

Strongest Team of American Golfers Ever Sent Abroad Competes for Titles Over British Course

ALEXA STIRLING IS 100 PER CENT SCOT

American Golf Star Born in Scotland and She Is Scottish Taught—Pupil of Stuart Maiden, as Is Bobby Jones

By GRANTLAND RICE
Liverpool, England, May 23.—There are possibly several different names for Bobby Jones and the team of Chester, situated near Hoylake. But the main difference is this—Chesney is 1000 years old and Bobby is nineteen.

A Scottish lad or a Scottish lassie I can't win, Carnoustie pulling for Bobby Jones and Alex Stirling. Both are pupils of Stuart Maiden, who left Carnoustie for Atlanta some years ago to teach the young lads how to shoot a mallet or a brass shot. Not to forget that Miss Stirling was born in Scotland. Being Scottish born and Scottish taught, she is 100 per cent Scot to all the MacPhersons, MacPhersons, etc.

The wonderful putting of Francis Ouimet was quite a distance in this championship, even if it was his game was not as sound as it is. The Bostonian is playing championship golf and is rated second in no one in the field.

The Last Stand
(Americans who do not understand how keen the British are to maintain their golf prowess will get a better idea from these verses which appeared some time ago in Punch.)
Fifters of sloth nose hang round and huddle us.
Swiftly the woe is spun.
Scourge us we time ere the spiders gobble us.
To utter "Jack Robinson,"
Chief of our shamies we have lost our chains.
To excel the world at Olympic games,
We are heirs no more to the old Diabolus.
We can neither leap nor run.
Where, ah, where, shall we seek asylum,
How shall we glide again,
Pallid and tarried deep, the wilful
Coward? Frank and Dane
Pick from our brows the olive bough,
Sprinters we have, but they halt like
coats,
And as for our chess and our checking
the pylon.
Ah, stop—it is too much pain.
When lo-like a sunburst seen through vapor
As a three days' fog clears off,
I found this par in my morning's paper,
"Chickens embrace golf!"
Frenchman and Yank, you may keep your streak
With the quivering lath; and the diver's
But who shall best a'er the bunker caper
Or joust in the sea-l-filled trough?
None, I think, but the loved of heaven.

PICK YOUR WINNER FOR COLLEGE TITLE
Three Eastern Teams and California Rated Strong Enough to Win Inter-Collegiate
SIX PENN DEPENDABLES
Who will win the intercollegiate? That is the question of the day in the collegiate world. On Friday afternoon of this week up at Cambridge, on the home track of Harvard, the best athletes of the college world from the Atlantic to the Pacific will start the preliminaries in what promises to be one of the best meets in the history of the I. C. A. A. A. A. On the following day the finals will be held, the survivors of Friday's trials fighting it out for the championship honors.

During the last week the sentiment of the experts seems to turn toward the coast. California with a team that includes several Olympic champions and other performers of equal merit, on comparative records, at least, looks like the best of the many colleges entered. Leland Stanford, which announced last week that it would send four men to the meet, while not regarded as a possible winner, is expected to prove strong just where the eastern colleges will need points to overcome the California strength.

Cornell, Penn and Yale
Cornell, Penn and Yale in the order named appear to be the best of the eastern colleges at the present time. Although both Harvard and Princeton may upset the predictions and secure sufficient points to win the title, Yale has scored victories over Harvard and Princeton in dual meets, both by close margins, while Lavelle, of California, Sunday defeated the Tigers by the narrow margin of a point.

There is a general feeling among those conversant with track affairs among the colleges that the winning team in the intercollegiate will not score more than 25 to 28 points. This is based on the contention that the points will be split so much by the wealth of stars that no team will be able to romp away with the meet. If this be true, the one-man teams will be busy persons. Gordin, of Harvard, is expected to win the broad jump, for his performance of 24 feet 6 inches on Saturday is the best in several years. However, he will not have an easy time of it in the 100 and 220 with Lever, of Penn; LeConey, of Lafayette; Kirksey, of Leland Stanford; Bob Maxam, of Penn, and several others. The same can be said of Earl Thomas, of Dartmouth. He is expected to win the 120 high hurdles race, but he will have to do it skipping over the timbers to win the 220 foot race. In the 220 and 440 Smalley, of Penn, and Barron, of Penn State.

Pennsylvania undergraduates and graduates are piling their bones on the winners of the Red and Blue. They are Earl Eby, the captain, in the quarter and half; Larry Brown, in the mile and half; Bob Maxam, in the quarter and furlong; Boots Lever, in the two and four; Everett Smalley, in the hurdles, and Don Head, in the two-mile race. Last year five men put over the victory and of that number only Hampton and Maxam are missing. Brown, Eby and Head, who scored 21 points themselves, being ready to take the mark again this year.

