

EDDIE'S BRIDE WON'T ADMIT SEPARATION

Mrs. Zimmerman Says Report of Differences With Life-guard Hubby Are Untrue

REGRETS NOTORIETY

Mrs. Reba Lane Zimmerman, the rich and handsome bride of "Eddie" Zimmerman, one-time popular life guard at Manhattan Beach, New York, refused today to explain the report that the fall of the wild waves had hurled her husband back to his former position.

Mrs. Zimmerman, who lives in a large mansion at 231 West Tulpehocken street, Germantown, left her home at 7 o'clock this morning. At 10 o'clock she drove on the front door of her home in a roadster, with two of her young children in the front seat. A young man attired in a gray suit with a straw hat occupied the rear seat. The party immediately entered the house.

Mrs. Zimmerman was "not at home" to callers. A maid answered the door and said her mistress was "away for the day," and intimated she had gone to Atlantic City. But after an hour of session Mrs. Zimmerman came from the house, and looked the roadster to the front gate, where she stopped a moment to answer questions.

Mrs. Zimmerman was attired in a becoming black suit, and wore a wide-brimmed black hat. She smiled as she sat at the wheel of the roadster, and replied briefly to her questioners. "There is really no truth in the rumors that have been published," she said. "So much notoriety is painful to me. I would rather not discuss my husband's whereabouts. He often goes to New York on business. Any statements he is supposed to have made should be verified by him. Everything has been exaggerated, and I do not care to discuss the matter any further; it is might lead to more misunderstanding."

Mrs. Zimmerman added that she had an important engagement and could not take time to give a detailed statement. She backed the car from the driveway and drove down Tulpehocken street. Eddie, sun-tanned from a winter spent in Southern resorts with his pretty wife, stood on the beach bare-legged and bare-footed yesterday, admitted that the surf-bath and the can-buoy held charms for him that were well nigh irresistible.

At Manhattan Beach, not far from Eddie's post, shuttered and boarded, and with a "For Sale" sign prominently displayed upon it, stands the white home which Mrs. Zimmerman's first husband, Cornelius Lane, Jr., millionaire member of the printing firm of Allen, Lane & Scott, of this city, built for her and their three children.

Mr. Lane died suddenly just after the housewarming during the Christmas season of 1914. He and his wife were married last thirty years of age. Eddie, who lived in Philadelphia, in a stately old home on the street below Eighth, for many years. Mr. Lane built the home at Manhattan Beach, so that the children could have the best of both worlds—the city and the seashore. After his death Mrs. Kane and her children remained there.

"Eddie" Zimmerman came into the picture in 1917, when his attention was attracted to the children, who were marked. He was then thirty, the most noted of the guards at the beach, with many thrilling rescues to his credit, tall, broad-shouldered and strong, with a sunny smile and a pleasing personality. He taught the Lane children and Mrs. Lane to swim, and was seen with her more and more.

Young Mrs. Lane was married to the life-guard early in June of last year. The wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. D. J. McCarthy, pastor of St. Mark's Catholic Church, in Sheepshead Bay.

After the honeymoon they returned to Manhattan Beach, where the bride was attended by the number of persons who knew Eddie. So they traveled. They visited her relatives in Pennsylvania. Occasionally they went back to Manhattan Beach to the children, who had grown very fond of their new daddy.

Last November they went to Palm Beach and stayed in Florida and the West Indies until late in February, when they returned to Philadelphia, where Mrs. Zimmerman bought the beautiful home in Germantown.

Eddie fought off inquiries yesterday. Standing sheer six feet in his bare feet, with the shoulders of Ajax, a deep brown from the Florida sun, he parried questions with "Well, what do you know?" And finally: "Oh, I like this life—it has become a part of me," he said. "I know I can't keep it up always. We all have to get old—but I'm only thirty-one. It is not the highest kind of employment, but it is certainly the most beautiful. My only thought through winter is to get back to it. The air, the sea, the people—I don't know what it is, but it gets a hold on you. Mrs. Zimmerman is the finest woman in the world, but she can't see that man who has had my sort of life cannot stand a quiet, secluded life away from everybody he knows. I just couldn't."

"Wasn't there some objection to your going into the brokerage business in New York? Didn't your wife refuse to back you?"

Auto Dealer Dead

G. HILTON GANTERT Well known along Motor Row for the last eighteen years, who died last night

AUTOMOBILE DEALER DIES

G. Hilton Gantert Well Known in Motor Circles in Philadelphia G. Hilton Gantert, connected with the automobile trade in Philadelphia for the last eighteen years, died last night at his home, 907 Wynnewood road, Overbrook.

He was one of the charter members of the Quaker City Motor Club and had been starter at the Fairmount Park auto, and initiated the members of her home in Philadelphia.

He had been Philadelphia agent for several well-known automobile companies. A widow, son and daughter survive.

CHILDREN'S HOME AIDED

Mrs. J. R. Jones Left $5000 to Atlantic City Institution A bequest of $5000 to the Children's Seashore Home at Atlantic City was made in the will of Mary H. Jones, widow of Joshua H. Jones, which was admitted to probate today.

