

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

Undertaker Says Bodies of Returned Heroes Were Not Piled Haphazard on Truck

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

Charges made by Major F. E. Hollenback of the American Legion, and chairman of Mayor Moore's Committee for Receiving of Soldiers, against an undertaker who piled three caskets, one on top of another in a small truck, were denied today by the undertaker, J. W. Conner, 2056 Frankford avenue.

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

Major Hollenback said an investigation had been started to determine the authenticity of the charges which had been brought to his attention by a number of persons present Thursday afternoon when the consignment of fifty-seven bodies arrived at the Reading Terminal.

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

"The American Legion as well as the War Mothers," declared Major Hollenback, "quite naturally resent such a slight to our heroes. It is the only case of its kind which has come to my attention, but we want to preclude the possibility of its repetition. My informants tell me the three caskets were piled on top of each other on a small Ford truck like so much cordwood."

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

"On one other occasion, one of the undertakers' conveyances resembled a bucket's wagon, but this other case was an outrage. We have learned that the families of the men whose bodies received this treatment supposed they had arranged for the proper care to be taken of their sons. The undertaker himself was at fault. The name given to me was J. W. Conner."

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

Mr. Conner, when told of Major Hollenback's charges became indignant. "The bodies of the men referred to, were laid side by side in the truck, and not on top of each other," he said. "And the reason that the three were taken at once was that otherwise, one would have had to remain at the station until late in the evening, as I had no other immediate means at my disposal to take them to Frankford."

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

"I am as patriotic as any other man, and the last one to wish to see any injustice or indignity done to our boys, but in this case nothing of that nature was intended or done."

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

Private Berry's services were in charge of members of his former battery from the Third Division, the Rev. Edward S. Nidle conducted the funeral. Private Horsey's funeral was in charge of the Houston Post, American Legion.

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

The body of Lieutenant Thomas Massey, who was killed in action in the Argentine, will be brought over from New York late today. He is the son of the late Thomas Massey, a Philadelphia merchant, and at the time of joining the colors was a student at the University of Pennsylvania.

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

Lieutenant Massey was killed July 30, 1918, while going into action. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Harlan V. D. Paul, of Wayne. Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, from the establishment of Oliver H. Bair, 1820 Chestnut street.

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

Two young men, who posed as customers last night in the store of the New York Fur Co., 1135 Broadway, Camden, stole furs valued at $800. A saleswoman was writing on a woman customer when the men entered. Police have a description of the men.

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

William White, Negro, Boston, who told Magistrate Meekery in Central Station he was a dancer in an Atlantic City cabaret, was held in $800 for court charges with larceny of money and papers on a train coming from the shore to Philadelphia this morning.

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

Claude Lee, a poster on the train, said he found White rifling his locker when he returned at the point after getting some tea. A bank book belonging to Lee was found on White.

THERE ARE PLACES EVEN WORSE

This is the court where Mrs. Margaret Lueatretch was shot to death. It lies in the rear of 122 Spruce street, and crowded in it are three little homes, in one of which lives Mrs. Lueatretch, her husband and their five little children. Conditions in this four-foot-wide court are such that when they were called to the attention of the owner he agreed at once to tear the dwellings down. Director Furbush, deploring the state of affairs in this slimy little alley, says there are other places in Philadelphia where conditions are even worse.

WHISTLES SOFT-PEDALED BY MERCHANTVILLE TRAINS

People Sleep a Little Since Complaint to P. R. R. Residents of Merchantville, Moorestown and Mount Holly will be able to get a good night's rest now that authorities have squelched the ambitious freight engineer who awakened them with prolonged blasts of his locomotive whistle as he passed through the towns.

WHISTLES SOFT-PEDALED BY MERCHANTVILLE TRAINS

Several freight engineers apparently had the same ambitions, because complaints sent to Mayor Volney G. Bennett, of Merchantville, named more than one train which was disturbing the sleep of every one who wasn't stone deaf.

WHISTLES SOFT-PEDALED BY MERCHANTVILLE TRAINS

Mayor Bennett got in touch with the Borough Council and it with the Pennsylvania Railroad. Comparative quiet has resulted.

WHISTLES SOFT-PEDALED BY MERCHANTVILLE TRAINS

William Habb, of Wayne, Struck by Car Today Near Radnor. William Habb, twenty-five years old, of Wayne, received a broken leg this morning when his motorcycle collided with the automobile driven by William Calhoun, of Radnor, on the Gulph road, near Radnor. He was taken to the Bryn Mawr Hospital in the automobile of Alexander Sellers, which was passing at the time of the accident.

