

TOY-BALLOON RACE. Part of the girls' swimming meet at the Southwark Municipal Pool, Eighth and Mifflin streets, yesterday afternoon. Each swimmer was forced to blow the small balloon along as she swam

WINNER GETS PRIZE. President Harding presenting the Cook Cup to Robert Bender, the winner of the first annual golf tournament of Washington correspondents

MRS. F. B. HARRISON. She is the wife of the retiring Governor General of the Philippines. Mrs. Harrison posed with their three weeks' old son, Francis Burton, Jr.

LOOKS LIKE A "WHAT IS IT?" But it's just a head-on view of the clipper stem on superdreadnought Washington, to be launched Thursday

MARVELOUS TASK. Marion Goebel, the fifteen-year-old swimmer of the Bronx, New York, towed a canoe laden with three persons across Long Island Sound and back again. She recently swam six miles with her hands tied

ROLLING A CIGARETTE. John Eckert, one of the regulars on the Cobbs Creek public golf links, gets ready for a smoke while he waits his turn

GATHERING VEGETABLES. Two of the girls who enjoy country life at Whitford Lodge and vacation home of the Eastern Pennsylvania League of Girls' Clubs. It's located on the Lincoln Highway near Whitford Station

CAPTAIN JAMES P. LYONS talks on training of officers in an Editorial Page interview

DANCING. Mrs. Snowden Hedley and Miles Sanford, a New Yorker, at Deauville, France U.S.U.

IN NEW YORK. Douglas Fairbanks, with a moustache as added decoration, gives exhibition of his daring. He and Mary will soon leave for Europe

AARON ROSENTHAL upholds tennis honors of McIntyre School

MINDEN DAY IN IRELAND. Gen. Macready watching display in memory of great battle U.S.P.

SPEED. Harold Colburn snapped on a Cobbs Creek Parkway tennis court as he practiced for the big match with Dean Snyder, to be played at the same spot on Labor Day. The match is for the championship of West Philadelphia. The residents of Cobbs Creek Parkway maintain these courts

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

HERBERT LEACH, 3414 Race street, putting gromets on sails in the shop of H. J. Smith & Co., 207 Walnut street. The gromets are fasteners used for sail material. He handles 150 an hour

PAULSBORO WINS FROM WOODBURY. "Jing" Johnson (left) pitched airtight ball against the leaders of the Gloucester County League. "Stump" Lyons is second baseman for the winners. At the right is Touchstone, the Woodbury star tosser

FRANK P. WAGNER, 3046 North Percy street. In service eleven years. Route: Broad to 15th, Penn Sq. to Walnut

FRONT JACK-KNIFE. Charles Beers is the star fancy diver of the Athletic Recreation Center at Twenty-sixth and Jefferson sts.

MAIL