Mrs. Jones died at her Atlantic City home May 15. She also left $1000 to the W. C. T. U. The residue of the estate of $565,000 was bequeathed in equal parts to three daughters, Mrs. Maudie J. Howell, Mrs. M. H. Lawrence and Mrs. Elsie J. Hampton, all of this city.

The estate of Elizabeth G. Branstetter, of 1013 South Forty-ninth street, who died May 15, amounting to $112,504, is divided among her three daughters, Mrs. Mary E. Church, Mrs. Anna E. Ellis and Elizabeth H. Branstetter.

Other wills admitted to probate today were as follows: Harriet Bloomingdale, 1008 South Forty-seventh street, $23,031; Mary Coweney, 5119 Catherine street, $9600; Charles Hittus, Wildwood, N. J., $20,500; Katharine Gueting, 2555 North Franklin street, $8000; Gertrude Knoll, 482 Locum avenue, $35,500; Ida Max, 628 South Fifty-sixth street, $6500; Rachel W. Stevenson, 1830 North Eighteenth street, and Berale E. Takara, 4051 Powelton avenue, $10,000.

The inventory of the personal estate of Ira C. Sarpel amounted to $9998.50.

TWO FIGHT EXTRADITION

Men Held in Baltimore Believed Implicated in Hold-Up Here Captain of Detectives Souder and Detective Clegg left for Baltimore this morning, where they will endeavor to have returned to this city two men alleged to have had a part in a payroll hold-up here February 18.

The two, Bruno Stusky and James Duffy, have filed a writ against the extradition papers sent from this city and will make a bid to keep out of the hands of the Philadelphia police. They were arrested about a month ago in Baltimore as implicated in a big cloth robbery.

The men are thought to be two of the five who held up and robbed James Winthrop, messenger of Samuel T. Linn & Co., 5520 Arch street, of the week's payroll of $2924. Two men were arrested and are being held for the Grand Jury, after the hold-up, which took place at Sixty-fifth and Arch streets.

BAND CONCERT TONIGHT

The Municipal Band will play tonight at Eleventh and York streets.

FINE FRAMING

Etchings—Prints Water Colors—Paintings THE ROSENBERG GALLERIES 1320 Walnut Street

A mistake in building lives

To guard yourself against the error that is always in your eye, there is one sure rule—be sure of your architect and your builder.

F.L. HOOVER & SONS

INCORPORATED BUILDING CONSTRUCTION Since 1869 1021-1023 CHERRY STREET

THE SAVOY OPERA CO.

presents "IOLANTHE" (by Gilbert & Sullivan) South Broad St. Theatre May 25, 26 and 27—at 8.15 P. M. Tickets on Sale at the Box-Office

Summer Cleaning

Your summer dresses, waists and skirts can be beautifully dry cleaned by a method that restores and gives the appearance of being new. Our process is acknowledged the country over as the best of its kind.

OVER A CENTURY OF SERVICE Barrett, Nephews & Co. Old State Lane Dyeing Establishment N. W. Cor. 12th & Sansom (118 S. 12th St.) Phone 1666 Walnut

Little Girl Injured by Auto

Pearl McManus, eleven years old, of 4415 Silverwood street, Manayunk, is in the Memorial Hospital with a broken leg, cuts on the head and possible internal injuries after being knocked down by an automobile near her home yesterday afternoon.

G. O. P. CHIEFS HERE TO PICK CHAIRMAN

Pinchot, Pepper, Reed, Leslie and Others to Recast State Committee

SPROUL DROPS ASPIRATIONS

Gifford Pinchot, Republican nominee for Governor, Senator Pepper and Major David A. Reed, senatorial nominees, and other Republican State leaders will meet in this city tomorrow for a conference at which two important matters will be discussed.

There is to be a reconstituting of the Republican State Committee and a candidate for Republican national committee must be selected. Mr. Pinchot came down from his Pike County home yesterday to superintend the maneuvers in the battle for the chairmanship of the State Committee, which is aspired to by W. Harry Baker, now its secretary, and former State Banking Commissioner Fisher.

Mr. Baker is favored for chairman by the Vero-Leslie organization. Senator Max Leslie arrived yesterday with ex-Mayor Armstrong, of Pittsburgh. According to Mr. Leslie, Baker will be opposed by John S. Fisher. Mr. Pinchot had nothing to say when he arrived here. During his stay he is the guest of James Elverson, Jr.

A hard blow at the discredited Capitol Hill combine is seen in the announcement of Governor Sproul that he will not be a candidate for national committee. In his official statement he says he "has no desires or ambitions for further public honor or service," and "under no circumstances will I be a candidate or accept election as Republican national committee-man."

With the defeat of Alter, and Senator T. Larry Eyer, of Chester County, beaten for State committee, Sproul is credited with having seen the light and quit.

Is Blow to Grundy

This statement of the Governor's

Well cut, softly tailored of handsome blue Cheviot, unfinished worsted or serge in plain Herringbone and self patterns. It is the most unobtrusive of suits, yet always distinguished because of its modesty. Always in perfect taste, always in style, the most useful and durable of all suits. Our blue suits are matchless values at $35 to $65.

