

LITTLE BENNY'S NOTEBOOK
By Lee Page

I was up in my room reading Across the Barbers on a Camel and I was just up to the most exciting part were the robbers jump out from in back of the pyramids when the dinner bell rang for supper, me thinking, Aw heck, I'm going to finish this chapter.

And I started to read fast as anything and after a while I called up, Benny, did you hear that bell?

Well, yes man, I'm coming, I called down. And I started to read even faster, and after a while I called up, Benny, how many invitations do you need for one meal?

Yes sir, here I come, I called down. Only having 2 more pages to go to finish the chapter and the robbers was still firing, so I quick finished the chapter and the robbers turned around and ran at the last line and then I jumped up and started to move my furniture around a little thinking, G. I better have a good excuse for being so long.

And I went down and was in the dining room with a ery expression, saying, O, you have finally con-

...succeeded to honor us with your company, have you?

I was fixing up my room, I sed, and pop sed, O miracle of miracles, he was fixing up his room, and me sed, If he did it was the first time in his life, did you put your shoes in your closet instead of leaving them decorating various parts of the floor the way they were this morning?

No mam, I didnt have time for that, I sed, and pop sed, Well while you were fixing up did you dispose of that quaint pile of shavings that I noticed

...in one corner the last time I passed your door?

Sit, no sir, I was just going to but at the last minute I didnt have time, I sed, and me sed, Did you clean the rubbish off your desk as I have bin suggesting to you for the past few weeks?

I will, I sed, Meaning I didnt, and pop sed, In other words you fixed up your room just the way you found it, sit down and eat your supper.

Which I did, feeling lucky nothing worse happened.

Some important things to remember
—about Baltimore & Ohio train service from Philadelphia

From Philadelphia, the Baltimore & Ohio has over 5000 miles of track intermediate to its Western terminals—Chicago and St. Louis. It serves 12 States and reaches with its own rails over 1000 cities and towns.

Our Philadelphia offices can ticket you, not only to any point on the Baltimore & Ohio System, but to any destination on or reached via its connecting lines.

Our two convenient stations may be quickly and easily reached from any section of the city. Subway and surface cars pass our Chestnut Street Station, while many trolley lines make our Wayne Junction Station exceptionally convenient for residents of Germantown and North Philadelphia.

And finally, remember that our 1337 Walnut Street Ticket Office is virtually a "travel bureau." Our agents will gladly arrange itineraries, check your baggage, make Pullman reservations and render every possible service that will make your trip more pleasant and enjoyable.

Three excellent express trains leave Baltimore & Ohio Stations in Philadelphia for Chicago every day. Liberal stop-over privileges—and no extra fare.

Stations at 24th and Chestnut Sts. and Wayne Junction. Central Ticket Office at 1337 Walnut St.
