

JERSEY EDUCATOR CALLED "LOAFER"

Wilmer C. Burns, Gloucester, Wastes Time on Street Corners, Is Charge

MALICE, IS MAN'S RETORT

Leading, frivolity and inefficiency were charged against Gloucester public schools, at a stormy meeting of the Gloucester Board of Education which continued until an early hour this morning.

The charges were made by a citizens' committee, headed by A. S. Pearce and J. F. Byrnes, who demanded the ousting of Mr. Burns, who has been in charge of Gloucester's schools for ten years.

The board decided to hold a public hearing December 21, when about one hundred and fifty witnesses, including several teachers, will be heard.

The committee alleges that Mr. Burns wastes time in stores and on street corners when he should be attending to his school duties. It alleges he is frivolous and that he lacks dignity, that he intimidated teachers and that he inflated the salaries of pupils in order to have a better showing for the schools.

Another charge harks back to last year when the superintendent was attending afternoon classes at the University of Pennsylvania. It is alleged he had teachers prepare some papers which were required of him in the special course he was taking.

Still another charge is that Mr. Burns tried to force an illegal order. The charge refers to the occasion when Miss Helen Chesman refused to accept a transfer from the high school to the Cumberland street grammar school.

Miss Chesman said the transfer, ordered by the board of education, was a demotion and that she would not obey it. Mr. Burns is said to have threatened to have police expel her from the high school. The teacher now has an appeal before the State Board of Education.

At the session last night, which began at 8 o'clock, Mrs. Susan Norcross, principal of the Hunter street school, presented a petition signed by all the teachers in the Gloucester schools. It stated that the schools are managed properly and that Mr. Burns is a capable administrator. The petition was prepared, it stated, "without request or solicitation."

Mr. Burns today would make no comment on the charges other than that they were inspired by malice. He said he will be represented at the public hearing.

BOOST FOR CAPE MAY

Progressive League Starts Campaign to Advertise Resort
Cape May, Dec. 6.—The Progressive League of Cape May last night opened its new headquarters and social center on Ocean street with an overflowing attendance. Addresses were made by Luther C. Ogden, retiring president of the Chamber of Commerce of Cape May County and State Senator William C. Bright. The former spoke of the many opportunities and possibilities in Cape May County and especially in Cape May proper, and urged citizens to put forth every endeavor to bring its advantages before the general public, notably through extensive advertising campaigns.

Senator Bright spoke upon citizenship—the great benefits to be derived from exercising rights of franchise, and laid particular emphasis upon what he had done as a member of the Senate, toward establishing a ferry service between Cape May and Lewes, Delaware.

CALL BANKRUPT PERJURER

Abe Cohn is Accused of Falsifying Account of Assets
Abe Cohn, a jobber in wooleens at Fifth and Spruce streets, who was adjudged a bankrupt several months ago, was held in $500 bail for the Grand Jury, on a charge of perjury, but United States Commissioner Manley today, James Mellors, referee, testified Cohn had given him a statement to the effect that he had $18,000 over his liabilities, but when an accountant went over Cohn's books it was found he had a deficit of $3000. Assistant United States Attorney Kun declared he was going to conduct an investigation and prosecute every bankrupt who gave false statements regarding assets and liabilities.

ROBBERS KILLED SOLDIER

Camp Dix Man Had Shown Money Before He Disappeared
Robbery was the motive for the slaying of Michael Gregor, supply sergeant in Company D, Sixteenth Infantry, whose body was found in the "Laurels" near Camp Dix Saturday afternoon. Just before Gregor disappeared he had shown some friends $275 and when the body was found there was no money about it.

The records give a brother, J. Gregor, of St. Louis, as next of kin. He has been notified. Because of the puzzling situation slow progress is being made.

COAL CO. SUIT IS SEEN

Sale of Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre Not to Highest Bidder, Claim
Legal action in the sale of the Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre coal stock by the Central Railroad of New Jersey to the Reynolds Syndicate of New York is contemplated by certain of the railroad's stockholders.

Plans seeking to upset the sale on the ground that the highest bid was not accepted are being considered today by the attorneys in the case. The sale has already been completed, according to papers filed in Court yesterday.

When the papers were presented to the United States District Court by the Jersey Central the Court ordered the papers to be filed for such further action as the Court deems proper. This clears the field for a legal battle if minority stockholders go through with it. It is understood would be brought in the name of Isaac T. Starr, owner of 200 shares of Jersey Central stock. Henry Evans, of New York, insurance company president, is to intervene as holder of 3000 shares of railroad stock.

TWO ROBBERS SNATCH OGONTZ WOMAN'S PURSE

Policeman Opens Fire, but Both Thugs Escape
Two Negroes attacked Mrs. William Kennedy, of Ogontz, Saturday night and escaped with her purse and a gold watch. Chew, an Ogontz policeman, heard the woman's cries and fired several shots at the fleeing men, but failed to hit them.