WHISTLES SOFT-PEDALED BY MERCHANTVILLE TRAINS

Both Habb and Calhoun, according to the police, declared the accident to have been the result of a misunderstanding of signals, and Calhoun was exonerated.

WHISTLES SOFT-PEDALED BY MERCHANTVILLE TRAINS

H. S. CROSS IN POLITICS. Abington Insurance Man Candidate for Township Treasurer. Harold S. Cross, of Abington, will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for Treasurer of Abington Township. He became a candidate at the request of a committee of citizens of Abington.

WHISTLES SOFT-PEDALED BY MERCHANTVILLE TRAINS

Although an active Republican, Mr. Cross has never sought or held political office. He is manager of the office of the Pennsylvania Co. for Insurance on Lives and Granting Annuities, Juniper and Chestnut streets. Those who urge his candidacy express the belief that he is well qualified for the post.

WHISTLES SOFT-PEDALED BY MERCHANTVILLE TRAINS

TRAINS FROM SHORE LATE. Passengers of 6:40 and 7 o'clock Runs Delayed. Some hundreds of passengers on the 6:40 and 7 o'clock Pennsylvania Railroad trains from Atlantic City were delayed today by the disabling of a cylinder on the locomotive of the 6:40 train at 4 o'clock train pushed the one ahead of it for some miles and then lagged while the 6:40 limped toward Camden. It was nearly 9 o'clock when the passengers of the 7 o'clock train were landed at Market street.

WHISTLES SOFT-PEDALED BY MERCHANTVILLE TRAINS

PIAVE HERO COMING. General Badoglio and Staff Visit City Tomorrow. General Pietro Badoglio, Italian army officer, who distinguished himself at Piave during the World War, will arrive in Philadelphia tomorrow with members of his staff.

WHISTLES SOFT-PEDALED BY MERCHANTVILLE TRAINS

Mayor Moore expressed regret that he would be unable to meet the visitor, as he was leaving for Washington this morning. He directed Dr. C. Lincoln Furbush and Harry Baxter, chief of the Bureau of City Property, to welcome the party.

PHILA. GUARDSMEN GO TO MT. GRETTA

Men of 111th Infantry, Formerly Third and Sixth, Get Warm Good-by

PHILA. GUARDSMEN GO TO MT. GRETTA

War-time entrainments were recalled today when the National Guardsmen went to Mount Gretna, where they will spend fifteen days of outdoor military life.

PHILA. GUARDSMEN GO TO MT. GRETTA

Mothers, wives and sweethearts turned out in numbers to give the youthful soldiers a send-off. Leaving the Third Regiment Armory, Broad and Walnut streets, shortly before 4 o'clock, the men marched to the martial music of the field band to Broad street and Washington avenue, where they entrained.

PHILA. GUARDSMEN GO TO MT. GRETTA

Colonel R. M. Brookfield was in charge of the men, who formed the 111th Infantry. This regiment is made up of the old Third and Sixth. Other officers who accompanied the men are Lieutenant Colonel J. A. Miller, Lieutenant Colonel Charles B. Finley, Captain John G. Moe, Captain William P. McClay, Captain John M. Rose and Captain Thomas Kenaghan.

PHILA. GUARDSMEN GO TO MT. GRETTA

Night Spent in Armory. The men spent the night at the armory, although few of them admitted they got any sleep. Awakened at 4 o'clock, they were served breakfast. Then the fun started.

PHILA. GUARDSMEN GO TO MT. GRETTA

Alfred Rago, 1211 Wilder street, just been given a "merry widow" haircut. The other boys took turns giving him a knuckle rub while he was held.

PHILA. GUARDSMEN GO TO MT. GRETTA

Corporal Herman Becker, 525 South Fourth street, and others brought their string instruments along and they kept obliging with popular selections.

PHILA. GUARDSMEN GO TO MT. GRETTA

The train, with twenty coaches, afforded comfort for every man. When aboard the boys discarded their military equipment. Several tried to sleep, but were unsuccessful. Explicit instructions were given that no one was to be broken under penalty of paying for them.

PHILA. GUARDSMEN GO TO MT. GRETTA

Officers tried to put some of the boys through a drill before they boarded the train, but most of them were too tired to pay strict attention to orders.

PHILA. GUARDSMEN GO TO MT. GRETTA

Other guardsmen were picked up along the way. All members of the regiment were in camp by 10 o'clock.

