work is being done by Thomas Willis, Braddock, N. J., at the Enterprise Manufacturing Co., of Pennsylvania, Third and Dauphin streets. He has been with the firm for thirty-five years. Ledger Photo Service.

BRITISHERS WIN. Vardon and Ray, the golf invaders, defeated Armstrong and Hobens in the exhibition match at the Huntingdon Valley Country Club yesterday. The players are, left to right, Ted Ray, Harry Vardon, Jack Hobens and Dwight Armstrong. Ledger Photo Service.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS BERNADINE THOMAS, 935 North Fallon street, Philadelphia. Ledger Photo Service.