Little can be expected from the remainder of the Penn team, with the possible exception of George Meredith and Ed McMullen in the half-mile runs. One of the other of this duo may come in under the wire for a point if they qualify in the trials on Friday. Another, who ran a ten-second 100 yarder, may be able to score, but he has the stiffest competition in the world to meet. McFadden in the 220 and Barron and Thurman in the shot are possibilities, and nothing more.

SCHOOLBOYS CLASH FOR GOLF CROWN

Play Qualifying Round in Eastern Interscholastic Tourney Over Merion's East Course

THREE TEAMS COMPETE

Play began this morning over the east course of the Merion Cricket Club for the team and individual titles in the annual Eastern Interscholastic Golf Tournament. The youthful club members were engaged in eighteen-hole medal play, the scores of which will be used to qualify the boys in individual play and also will count in the team prize.

There were only three schools represented for the team championship, Tome, Hill and Lawrenceville. Hill School having won the title last year, was a heavy favorite to repeat. The Hill boys have beaten Lawrenceville this spring 12 matches to 0, and Tome 7½ to 4½.

Among the local schools that competed in medal play today were Llanerch High, Upper Darby High, Haverford School, La Salle Prep, West Philadelphia High, Penn Charter and Brown Prep.

The present individual champion is Henry Ginnaway, Davis, 30, of Hill School. He is competing again and appears to have a good chance to win, although he will have a lot of competition. Among the youngsters who will give Davis a battle are R. V. Fox, Berkeley High (Boston); William Curran, Penn Charter; Willis Jones, Tome, and T. R. Hanson, Brown Prep. Jones comes from Atlanta and lives directly across the street from Bobby Jones, although they are not related.

The smallest boy in the tournament is Charles H. Harding, Haverford School. He is thirteen years old and is just about as tall as his brother. There is a team cup and individual prizes for the finals.

West Philadelphia C. C. Wins
The West Philadelphia Catholic Club traveled to Bryn Mawr yesterday and defeated the home club, 6 to 5. The match was a close one, with the home club leading 3 to 1 at one time. The visitors won on a hole-in-one on the 18th hole.

Scraps About Scrapper
Leon T. Bains has been appointed Tex Rickard's personal representative in Philadelphia for the distribution of tickets for the Dempsey-Carpenter bout on July 2 at Jersey City. Bains has $50,000 worth of the precious pasteboards, which will be put on sale tomorrow.

Knockout Al Wagner has been training for a week and he is in shape to go to the post at any old time. Wagner has been troubled with his eyes, but they are well now and he doesn't believe they will bother him in the ring. His opponent is the working out Adam Ryan's son, Joe Borrell, the middleweight.

Mike Gibbons, of St. Paul evidently is in the ring to keep busy. He has appeared in three bouts already this month. Mike has been scheduled for a July 4 contest with Al Sommer, of California, at the Coeur d'Alene race track, Spokane, Wash., fifteen rounds, as a decision.

Ludie Barale, the Frenchman, will box in the star number at the Blou on Wednesday night. His opponent is a four-pounder will be Bobby McCann, of Grays Ferry. Joe Douglas vs. Danne Gordon and Harry Regal vs. Frankie Simpson are other bouts.

The bout between Carl Hertz and Jerry Hayes at the Auditorium tomorrow night will be a slugfest. The other two matches are scheduled for six rounds each. They will follow: Kid Hooton vs. Kid Burgess; Conrad Browne vs. Young Jans; Eddie Conner vs. Johnny Gardner; Young Burke vs. Hasting Leonard; and Little Bear vs. Eddie Gomis.

Young Lew Baker has been signed to box Harry Burke in the star bout at the Gasety next Friday night.

Frederick Corbett, one-time lightweight boxer of Little Italy, is to return to the game as a promoter. Corbett plans to show during the summer at Esington, and his first card is arranged for May 27 at Corbett A. A. is to be the name of Fred's arena. School boys are expected to win the bout. George Russell; Billy Williams vs. Reddy Jackson and Charley Fox vs. Bobby Wolf.

Today's Local Ball Games
Bridleburg at Fletcher, Twenty-sixth and Wharton streets.
Insurance League—Garden at Maryland, 12th and 13th streets.
Trust vs. Federal Reserve, 15th Park.
Bankers and Stockholders League—Redmond & Co. at E. B. Smith & Co., 15th and 16th streets.
Bank and Trust Company League—First National vs. Commonwealth T. and T. Co., 15th and 16th streets.
Philadelphia Financial League—Market St. Trust Co. vs. Franklin Trust, Kingsessing Recreation Center, Fifteenth street and Chestnut avenue.

Pop Anson is in Town
Bill Donovan, of the Phils, and Pat Moran, of Cincinnati, together with their respective ball players, will be guests of Captain Adrian C. Anson, better known in his baseball days as "Pop," at Kott's tonight. Anson is appearing there this week in a sketch written by Hinz Lardner for the veteran ball player and his two daughters. The occasion is called "Baseball Night."