PHILA. GUARDSMEN GO TO MT. GRETTA

Part of Fifty-sixth Brigade. The 111th Infantry is part of the Fifty-sixth Brigade, commanded by General Edward C. Shannon, of Columbia.

PHILA. GUARDSMEN GO TO MT. GRETTA

The other units in the brigade in camp are the 112th Infantry Regiment and the 103rd Medical Regiment. The brigade is composed of western State guardsmen.

PHILA. GUARDSMEN GO TO MT. GRETTA

A large number of cottagers and visitors to Mt. Gretna were out in full force to greet the units, which included eight companies from Philadelphia, two companies from Chester and one each from Media, West Chester, Doylestown, Phoenixville, Norristown and Pottstown.

PHILA. GUARDSMEN GO TO MT. GRETTA

Upon reaching the camp site, the guardsmen found everything in readiness. Advance details had the camp in excellent order and there was little to do except unpack the regimental equipment.

PHILA. GUARDSMEN GO TO MT. GRETTA

The members of the Fifty-fifth Infantry Brigade, who left camp last night, left everything behind except their personal belongings, and as a result there will be no "hotels" or "cots" for the remainder of the encampment.

PHILA. GUARDSMEN GO TO MT. GRETTA

In striking contrast to the Saturday night two weeks ago, every guardman will have a cot to sleep on tonight and also sufficient cover for the regular army and the National Guard.

Score for Bobbed Hair

The dyspeptic who said girls with bobbed hair had no initiative doesn't know Sarah Gasner, of 2241 Hobson street. Sarah has bobbed hair and wanted a bicycle. She heard of the Public Ledger subscription contest. She still has bobbed hair—also a bicycle.

Score for Bobbed Hair

LITTLE GIRL WINS BIKE. GETTING 50 SUBSCRIPTIONS. Says It's Easy, Too—Another Winner Plans to Travel on Hers.

It was so easy for one little girl to get subscriptions to the Evening, Morning and Sunday Public Ledger in order to win her Black Beauty bicycle that she got fifty instead of the thirty-five required to make certain of receiving it. She is Vera Adams, colored, 222 South Seventeenth street.

Score for Bobbed Hair

In a letter to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER she expresses herself as being very pleased with her prize and she was to be broken under penalty of paying for them.

Score for Bobbed Hair

Officers tried to put some of the boys through a drill before they boarded the train, but most of them were too tired to pay strict attention to orders.

Score for Bobbed Hair

Other guardsmen were picked up along the way. All members of the regiment were in camp by 10 o'clock.

Score for Bobbed Hair

Part of Fifty-sixth Brigade. The 111th Infantry is part of the Fifty-sixth Brigade, commanded by General Edward C. Shannon, of Columbia.

Score for Bobbed Hair

The other units in the brigade in camp are the 112th Infantry Regiment and the 103rd Medical Regiment. The brigade is composed of western State guardsmen.

Score for Bobbed Hair

A large number of cottagers and visitors to Mt. Gretna were out in full force to greet the units, which included eight companies from Philadelphia, two companies from Chester and one each from Media, West Chester, Doylestown, Phoenixville, Norristown and Pottstown.

Score for Bobbed Hair

Upon reaching the camp site, the guardsmen found everything in readiness. Advance details had the camp in excellent order and there was little to do except unpack the regimental equipment.

Score for Bobbed Hair

The members of the Fifty-fifth Infantry Brigade, who left camp last night, left everything behind except their personal belongings, and as a result there will be no "hotels" or "cots" for the remainder of the encampment.

Score for Bobbed Hair

In striking contrast to the Saturday night two weeks ago, every guardman will have a cot to sleep on tonight and also sufficient cover for the regular army and the National Guard.

Score for Bobbed Hair

The program will include sports, a boxing match between Lew Tendler and Joe Tiplitz, and many other features. There will be a parade around the ground, headed by the Police Band, and as for eats—well, they will be there by the barrel.

Score for Bobbed Hair

MITCHELL LOSES FOB. Braves' Manager Loses Diamond-Studded Championship Trophy. Fred Mitchell, manager of the Boston Braves baseball club, retired to police here he had lost his diamond-studded watchfob, engraved "Boston Braves, 1914."

Score for Bobbed Hair

Mitchell is stopping at a Chestnut street hotel, and while walking yesterday lost the fob, a memento of the championship.

Score for Bobbed Hair

CHASE ALLEGED KIDNAPPER. But Suspect is Released When Six-Year-Old Boy is Found. Glenwood borough residents made up a posse yesterday to search for a man who was reported to have kidnaped six-year-old Paul Kole, Chester pike.

