

THE WRECKING CREW. Street car motormen and conductors, chauffeurs, patrolmen and pedestrians clear the way for traffic at Broad and Arch streets. The automobile went down when a wheel smashed to bits.

IT WAS A GREAT DAY. Ellis A. Gimbel, the merchant, was host of the class of '79 of the Central High School at the Philmont Country Club yesterday. Mr. Gimbel (left) as he practices for the ball game. Frank M. Zeller is getting the class flag out for the day when the photographer snapped him. The other ball player is Percy McGeorge, of Dallas, Texas.

TRAPPED HER OWN COSTUME. Miss Eileen Young of Mono County, Calif., at San Francisco's Boosters' Ball.

NEW ENVOY TO CHINA. Dr. Jacob Gould Schurman, former head of Cornell.

ON THEIR WAY TO LUNCH. City Purchasing Agent Acker (left) and Judge Joseph P. Rogers chat as they stroll down Broad street.

PRETTIEST GIRL. Miss Florence Selby won prize given by K. of C. in beauty contest, San Francisco.

A NEW PARIS GAME. The winner in this game of two pins gets the prize for riding between the pins without touching them.

MISS JOSEPHINE DRANE, of Florida, named Peninsula State at New York Shipyards, Camden.

QUEEN ALEXANDRA, mother of King George, in her 77th year, at the left, as she rode through London on Rose Day, the day named in her honor.

CLOSE QUILTS. There was a serious thought in each fellow's mind that his quilt was the nearest to the peg. Edwin Brogan, at the left, was able to convince his opponent, Bernard Marshall, that he was the winner at the Kingsessing Playground in West Philadelphia.

COMING TO AMERICA. Dr. Richard Strauss, the composer, will tour the country in the fall. The photograph was taken in Berlin a short time ago.

WATCHING. Mrs. Vincent Astor on the sidelines at the international intercollegiate tennis tourney in Newport, R. I.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

EDWIN SANDS, 3065 North Darien street, sizing and stamping set-off windows frames and doors in the factory of Thomas J. Malia Co., 223-30-32 Market street. He turns out about 200 a day.

LOOKS DANGEROUS. Sergeant Agoston, British Army, blindfolded, cuts set-to in two with bayonet as it perches on the neck of the volunteer.

ROGER MOULDER, 5215 Westminster avenue, Routes 1 and 2, Callowhill, Eighth to Tenth street. He has been in service 7 years.

FRANK F. WIEDER, who wins many tennis matches on the Philmont Country Club courts.

TEACHERS AT SUMMER SCHOOL. (From left) Clingan, Wessona Military Academy, and Miss Edith Scott, Campbell School, at Penn.

MAIL!