White Elephants Win Two
Hughes McLean's White Elephants made it twice out of thirteen when they won a closely played game with the Madam Hoy's Club on Saturday, 3 to 2, and defeated the Weaver Country Club Sunday, 15 to 4.

Our Phillies will meet the Cincinnati Reds this afternoon in double combat for the left-handed championship of the National League. A victory for Wild Wild's folks will put them in seventh place, a comparatively high position and a really high one for them.

Pat Moran's young men breezed into the city last night and look to be cellar form. They have been struggling nobly to help our Phils out of last place, but they have been unable to do it yet because the home club has been playing worse than Cincinnati. Hubbell was scheduled to do the pitching this afternoon against the Reds. Hubbell has been getting into better form recently than he has shown this season and Donovan expects him to come through in good style on his next start. Frank Bruggy will be behind the bat for the Phils.

While Pat Moran wasn't certain when he would use this afternoon in the box, he said that he thought he would select Napier.

Today's game begins at 3:30 P. M. Sullivan, the Cubs' left fielder, had two singles, a double and a triple in five times at bat.

Polo at Country Club Will Start Tomorrow

Polo competition for the Temora Cup will start tomorrow afternoon at the Philadelphia Country Club field instead of today as previously announced. The opening game will be between the Philadelphia Country Club's first team and that of the War Department.

The second match is carded for Thursday and will bring together the Philadelphia Country Club's second combination and the Bryn Mawr team, while the finals are scheduled for next Saturday.

Bingles and Bungles

In Detroit yesterday, the Athletics had fifteen hits for a total of twenty-four bases. The extra base swats included five doubles and two triples.

By Cobb is still home-running. He got another in the A's game yesterday.

Yesterday's major league home-run glowers were Cobb, Detroit; Bob Meusel, Yankees; Ed Walsh, St. Louis; Zack Wheat, Brooklyn; Whitey Ford, Chicago; and Pittsburgh's Snyder, Giants; Burns, Giants.

Copper's victory over the New York Giants was his seventh straight win. The two home runs made by his teammates materially aided Cooper in winning.

The Yankees' win over the St. Louis Browns, 6-5, was made possible by the fine pitching of Carl Mize and his blow in the tenth inning that sent over the victory sign.

Cleveland shot over the Red Sox, 8 to 6. Trip Speaker's two doubles helped his champions come through.

The Pirates advanced by leaps and bounds when they trounced the Giants. They now are leading the New Yorkers by four-and-a-half games.

The Baltimore Irvy Dook team visited Natty and were treated to a 12-9 defeat, while thousands of Phil Hazzerty's friends waved the flag.

The Racquet Club baseball team defeated the Philadelphia Cricket Club team yesterday and took the lead in the race for the Stan Johnson cup.

CARPENTIER WORKS OUT FOR SCRIBES

A. M. Training Done in Secret. Georges "Flip" in Lime-light

DEMPSEY RESUMES DRILL

Manhasset, N. Y., May 23.—Georges Carpentier today began real ring work in preparation for his fight with Jack Dempsey, July 2. His morning workout was in secret, but this afternoon he performed before a large delegation of newspapermen.

Fame in the world of canines has come to "Flip," a Belgian police dog, owned by Carpentier. The dog already has played an important part in training activities.

Since the close of the war and much of the time during the conflict, Carpentier has had the dog with him constantly, "not as a mascot, just as a friend," he declared today as the pair tramped around the large estate on which the camp of the boxer has been established.

Larry Williams in Jack's Camp
Atlantic City, N. J., May 23.—After a day's layoff Jack Dempsey today resumed training for his heavyweight championship contest with Georges Carpentier. The champion was eager to resume work after a twenty-four-hour rest.

Larry Williams, of Bridgeport, Conn., joined the champion's staff of sparring partners.

Williams is a Philadelphia heavyweight and will replace Jack Clifford of Brooklyn, who quit after working six days with Dempsey. Clifford was

SEEK ATHLETIC FIELD

Germantown Fathers to Assist Boys and Girls in Movement

To co-operate with the officials of Germantown High School a fathers' association is being organized, and already fifty members have been enrolled. The plan originated at a meeting held three weeks ago, which was attended by Conrad N. Lauer, E. H. Cummings, George T. Johnson, J. S. Eisenman, F. H. Rockett and L. D. Zeigler, Jr. An organization meeting was held last Friday at Germantown Y. M. C. A., at which Superintendent Broome and Principal Keller gave warm endorsement to the scheme.

The officers elected are: President, Conrad Lauer; vice president, J. S. Eisenman; treasurer, L. D. Zeigler, Jr.; and secretary, F. H. Rockett. An athletic field for Germantown is the first fight to be carried on by the fathers, who realize that Germantown High School girls and boys must have a proper place to train if they can be expected to make a fair showing against the other high schools of Philadelphia in athletic competitions. A library for the high school will be the next project backed by the association.
