

LEGIONNAIRES GO TO CLEVELAND IN BOX CARS. Philadelphia members of the American Legion have Pennsylvania Railroad box cars "chalked" up as they marked French cars. Ledger Photo Service.

ROBINSON A BUTCHER. When Wilbert Robinson is not piloting the Brooklyn ball team, he is busy in his butcher shop at Baltimore. International.

MISS LILLIUS KENT, sponsor of the steamship Nora, launched at the New York Shipbuilding yard on Saturday. New York Shipbuilding Co.

GETTING A BREATH OF AIR. This fine-looking Italian youngster, waiting for release from Ellis Island, gets away from the crowded condition reported to exist there. International.

IMMIGRANTS WITHOUT QUARTERS. A Dutch mother and her two children snatching a bit of sleep at their improvised quarters on Ellis Island. Hundreds of families are reported to be without sleeping quarters. International.

GIRLS IN NORTHEAST MEET. A field day was held by the Northeast Manufacturers' athletic council and supervised by the Philadelphia Y. M. C. A., at the Disston field on Saturday. At the left, Gerard M. Tamblin is pinning a number on Miss Agnes McCann, of the Miller Lock Co. At the right is Miss Mildred Croft, of Disston's, winner of the hoop-rolling race. Ledger Photo Service.

TRIBUTE TO DEFENDERS OF CIVILIZATION. Atlantic City's pageant proved to be one of the most impressive events held at the seashore city in years. At the left is a float entered in the parade by Chinese merchants. The Atlantic City High School float is on the right. Ledger Photo Service.

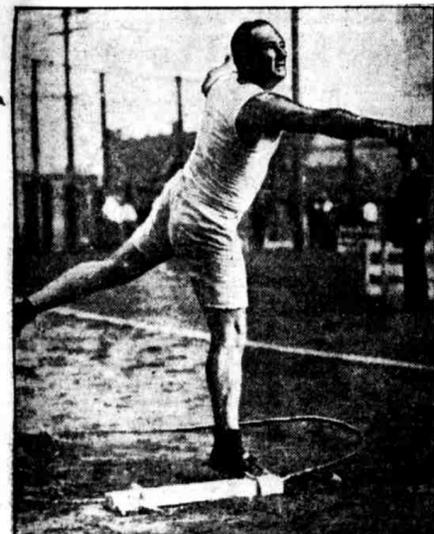

THESE ARE TRYING DAYS. Charles A. Comiskey, president of the Chicago White Sox, who is making efforts to run down rumors of crooked doings in the last world series. Underwood & Underwood.

A SHIPBUILDER. Hasselberg, an all-round athlete of the New York Shipbuilding track and field team, has had a very successful season. Ledger Photo Service.

WINNING THE HIGH JUMP. Harry McGrath, leader of the Curtis Country Club track team, going over at 5 ft. 7 in. Ledger Photo Service.

AT C. Y. M. A. U. MEET. J. Comerford of the Enterprise Athletic Association, who won the shot-put. Ledger Photo Service.

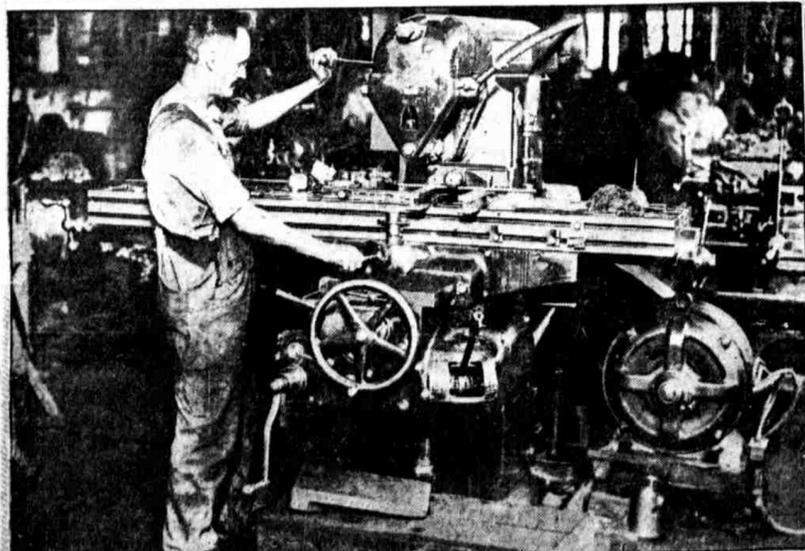

LIFEGUARDS IN PAGEANT. The Atlantic City lifeguards had several floats in the parade on Saturday, chief among them being the one shown above. Ledger Photo Service.

SHIPBUILDERS AND PUBLISHERS MEET. Seven men started in the quarter-mile run at Lawndale, where the New York Shipbuilding athletes competed against the Curtis Country Club yesterday. Ledger Photo Service.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

TURNING 200 CORES A DAY at the American Insulating Machine Co., Fairhill and Huntingdon streets. The operator is Howard Thomas, 227 Plymouth avenue, Oreland, Pa. Ledger Photo Service.

MAYFLOWER CELEBRATION AT PLYMOUTH, ENGLAND. The picture depicts John Robinson, one of the Puritan leaders. Central News Photo.

MRS. JOHN SPRECKELS, JR. is said to have instituted extradition proceedings for William Barrett, husband of the former Miss Alice Gordon Drexel, concerning missing jewelry. International.

AT MORRISTOWN HORSE SHOW. W. S. Blitz, manager of the show (left), and R. C. Vanderbilt, one of the judges. Paul Thompson.

MISS GENEVIEVE MCKEE, 1131 South Wilton street, Philadelphia.