DARK HORSES LOOM IN 1922 TITLE PLAY OF BARNYARD GOLF

Great Horseshoe-Pitching Tourney Gets Under Way Today at St. Petersburg, Fla.—Over 7000 Spectators, It Is Said, Will See Competition

By ROBERT W. MAXWELL
Sports Editor Evening Public Ledger

THE great horseshoe-pitching tournament to determine the 1922 champion of the United States and all other countries where the pitchers pitch got under way in Williams Park today. For months the natives and temporary citizens of this city have been eagerly waiting for the big event, and the bewhiskered and besuspended athletes are in excellent form. They trained hard and even now have no excuses to offer.

This year the tournament is more popular than ever before. Everybody has been reading about it, because there were two days of rain last week. On rainy days the paper is given away free, and it is said on good authority that on those occasions the circulation is five times larger than normal.

Preparations have been made to handle the largest crowd in history. It has been announced that new stands have been constructed and there will be room for 7500. This announcement was hailed with great glee by the fans until some guy versed in figures discovered that each of the 7500 spectators would be allowed only four inches of space. That caused considerable consternation, to say nothing of chagrin. However, the 7500 crowd is their story and they will stick to it.

Just the same, there will be a big crowd at all of the thrilling matches this week. The wise crackers know how to draw the mob—they do not charge any admission fee, and gratis attractions always go big in this section, because a lot of tourists are here to spend the winter only.

It will not be so easy for the brachetars and tree-climbers this year. The tropical storm which cut through St. Petersburg last fall blew down many of the trees in the park, and the sixty-year-old kids who wear knickerbockers, loud stockings and caps set at a rakish angle cannot throw their whiskers over their shoulders and climb to the high branches. Thus one of the picturesque features has been eliminated.

THE town doesn't care any more about this tournament than a big league city holding its first World Series. Merchants have contributed for the prizes and some $1500 will be split up among the first ten.

Seventy-six-Year-Old Star Seeks Title

ALREADY there are rumors of dark horses and mysterious whisperings about athletes who have been practicing new stuff. Henry J. Horne, of Atlantic City, who finished fourth last year, has not been seen on the courts for three weeks. Nobody knows where he is, but some wise birds said he was in a secret training camp practicing a new form of delivery. Last year Mr. Horne pitched a show which turned one and a half times. This year, it is claimed, he is making a new turn, and his game has improved.

Hugh Palmer, the pride of Akron, O., is here for the tourney. Hugh is seventy-six years old and wants to become a national horseshoe champion. He is one of the best in the machine shop in Akron, and the boys raised the money to send him here. Palmer gave up boxing and soccer football twenty years ago to devote all of his time to pitching.

But the real, regular dark horse is C. C. Davis, of Columbus, O. Davis never has been in a big tourney, but has met all of the champions in private matches. He trimmed all of them, and now believes he is good enough to lift the crown and all that goes with it. He is a great ringer thrower, getting as many as thirty-five in a fifty-point match. He has been going strong this winter and has all of the star pitchers worried.

It is feared that Charley Bobbitt, last year's champion, will not be here to defend his title. Bobbitt has been beaten by Davis many times and feels he cannot take a chance with him in the tournament. A committee has been appointed to meet every train and will not come back to the courts until both of them arrive.

Frank Jackson, the Kellerton, Ia., farmer, also is expected. Frank won the title in 1910 when he defeated Maya, but did not show up last year at home he slid down a ladder and a nail connected with his pitching hand. This made it impossible for him to pitch. He now is in shape again; sent in his entry.

BARNYARD golf, as they call it here, is a very lucky game. It is hard to dope out a winner because all of the athletes carry horse-shoes.

Players Have Nicknames 'n' Everything

THERE is as much excitement at a slipper-slaming tournament as at a ball game. The athletes are nicknamed and are used to answer to any other monicker. John Miller, for example, raised a leg for a while. Therefore he is known to the fans as "Hog." C. A. Giant hails from Pittsburgh, so one of the wags, after considerable thought, labeled him "Pittsburgh." Both "Hog" and "Pittsburgh" are anxious to win the championship. They would gladly curl up and die five seconds after receiving the trophy and money emblemathe of their national championship—and had pictures taken.

Miller is eighty-two years old and has been pitching for fifty years. He shaved off his whiskers last winter, but this did not help him, as he still wears visible suspenders. He is one of the real fans and trains twelve months in every year.

"I seldom am troubled with a sore arm," he said. "I keep in condition on the farm, pitching a couple of games every day. Then when I come down here I pitch three times a day, and it doesn't take long to get in tournament form. I practice in the open and never hide in the woods, like some other contestants."

"In a big match I never get excited, because I am used to it. If the crowd starts to yell I just fix my eye on the iron stake, forty-five feet away, and that calms me."

"But let me tell you," he continued seriously, "horseshoe pitching is the greatest exercise in the world. It keeps you in wonderful physical condition and you never get sick. I am just as spry as I ever was, and will keep that way as long as I pitch."

"Here is something else that you don't know. Horseshoe pitching is the greatest preventive for appendicitis. I can prove it, and that's something the doctors can't do."

"Have you any scientific reason for it?" we inquired anxiously.

"SCIENCE nothing," was the reply. "I know it prevents appendicitis because I have been pitching fifty years and never had it."

NICETOWN REORGANIZING

Manager Wise is preparing for 1922 Baseball Season

A reorganization is being made for the coming season in the Nicetown Baseball Club. Edgar Wise again will be manager and he expects to put a first-class nine on the field. Charley Simons, lefty-hitting outfielder, will be captain and field manager.

Several of last year's stars already have announced their willingness to play with Nicetown again. A number of new men also will be in uniform.

Nicotown will have its home grounds in North Philadelphia at the corner of North Phillips, S. P. H. A., American Chain, of York, Pa.; Hilldale, Cuban Stars, Felscher, Chester and Donovan & Armstrong.

Manager Wise says the first game of the season for Nicetown will be played on the last Saturday in April. Twelfth games will be played at home on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, while the team will travel on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

Wise already has started to arrange games, and he also is anxious to sign up a left-handed pitcher. His address is 2832 North Seventeenth street. Phone 2832-2.

HOCKEY TEAMS IN TIE

St. Paul's Alumni and Merion Deadlocked in Phila. League

STANDINGS OF PHILA. HOCKEY LEAGUE

Team	W.	L.	P.
St. Paul's Alumni	4	1	200
Merion	4	1	200
Philadelphia C. C.	3	2	150
Washington	2	3	100
Germania	2	4	50
Wayne H. C.	2	5	250
Lancaster	1	6	250

St. Paul's Alumni Ice hockey team defeated the Wayne hockey team at the Ice Palace yesterday, and as a result went into a tie with the Merion Cricket Club hockey team for first place honors in the Philadelphia Ice Hockey League.

While the St. Paul's skaters won by a wide margin of eleven goals to nothing, the Wayne hockey players showed improved form and served notice that ere the close of the present season they will be a factor to be reckoned with in the Germantown Cricket Club hockey team failed to appear in its game with Lanerach, and as the latter team also was among the absent, two picked teams, the West Phillies and the Wayne Hovers, played a game which resulted in a victory for the West Phillies by the score of 5 to 0.
