

DISTRIBUTE CHRISTMAS GIFTS. The Rev. Maurice E. Levit, of the Methodist Temple, Fifth and Green streets, passing out toys to the children of the neighborhood. Ledger Photo Service.

PILGRIM PAGEANTRY. Pupils of the Welsh-Calhoun school, Thirteenth and Jackson streets, commemorate the arrival of the Mayflower. At the left Genesora Barbieri in the role of Hobomak. Clara Rugowitz as Elder Brewster, leader of the Pilgrims, proved an interesting character. Ledger Photo Service.

ELIZABETHAN CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL. Given today by the pupils of the Friends' Central School. Emma K. Boehmer appeared as The Fool. Ledger Photo Service.

RUINS OF ST. PATRICK STREET, CORK, IRELAND, as they appeared after the great fire that destroyed the business section of the city. The photograph is among the first received in this country following the conflagration. International.

THE COMMONER AT MARION, OHIO. Wearing a long cape, William Jennings Bryan is at the right, in company with President-elect Harding and Mr. Christian, Harding's secretary. There seems to be a lull in conversation. Radio & Herald.

PARENTS SEE THEIR CHILDREN IN PLAY. Pupils of the Holmes Junior High School, Fifty-fifth and Chestnut streets, presented "Penrod" at the school last night in a pleasing manner. The scholars created their own stage scenery. Left to right: Eugene Chafitz as Sam, Gloria Hugo as Marjorie, Jack Brandt and Elinor Oehellic represented Mr. and Mrs. Schonefeld, parents of Penrod. Ledger Photo Service.

ST. CHARLES SEMINARY. The EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER's flying photographer made this photograph from the Ledger Newsplane on Tuesday afternoon. The seminary buildings are located at Highland and Wynnewood avenues, Overbrook. The houses in the background are just across the street, but are a part of Merion. Ledger Aerial Service.

NEW ORLEANS DOCK FIRE. Nine large ships were destroyed and many small ones damaged in the fire that did over a million dollars' damage. Three were killed. Radio & Herald.

DR. MELVIN P. BURNS, of Methodist Episcopal City Work Department, discusses fields for church work in an interview on the editorial page. Ledger Photo Service.

QUEEN OF THE BELGIANS. Queen Elizabeth is a lover of flowers and takes a keen interest in the hothouse work of her florist. Central News Photo.

E. W. STEEL, OF PHILADELPHIA, soloist of the Cornell University Glee Club, which will give a concert at the New Century Club next week. Ledger Photo Service.

LEADER OF THE WINNERS. William Smith, captain of the field and track team of the Edgar Allan Poe School, proclaimed as city champion. Ledger Photo Service.

JUST A LITTLE "NERVE PRACTICE." Daredevil Frank Clark does this running around the edge of the roof of an eleven-story building to get his nerves in proper condition to do airplane stunts. Underwood & Underwood.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

ASSEMBLING RAILING FIT. Front street. Cutters, boring machines and planes in the background prepare the parts. General Photo Service.

A MEXICAN STAGE BEAUTY. Maria Conasa, attired as Tehuana, wearing a typical Mexican sombrero. Central News Photo.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

EIGHT YEARS AT DELAWARE AVENUE AND CHESTNUT STREET. He is Reserve Patrolman Morris Gerson, of 1045 South Fifth street. Gerson has been a patrolman for thirteen years. Ledger Photo Service.

AMERICA'S NINE-YEAR-OLD POETESS, Hilda Conkling, reading her own book of verse. She lives at Northampton, Mass. Underwood & Underwood.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS GERALDINE COHEN 254 North Fifth street Philadelphia