Cool off on the Great Lakes

Do you realize the waters of Lake Superior never rise above 40°—that while you are sweltering, it is as cool as May on the Lake?

What if you can't take time for a regular vacation. Take a five-day trip on the Canadian Pacific Railway's Clyde-built steamers from Port McNicoll through the Great Lakes and back. You'll return with rare appetite for work.

Roomy cabins, spacious decks, a splendid cuisine—tea on deck under lacy awnings while you enjoy a gorgeous lake sunset or luxuriate in the balmy breeze from untrod pine woods.

If you have more time include a week of trout fishing on the Nipigon River, or at Lake of the Woods.

Spending Your Vacation In the Land of Jacques Cartier

Here are Thrills—Here is Romance and Adventure—that Will Take You Back to the Days of French Occupation.

THIS year pack your vacation with interest and variety. Here, indeed, are thrills and adventure; an ever-changing panorama of charm and beauty on the trip from "Niagara to the Sea".

Breasting the waves on Lake Ontario's broad expanse; threading your way through the Thousand Islands of the historic St. Lawrence River; shooting the Rapids the dusky red men descended in their bark canoes.

You stop at Montreal; then Quebec, where an hour's trolley trip will take you to the miracle-working shrine of Ste. Anne de Beaupré; then Montmorency Falls, 100 feet higher than Niagara.

From Quebec you continue your voyage down the majestic St. Lawrence towards the Sea, stopping at beautiful Murray Bay; then Tadousac, at the foot of the Laurentian Mountains, where you begin your journey up the far-famed Saguenay, with its stupendous capes, "Trinity" and "Eternity", above which the wheeling eagle is but a speck against the blue.

Throughout the trip history unfolds a story rich in memories of the past. Romantic scenes remind you of the heroes of a bygone age.

Can you afford to spend your whole vacation in any one place when such rich entertainment is within your reach?

For full information call or telephone J. W. Canvin, District Passenger Agent, 1341 Walnut St., Philadelphia, Pa., telephone Walnut 4624, or send 2c in stamps for illustrated booklet, map and guide "Niagara to the Sea" to John F. Pierce, Passenger Traffic Manager, Canada Steamship Lines, Ltd., 116 C. L. S. Building, Montreal, Canada.