NOTE—MacDonald & Campbell Standard Quality White Flannel Trousers. Superior in style, shapeliness and service, $10.

1334-1336 Chestnut Street

All-wool is best in the long run! Rogers Peet clothes prove it! Lasting satisfaction!

Knox straws to top 'em off!

FERRO & COMPANY Rogers Peet Clothes Chestnut St. at Juniper

JUST as important as the message conveyed by your letter is the impression conveyed by your letterhead.

THE HOLMES PRESS, Printers 1315-29 Cherry Street Philadelphia

Patent Leather, Black or Tan Russia, $9 White Linen, $7.50 White Kid, $11

HARPERS 1228 MARKET Walk-Over SHOPS 1022 CHESTNUT

CAN you afford cheap clothes?

It isn't everybody who can afford cheap clothes. There are many men who haven't the means to stand the continual drain of buying bargains. They simply must have quality. These men are the logical buyers of Jacob Reed's Sons Clothes, which are made for men whose means may be limited, but whose vision is not.

$30 is our basic price—from that upward to $75 we present clothing that represents true economy.

JACOB REED'S SONS 1424-1426 Chestnut Street

AWARD ROAD CONTRACT

New Highway to Be Built Between Barnesboro and Glassboro The Gloucester County Board of Freeholders today awarded the contract for building a new road between Barnesboro and Glassboro, a distance of five miles, to Michael Staub, of Swedesboro. Construction of the road is to cost $180,700.44.

The board also issued an order for the Public Service Trolley Company to re-locate its tracks in Woodbury, N. J. At the upper and lower end of Broad street, Woodbury, the tracks are located on either side of the street, and the board ordered that they be placed in the center of the street.

The county will pay the cost of the work, but under the reimbursement act it is to be repaid the county by the trolley company in 1926.

COLONEL RAPS WIDENER'S SOLDIER OUSTER DEFENSE

28th Division Officer Thinks Criticism Comes Rather Late "It is a wonder that a person having criticism to offer would wait a year to do it," said Colonel R. M. Brookfield, 2109 Porter street, today after reading the letter presented to the Councilmanic Committee on City Property yesterday by Joseph E. Widener, a member of the Park Commission.

Colonel Brookfield, who was a member of the Twenty-eighth Division during the World War, was only one of numerous Twenty-eighth Division men in the city to take exception to the letter of Mr. Widener relating that a year ago a unit of the division "abused" the privilege of using the City Hall plaza.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

BLAINE PUPILS TO DRILL

Judge Lewis Speaks at Closing of Term Today Judge William M. Lewis was the speaker at the closing meeting of the term of the Blaine Home and School Association at Thirtieth and Norris streets this afternoon.

The feature of the program was an entertainment by pupils of the school and at a business session officers were elected and reports of the year's work read.

In the entertainment there were piano and violin solos, songs, dances and drills. Pupils taking part are Mollie Bell, Frances Gordon, Anna Greek, Eleanor Goldberg, Henrietta Ledger, Alexandra Fort, Adeline Brodenbach, Helen Sachman and Clara Brown.

It is a wonder that a person having criticism to offer would wait a year to do it," said Colonel R. M. Brookfield, 2109 Porter street, today after reading the letter presented to the Councilmanic Committee on City Property yesterday by Joseph E. Widener, a member of the Park Commission.

Colonel Brookfield, who was a member of the Twenty-eighth Division during the World War, was only one of numerous Twenty-eighth Division men in the city to take exception to the letter of Mr. Widener relating that a year ago a unit of the division "abused" the privilege of using the City Hall plaza.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

AWARD ROAD CONTRACT

New Highway to Be Built Between Barnesboro and Glassboro The Gloucester County Board of Freeholders today awarded the contract for building a new road between Barnesboro and Glassboro, a distance of five miles, to Michael Staub, of Swedesboro. Construction of the road is to cost $180,700.44.

The board also issued an order for the Public Service Trolley Company to re-locate its tracks in Woodbury, N. J. At the upper and lower end of Broad street, Woodbury, the tracks are located on either side of the street, and the board ordered that they be placed in the center of the street.

The county will pay the cost of the work, but under the reimbursement act it is to be repaid the county by the trolley company in 1926.

COLONEL RAPS WIDENER'S SOLDIER OUSTER DEFENSE

28th Division Officer Thinks Criticism Comes Rather Late "It is a wonder that a person having criticism to offer would wait a year to do it," said Colonel R. M. Brookfield, 2109 Porter street, today after reading the letter presented to the Councilmanic Committee on City Property yesterday by Joseph E. Widener, a member of the Park Commission.

Colonel Brookfield, who was a member of the Twenty-eighth Division during the World War, was only one of numerous Twenty-eighth Division men in the city to take exception to the letter of Mr. Widener relating that a year ago a unit of the division "abused" the privilege of using the City Hall plaza.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.

Mr. Widener presented his charge to the committee during a meeting resulting from the trouble arising when the Park Commission refused that a year ago to take the Parkway plaza, north of City Hall, out of the commission's jurisdiction.