Brunswick

All Phonographs in One for Christmas

Again Young Lochinvar comes out of the West—we introduced this very exquisite talking machine about a year ago—today, by sheer merit it has won ownership from ocean to ocean. Backed by an ideal and supported by a long purse the Brunswick won!

These are its outstanding features—

The Ultona—the Brunswick reproducer that combines in one simple arm the contact points of all makes of phonographs—plays each make of records as it was meant to be played.

The oval wooden amplifier—source of the Brunswick violin-toned quality—purity of vocal reproduction.

The unusual dignity and beauty of Brunswick period models.

Monthly Payments $5 or some such convenient sum

Brunswick records are most perfectly made, and very durable; can be played on any machine.
