

OPENING OF LACROSSE PRACTICE. William F. Schaub, captain of the University of Pennsylvania team (left), and Arthur Rogers, snapped while in action on Franklin Field yesterday afternoon. Ledger Photo Service.

FOUND ALONG THE WISSAHICKON. One of Germantown's fair citizens, Miss J. A. Rau, alighted from "Foxie" just long enough to pose for our photographer. Ledger Photo Service.

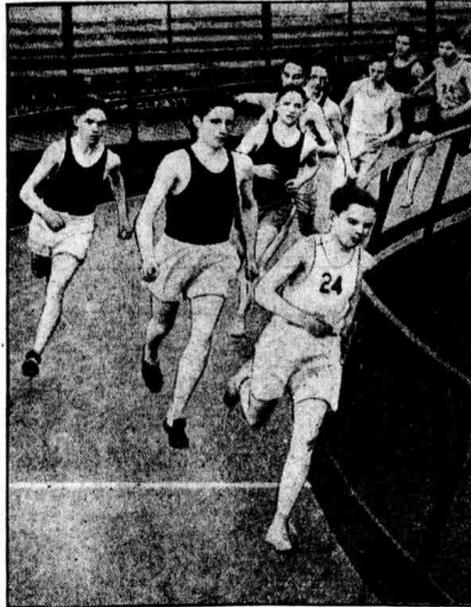

IN WASHINGTON SQUARE. The balmy weather of yesterday brought a "full house" to the breathing space at Sixth and Walnut streets. Two women are rewinding yarn while the baby takes a nap. Ledger Photo Service.

STARTING OUT WITH A CLEAN DESK. John W. Weeks, secretary of war, photographed at his desk on Saturday shortly after he was sworn in. A wonderful reflection of the war chief is shown in the glass top of his desk. Underwood & Underwood.

FILES SUIT FOR DIVORCE. In the Superior Court of California, Mrs. John D. Spreckels seeks separation from her wealthy husband. She asks for custody of her son, shown in photograph. International.

HIGH SCHOOL FRESHMEN IN QUADRANGULAR MEET. Athletes during third lap of the one-mile run on the Wanamaker roof yesterday afternoon. The winner was Holmes, of West Philadelphia. Central High won the meet. Ledger Photo Service.

STARTING LONG HIKE. Willis Irvine, Horace Gordon and Edward Carr, of the West Philadelphia High School, are going to attend a meeting at Los Angeles. They will go to Florida and San Francisco first. Ledger Photo Service.

CELEBRATING BIRTHDAY. Geraldine Farrar, the opera star just told folks she was thirty-nine years young and that she saw no reason for making a fuss about it. Many presents were received. Underwood & Underwood.

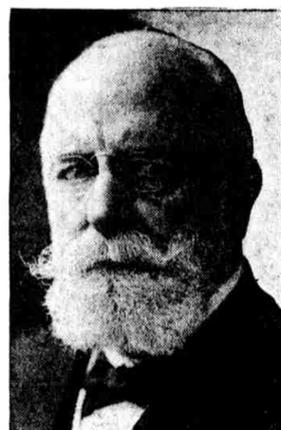

SHE'S A JUDGE. Mrs. Joseph E. Ohi, of Merchantville, is often called upon to judge at Philadelphia dog shows. She presided at the Tioga Kennel Club show last week. Ledger Photo Service.

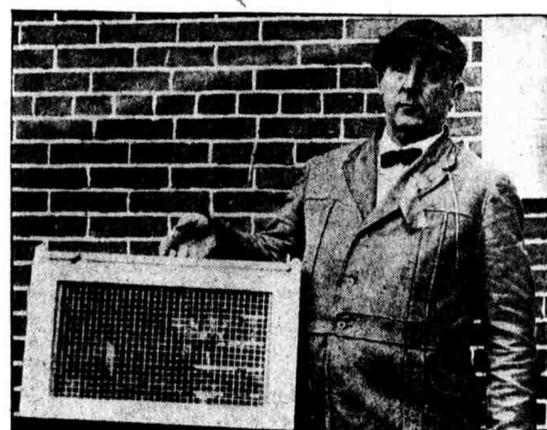

THE OLD AND THE NEW. A Mitchell Palmer (left), the retiring attorney general, congratulating his successor, Harry M. Daugherty, immediately after Mr. Daugherty took oath of office. International.

CLASS OF 1914, PHILADELPHIA NORMAL SCHOOL FOR GIRLS, and Class of 1912, Philadelphia Girls' High School, appointed six tellers to choose the winning limerick for today. They are, left to right, Misses Eleanor Mercer, Sarah Jones, Mary Denny, Gertrude Noar, Margaret Carrick and Mrs. Eleanor Hissey Conn. International.

HOWARD B. FRENCH, of the Chamber of Commerce, talks on the foreign trade field in an interview on the Editorial Page.

"TAYLOR'S FOX" IN A BOX. It is under the watchful eye of Ralph Alexander, an official at the one hundred and twenty-fifth commemoration of a historic hunt celebrated by Bayard Taylor in "The Story of Kennett," at Kennett Square yesterday. Ledger Photo Service.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

POLISHING AND FINISHING RINGS. Mrs. Rhoda Hoffman, 2542 South Garnet street, operates this machine at the Skillcrafters, Inc., 1723 Runstead street. She handles about 100 rings a day. Ledger Photo Service.

CATHOLIC HIGH BASKETBALL STAR

CATHOLIC HIGH BASKETBALL STAR. McNally is the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER selection for all-Catholic H. S. center. His team finished second in the league race. Ledger Photo Service.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

RESERVE PATROLMAN WILLIAM T. LISK. He's been stationed at Broad and Walnut streets eight years of his nine in the police department. Lisk lives at 1841 North Eleventh street. He is ever willing to entertain by his clever piano playing. Ledger Photo Service.

CADET PHILIP WELD BUXTON

CADET PHILIP WELD BUXTON. He won the Pollock Oratorical Prize at the Pennsylvania Military College. Buxton is a member of the sophomore class. Green.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS KATIE REISS 429 Wharton street Philadelphia