Score for Bobbed Hair

After several hours, the boy was found unharmed and a note had been agreed was released when he gave adequate account of his movements.

END IS SEEN TO ALL BUILDING STRIKES

Painters, Electricians and Others Expected to Follow Carpenters' Lead

END IS SEEN TO ALL BUILDING STRIKES

With the carpenters' strike settled, the holdovers' sheet metal workers, painters and the electricians on strike are now expected to settle speedily their difficulties with their employers.

END IS SEEN TO ALL BUILDING STRIKES

Jobs that have been held up will now be completed, according to the builders, and some new work started.

END IS SEEN TO ALL BUILDING STRIKES

According to Harry A. Stone, secretary of the Master Carpenters and Builders Co., representing the bosses, a number of smaller contracts that have been held up will now be started, and existing work in an unfinished state will be completed. There is no immediate outlook for a general resumption of building," he said.

END IS SEEN TO ALL BUILDING STRIKES

The out in wages accepted by the carpenters averages 20 per cent, however, and W. F. Allen, secretary of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, said today he expected that a couple of more strikes would see a majority of the carpenters back at work again.

END IS SEEN TO ALL BUILDING STRIKES

The new agreement signed by the builders and carpenters terminates December 31 instead of May 1, and sympathetic strikers are barred. Regular time at the rate of ninety cents an hour is to be paid for forty-four hours' work a week, time and half time for the first four hours' overtime, and double time thereafter on Saturday afternoon, Sundays and holidays. All fines and penalties of union men who failed to strike are remitted, and non-union men are protected on their jobs.

END IS SEEN TO ALL BUILDING STRIKES

The men formerly received $1.10 an hour.

END IS SEEN TO ALL BUILDING STRIKES

HOLD BOGUS REVENUE AGENT. Accused of Being One of Four Who Held Up Pair and Stole Whisky.

Identified as one of four men who had impersonated revenue officers, held up a man and woman and stolen four and a half barrels of whisky, Max Boland, of New York, also of Eighth street near Jefferson, this city, was held under $1000 for a further hearing today by Magistrate Price, in the Twenty-second street and Hunting Park avenue station.

END IS SEEN TO ALL BUILDING STRIKES

James Gallagher, uncle of Michael McLaughlin, owner of the liquor, testified he was at the home of McLaughlin, 1224 North Ninth street, February 14, Mrs. McLaughlin was doing laundry work in the cellar.

END IS SEEN TO ALL BUILDING STRIKES

After several phone calls, which established the fact McLaughlin was not at home, four bandits, it was testified, drove up in a truck and touring car, about 2 o'clock in the afternoon. After holding up Mrs. McLaughlin and Mr. Gallagher at the point after getting, they loaded the whisky on the truck and drove off, saying they were revenue agents, it is said.

END IS SEEN TO ALL BUILDING STRIKES

NAB TRAIN THEFT SUSPECT. William White, Negro, Boston, who told Magistrate Meekery in Central Station he was a dancer in an Atlantic City cabaret, was held in $800 for court charges with larceny of money and papers on a train coming from the shore to Philadelphia this morning.

END IS SEEN TO ALL BUILDING STRIKES

Claude Lee, a poster on the train, said he found White rifling his locker when he returned at the point after getting some tea. A bank book belonging to Lee was found on White.

END IS SEEN TO ALL BUILDING STRIKES

STEAL $800 IN FURS. Two young men, who posed as customers last night in the store of the New York Fur Co., 1135 Broadway, Camden, stole furs valued at $800. A saleswoman was writing on a woman customer when the men entered. Police have a description of the men.

END IS SEEN TO ALL BUILDING STRIKES

WOMAN MAGISTRATE CANDIDATE NOMINATED. Miss Edna M. Snyder Frat of Sex to Be Named for the Office Here.

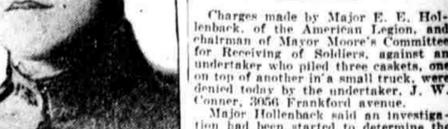

Miss Edna M. Snyder, 3623 North Nineteenth street, is the first woman candidate for Magistrate in Philadelphia. Her candidacy was endorsed last night at a special meeting of the Democratic women of the Fourth Congressional District, held in Park Hall, 1915 Columbia avenue.

END IS SEEN TO ALL BUILDING STRIKES

Democratic women voters from various sections of the city were present, and several speakers, who predicted the return of the party to power, were enthusiastically applauded.

