

KING GEORGE OF ENGLAND, accompanied by Rudyard Kipling, visits the graves of British soldiers in Belgium

VICTORY NO. 17 SPOILED. Pinch-hitter Clark, of Detroit, just ruined the day for these beacherites. All he did was hit a home run with two men on. Rain chased the Athletic fans from the hard boards in the eleventh

H. E. DIXON, working on the Delaware River caisson, finds the trench helmet useful when cement and dirt fall

COMPLETING MUCK LOCKS. Workmen ready to place cables that will be used in hoisting mud from the Delaware River

MRS. HENRY FORD ARRIVES IN BOSTON. The wife of the automobile magnate is stepping from her private car "Fairlawn"

DOROTHY LIGHT-FOOT, fancy diver and speed swimmer, wins first prize at Kensington Y. W. C. A.

FLINT HANNER, Stanford University, picked to win javelin throw in intercollegiate meet

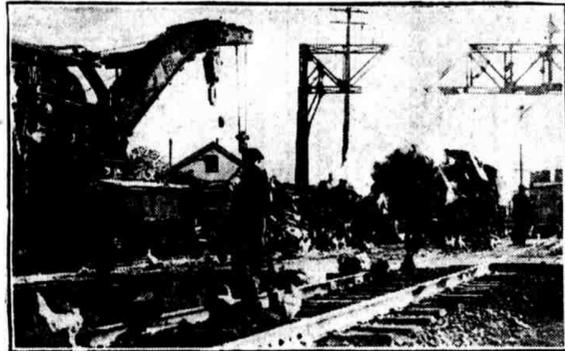

JUST BEFORE HE HIT A HOMER. Karback, center field for Germantown High School, went the distance, scoring Whitney ahead of him. O'Meara is catching for Episcopal. The umpire is Rumsey

MANY CHEERS FOR GERMANTOWN HIGH. No wonder they were victorious. Look at the fair rooters in action. Gwendlyn Taylor and Mildred Tees hesitated just long enough to punish some "pop"

THEY'LL ALL BE IN TOWN ON SATURDAY. The powerful Syracuse University varsity crew is among the eight college crews that have entered the American Henley, to be held on the Schuylkill. The veteran coach, James A. Ten Eyck (right)

ANY ONE COULD PICK UP A CHICKEN HERE. A car loaded with chickens was in a New York Central Railway wreck, near Peekskill, N. Y. The chickens fled in every direction

HAVE YOU MET "MIKE"? The monkey is owned by Post 251, Veterans of Foreign Wars. He was a visitor at the Zoo

PRESIDENT DIEGO MANUEL CHAMORRO, of Nicaragua. Rebels seek to oust him

MISS VEME HITCHCOCK, of Washington, whose engagement has just been announced

THE REV. R. E. KERN, who has accepted call as pastor of the Lutheran church at Hamburg

HE SWINGS A WICKED BRUSH. Wm. D. Setz, whose job in baseball is to take care of the Athletics' scoreboard

THE DUKE OF YORK plays tennis on the courts at Roehampton

"GREY TOWERS." It's the home of Gifford Pinchot, at Milford, Pa. The Republican nominee for Governor, Mrs. Pinchot and their son, "Fish," are enjoying a few days of quiet life here

JURY DISAGREES. No verdict was found in trial of Willie Dalton, 17, charged with stealing $772,000 worth of Liberty Bonds

GETTING READY FOR A STREET FAIR. Society folk of New York keep guard on "porkers." Left to right, Mrs. Lyttleton Fox, Mrs. Finley P. Dunn and Mrs. B. G. Collier

SENATOR F. H. CARAWAY, of Arkansas, who is pressing charges against Attorney General Daugherty

MRS. F. W. ABBOTT talks of the results of Music Week in Editorial Page interview

ERNEST COZENS will be Penn's graduate manager after September 1st

DID YOU EVER GET OFF A TRAIN AT THIS STATION? It's the Third and Berks streets Station of the Philadelphia and Reading, as it looked in June, 1900. Hector Mansfield, 2931 N. Marston street, is the contributor. Send us your old-Philadelphia views

NOTORIOUS BURGLAR KILLED IN CHICAGO. Adam Prochowski shot

MRS. JEROME HIRST

MISS MARGARETTA DIXON (Left) AND MRS. G. HENRY STETSON Mrs. Stetson, of Huntingdon Valley, won the qualifying round in the women's golf championship of Philadelphia at Noble yesterday

MRS. C. WEIDERSTIEN, OF HUNTINGDON VALLEY, AND MISS F. MCNEELY, AT THE EIGHTEENTH HOLE