"Dinna Ye Mind" How Your Sweet Old Mother Used to Say "A green Christmas means a White Easter" and "a windy Saint Patrick's Day"?
Truly the words of the old mother have a long life. They keep on coming back and coming back.

"The mither's breath is aye sweet."

A full-grown young daughter is saying, proud and happy to have a mother living to give a present to this Christmas!

President Harrison's old Indiana friend, Lew Wallace, who wrote "Ben Hur," once said, "God may have thought He could not be everywhere, therefore He made mothers."

Women's Fine Untrimmed Coats Reduced to $75 and $150

They are such fine coats in fact, that those at $150 are odds and ends of the handsomest coats without fur that we have had this season. Every one has been much higher priced.
They are beautiful silk-and-wool duvetyns, in black and light and dark colors. Many are elaborately embroidered and the collars are such that they can be worn equally well with or without furs.
Those at $75 are bolivias and silk-and-wool duvetyns, all have the new features, and there are all the new shades among them, but only one or two of each style. These, too, have been much more in price.

Such Black Silk Waists as Older Women Like

We always have many requests for them at Christmas time, and this year there are a number of particularly good styles.
They are made of soft radium, crepe de chine and satin; one model has a square neck, another a roll collar and there are three styles with collars which can be worn high or low.
Prices start at $6.75 and go to $9.
(Third Floor)

The Tuxedo Coat for Her Sports Skirts

This may be something which she has needed for a long time, and Christmas brings the opportunity for somebody to give it to her.
It is a warm all-wool coat in brown, buff, navy or black, the favorite colors for such skirts, and the price is $8.50.
(First Floor)

Women's Satin Boudoir Slippers

There are plenty of women who always choose the pretty things of life for other people and keep the plain things themselves. These are among the kind especially to remember with a pair of these cozy and dainty satin slippers.
Quilted satin with leather sole and low, broad heel, $2.75.
Quilted satin mules and d'Orsay slippers, each with low French heel, $4 and $4.50. Black, pink, blue or rose color.

Headquarters for Handbags

Handbags are one of the most satisfactory gifts for a woman because all women like to have a variety of them to carry with different costumes.
Here is a collection of handbags which customers tell us has no counterpart in Philadelphia.
Handbags of leather in black and colors, including delightful pastel shades, and some striking two-color combinations. Pin seal, long-grain seal, calfskin in various finishes, ostrich leather and other fine leathers.
Handbags of silk duvetyn, the finer ones brocaded or decorated with beadwork.
Handbags of silk and velvet, also beaded, and some superb examples with heavy sterling silver frames.
Mourning handbags of fabrics, leather or jet.
Beaded bags in wonderful assortment, from dainty little dinner bags to sumptuous antiques with silver frames.
Many of the handbags are imported and some of the leather bags have gold corners or flexible edges.
Prices range from $3 to $250.

The Infants' Store Reduces Its Coats and Hats

To women who know this unique Baby Outfitting Shop this announcement tells its own story of opportunity. With few exceptions, the entire remaining collection of Winter coats and hats for children of 2 to 6 years has been sharply reduced. The new prices approximate at least a third less than formerly. They are
Coats, Now $10 to $50
Hats, Now $2.75 to $20
The coats include velours, broadcloths, all-wool mixtures, velveteens and velvets; the finer ones fur trimmed.
Hats of beaver, broadcloth and velvet, some matching coats. French models are included.
(Third Floor)

Young Women's Warm Sturdy Topcoats at $20

For a girl or young woman lacking a warm coat this would be a practical and sensible gift. The coats we have at $20 are exceptional value. They are of thick, warm bolivia cloth or all-wool leather mixtures, smartly made in three good-looking models.
One style has a fur collar, the other two have high-buttoning collars of the cloth. They are well lined and interlined, and at this price they offer a coat value such as has not been seen for many a day.
Two shades of brown, black or midnight blue may be chosen, and the sizes run from 14 to 20.

Oriental Rugs That Mirror a Wild Sense of Beauty

The nomad's sense of the beautiful in color and decoration is nowhere more naively reflected than in Kazak rugs. The same is true in a lesser sense of Daghestans and Cabistans.
Kazaks are conspicuous for their daring designs and emphatic contrasts of color.
In Daghestans the contrasts are no less vivid, but the figuration is smaller.
In both the note of primitive boldness is sufficiently striking to invest the rugs with a special interest for gift-seekers.
The dark, rich red tones of Beluchistans appeal very strongly to them also.
Kazaks, about 4.6x7 ft. to 5x8 ft., $65 to $145.
Daghestans and Cabistans, about 3x5 to 4x7 ft., $65 to $145.
Beluchistans, about 3.4x6 ft., $65 to $75.

Handkerchief Cases Sent From Paris

And destined for some women who would love such a dainty place in which to tuck away their prettiest handkerchiefs.
They are cunningly fashioned of silk, real lace and bits of the finest hand embroidery. There are some novelties, too, with gold lace and silk flowers and tinsel balls.
Also, some flat envelope cases for the woman who travels and who has to think of economy of space. Prices are $3 to $15.
(Main Floor)

Yes, Even Corsets

are being chosen for practical gifts, especially such models as these—
Tree elastic girdles for dancing or general wear, $3.50 to $10.
L. R. girdles, made of elastic and coull and of elastic and broche, some lined in back, $2 to $4; others, slip-on models, are $2 to $4.50.
American Lady belt girdles of pink broche and elastic, very short, $3.50. Dainty bandeaux to match, $1.
(Third Floor)

"The Kashmiri Song"

as sung in a local popular play, may be had in a volume of "Indian Love Lyrics," containing four songs of Laurence Hope's, set to music by Amy W. Finner. The volume is $1.15. Or the song may be had separately, at 40c. In both settings it is arranged for either high or low voice.
(Second Floor)

For Women Who Wish a Practical Street Boot

here is a high laced shoe of smooth tan calfskin that is one of the best values we have ever had for $10. It comes from a man's shoemaker who uses only plump, full leathers, and in this shoe he has put the service of a man's boot and the style of a woman's.
Medium toe and vamp, with straight perforated tip; military heel, extension welted sole of extra quality.

New Blankets of Warmth and Beauty

If you are looking for a pair of pure wool blankets that combine beauty of looks with the qualities of warmth and service, you should see these excellent new ones, woven of pure California wool, warp and filling.
They have very attractive borders in rose, pink and blue and a binding of soisette.
Double-bed size, 5 lbs., price $13.50 a pair.
A pair of these will be certain to find a warm welcome in any home.
New also, a lot of all-wool plaid blankets, woven in large, square block designs, in light rose and blue, double-bed size, and specially good for the money. $12 a pair.
(Sixth Floor)

A Highboy Is a Gift for Generations

Like a fine Oriental rug or a grandfather clock, it is a gift that is destined to become a family heirloom.
Something about a highboy puts it in a class with the great, solid, valuable and eminently useful things and at the same time envelops it in an atmosphere of sentiment.
It seems as if every real highboy should be in the Chippendale style, but quite a few people have a particular leaning for the Queen Anne type.
Highboys in both of these periods are shown here in a choice beyond anything to be found elsewhere.
What is true of highboys is true to a practically equal degree of lowboys, of which we show an incomparable collection.
All of these highboys and lowboys are members of one family. They carry the resemblance in their contour and in their ornamental details, satin finishes, brass hardware and elaborately carved feet. Many of the flambeau order.
Nearly all of these pieces are of mahogany.
Highboys are priced at $120 to $360.
Lowboys from $105 to $185.