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

Undertaker Says Bodies of Returned Heroes Were Not Piled Haphazard on Truck

LIEUTENANT THOMAS MASSEY. Who was killed in the Argentine, was a student at Penn when he enlisted. His funeral will be held

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

THREE MORE SOLDIERS TO BE BURIED TODAY. Bodies Brought Back From France Will Be Given Military Funerals.

Three soldiers were buried this afternoon in Ivy Hill Cemetery following funeral services at their late homes. They were Stanley H. Berry, 187 Weaver street; Frank Yearsley, 5609 Layton street, and Earl Horsey, of Keenings.

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

Yearsley, who was a sergeant, Company L, 109th Infantry, was killed in action, July 15, 1918, and Berry, who was a first-class private, Battery D, 70th Field Artillery, was killed on the same day at Chateau Thierry. Berry received a citation for bravery.

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

The services for Sergeant Yearsley were held at his home and at Saint Michael's Church, High above Morton street. The services at the cemetery were conducted by the Sergeant Edward Yearsley Post, No. 291, Veterans of Foreign Wars, assisted by other posts.

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

Private Berry's services were in charge of members of his former battery from the Third Division, the Rev. Edward S. Nidle conducted the funeral. Private Horsey's funeral was in charge of the Houston Post, American Legion.

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

The body of Lieutenant Thomas Massey, who was killed in action in the Argentine, will be brought over from New York late today. He is the son of the late Thomas Massey, a Philadelphia merchant, and at the time of joining the colors was a student at the University of Pennsylvania.

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

Lieutenant Massey was killed July 30, 1918, while going into action. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Harlan V. D. Paul, of Wayne. Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, from the establishment of Oliver H. Bair, 1820 Chestnut street.

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

Two young men, who posed as customers last night in the store of the New York Fur Co., 1135 Broadway, Camden, stole furs valued at $800. A saleswoman was writing on a woman customer when the men entered. Police have a description of the men.

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

WOMAN MAGISTRATE CANDIDATE NOMINATED. Miss Edna M. Snyder Frat of Sex to Be Named for the Office Here.

Miss Edna M. Snyder, 3623 North Nineteenth street, is the first woman candidate for Magistrate in Philadelphia. Her candidacy was endorsed last night at a special meeting of the Democratic women of the Fourth Congressional District, held in Park Hall, 1915 Columbia avenue.

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

Democratic women voters from various sections of the city were present, and several speakers, who predicted the return of the party to power, were enthusiastically applauded.

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

MITCHELL LOSES FOB. Braves' Manager Loses Diamond-Studded Championship Trophy. Fred Mitchell, manager of the Boston Braves baseball club, retired to police here he had lost his diamond-studded watchfob, engraved "Boston Braves, 1914."

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

Mitchell is stopping at a Chestnut street hotel, and while walking yesterday lost the fob, a memento of the championship.

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

CHASE ALLEGED KIDNAPPER. But Suspect is Released When Six-Year-Old Boy is Found. Glenwood borough residents made up a posse yesterday to search for a man who was reported to have kidnaped six-year-old Paul Kole, Chester pike.

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

After several hours, the boy was found unharmed and a note had been agreed was released when he gave adequate account of his movements.

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

Charges made by Major F. E. Hollenback of the American Legion, and chairman of Mayor Moore's Committee for Receiving of Soldiers, against an undertaker who piled three caskets, one on top of another in a small truck, were denied today by the undertaker, J. W. Conner, 2056 Frankford avenue.

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

Major Hollenback said an investigation had been started to determine the authenticity of the charges which had been brought to his attention by a number of persons present Thursday afternoon when the consignment of fifty-seven bodies arrived at the Reading Terminal.

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

"The American Legion as well as the War Mothers," declared Major Hollenback, "quite naturally resent such a slight to our heroes. It is the only case of its kind which has come to my attention, but we want to preclude the possibility of its repetition. My informants tell me the three caskets were piled on top of each other on a small Ford truck like so much cordwood."

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

"On one other occasion, one of the undertakers' conveyances resembled a bucket's wagon, but this other case was an outrage. We have learned that the families of the men whose bodies received this treatment supposed they had arranged for the proper care to be taken of their sons. The undertaker himself was at fault. The name given to me was J. W. Conner."

WAR-DEAD INSULT CHARGE IS DENIED

Mr. Conner, when told of Major Hollenback's charges became indignant. "The bodies of the men referred to, were laid side by side in the truck, and not on