Nancy Wynne Speaks of a Number of Interesting Garden Parties—She Sees Miss Carter in an Attractive Costume and Tells of Miss Dixon's Prowess at College

THIS spring there seems to be a sudden "boom" on garden parties again. The first one of the season was given by Mr. and Mrs. Davis S. B. Chew in honor of their son-in-law and daughter, Captain and Mrs. Lowry Stevenson, and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. David...

will sail for Europe on June 20, where she expects to remain until the fall. Mr. and Mrs. D. Knickerbocker Boyd of their daughter, Miss Lyabeth Boyd, of the Coronado Apartments, Baltimore, on Saturday, July 1, for Cape May, N. Jersey, where they will spend the summer at the Chalfonts Hotel. The management of Miss Boyd and Mr. Henry Peter Bone has been recently announced.

Miss Hannah Elliott, who will marry Mr. Walter C. Pew on June 24

It is to be hoped that the weather will be much more propitious for the party which Mrs. Horace Bingham will give today at her home on Radnor in honor of Viola Homer. Viola is the niece of Mrs. Constance Viola B. Bess, and will marry George R. Bess, on June 20. After the tea there will be a supper for the bride party. Dorothy Burr is to be the maid of honor, and Mrs. Upton and Miss Mary Page Platt the bridesmaids.

Mr. and Mrs. John Edward Zimmerman of 1818 De Lancey place, who are occupying their place at Chestnut Hill, will leave on Wednesday, July 5, for the autumn where they will remain until the autumn. Young, of St. Davida. Miss Johnson, who is a granddaughter of Mr. Edward M. Sayen, of this city, made her debut last winter.

MARY CARTER is very attractive. I saw her several days ago in Bryn Mawr wearing a white dress with a hat of dark blue straw with a bunch of brilliant red poppies hanging on the right side. The hat was small and sort of a poke-bonnet style, which is becoming. Mary, who is the younger sister of Virginia Carter, is coming out next fall. Virginia has been quite ill for the few weeks, but she may be better now, which, I am sure, every one will be glad to hear.

THE JUNIOR Charity Dance will be given at the Y. M. C. A. on Wednesday evening, June 14, under the auspices of the Cradle Club of St. Vincent's. The committee, of which Mrs. Leslie M. Smith, Mrs. Robert E. Sackell and Mrs. Edward Carpenter.

LOUISE DIXON, the youngest daughter of Mr. T. Henry Dixon, of Chestnut Hill, has been at Wellesley College for the last two years instead of coming out. She is awfully attractive and very popular up there, and just what I've just heard, she is just as athletic as her many cousins—Molly Thayer, who shines at tennis; Margaret Sharpless, who is so good at ice hockey; and Margaret, who has developed into one of the best of the younger golfers in this city (she qualified to play in the intercity matches between Philadelphia, Boston and New York, you know).

THE marriage of Miss Daisy Isabel Gray, of Narberth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gray, of Detroit, and Mr. Harrison Edsall, of Bryn Mawr, took place on Thursday afternoon, June 1, at the Church in Paoli. The officiating minister was the Rev. J. H. O'Connell, pastor of the church. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, after which Mr. and Mrs. Gray left for Bryn Mawr, where they will live in Collingdale after June 15.

The home does a great deal of wonderful work and a number of people are interested in it.

THE Women's Aid of the Episcopal Convocation of North Philadelphia will give a garden party and fete at Wyck, Germantown avenue and Walnut lane, on Thursday, June 8, from 2 to 5 P. M. Mrs. Jules Hanley and her family, of West Penn street, have left to occupy their cottage in Ocean City, where they will remain until the fall.

Sinn, chairman of social activities, is in charge.