Original Offering $2,000,000
PREFERRED AND COMMON SHARES OF
Seiberling Rubber Company
Akron, Ohio
Organized under the laws of the State of Delaware and incorporated for 50,000 shares of 8% Cumulative Preferred Stock, par value $100, and 500,000 Shares No-Par-Value Common Stock. Of which total authorized Capital the Company is offering at the present time $2,000,000 in Preferred and Common Stock.
With Privilege of Original Subscription as follows:
1. Preferred Stock only, at $100 per share, fully paid, non-assessable, and convertible until January 1, 1923, or
2. Purchase in Blocks of seven shares; two shares of Preferred Stock at $100 a share, and five shares of Common Stock at $10 a share. Total purchase price per block $250.
Transfer Agents: The Central Savings and Trust Company, Akron, Ohio.
Registrars: For the Common Stock, The National City Bank, Akron, Ohio. For the Preferred Stock, The Peoples Saving and Trust Company, Akron, Ohio.
Terms of Sale: Twenty per cent (20%) of purchase price to accompany subscription; balance to be paid upon call of the Treasurer of the Company, but not later than February 1st, 1922. Stock to be issued when full payment is made.
Subscriptions may be paid in full and temporary certificates will be issued at once, with dividends cumulative on Preferred Stock from date of issue.
Subscriptions accepted subject to prior sale.
Preferred Stock Convertible: Holders of the original issue have the right to convert shares of Preferred Stock at any time prior to January 1st, 1923, and receive in lieu and in conversion fifty per cent (50%) thereof in Common Stock, on the basis of five shares of Common Stock for each one-half share of Preferred Stock, and fifty per cent (50%) thereof in a like amount of Preferred Stock without conversion privilege.
Plant Capacity Large: The New Castle and Barberton Factories can produce 5000 tires and 6000 tubes daily, which puts the Seiberling Company among the large tire producers of the country at the outset. Besides Lehigh and Portage products the company will manufacture and sell Seiberling Cord Tires and Tubes, which will be of the highest quality and supported by consistent and continuous national advertising.
Values Back of Preferred Stock: On the basis of appraised value of plants and sale of this offering in blocks of seven shares (as described above) the total assets will be 218% and net current assets 125% of the Par Value of Preferred Stock outstanding.
Earning Prospects of Common Stock: The Common Stock represents all the equity in a going concern of conservative capitalization, and a product of assured market. The automobile industry is on a sound and permanent basis. There is no danger of over-production of high-grade tires and the development of the use of rubber for countless purposes is still in its infancy. The combination of experienced management, conservative plant investment, large capacity for production, small non-productive labor cost, and no financial burdens, inflated inventories or other handicaps give the Seiberling Company a marked advantage over most other tire companies.
No Common Stock will be sold at less than $10 a share, and there are no bonus features of any sort.

Some Facts Relating to this Offering
The Men Back of It:
Mr. F. A. Seiberling, President, has been identified with the rubber industry for over twenty years, and is known as the man who created the greatest tire producing and selling company in the world. Mr. C. W. Seiberling, Vice President in charge of Purchases, shares with Mr. F. A. Seiberling the distinction of building Goodyear success. Mr. I. R. Bailey, Vice President in charge of Sales, served at Goodyear for many years, and developed their great annual business in mechanical rubber goods. Mr. Wm. S. Wolfe, Vice President in charge of Production, also an old Goodyear man, is one of the foremost in the industry in his knowledge of production methods. Mr. Wm. A. M. Vaughan, Treasurer, has had 17 years of experience in banking and finance, and has also an intimate acquaintance with the automobile tire business.
The Assets Back of It:
The Seiberling Rubber Company owns all the equity in the Lehigh Plant at New Castle, Pa., and the Portage Plant at Barberton, Ohio. These plants on actual appraisal are valued at $2,300,000.00, are in good condition, well equipped and ready to go ahead with immediate production. They were purchased at about two-thirds their actual value and the Seiberling Company purchased only actual physical assets—no inflated inventories or commitments, no unpaid obligations or liabilities, and no bonded indebtedness. The total equity of these plants is owned by the Seiberling Company free of all liabilities and prior liens with the single exception of $800,000 of preferred stock of the Portage Company issued to former owners in lieu of cash for purchase of the property.
Plant Investment Low:
Plant investment is lower in proportion to capacity for output than that of any other large tire company and is already financed, this offering being for the purpose of securing funds for liquid working capital. These facts in conjunction with the ability and experience of the management imply—in the judgment of men experienced in the tire industry—maximum earning capacity for every dollar of invested capital.

Plant Capacity Large:
The New Castle and Barberton Factories can produce 5000 tires and 6000 tubes daily, which puts the Seiberling Company among the large tire producers of the country at the outset.
