

THE FINISH of the Yale-Harvard varsity race. Yale is finishing the four-mile event, with Harvard two lengths behind, as thousands watch from the shore and from small craft on the Thames

DISBANDING OF IRISH REGIMENTS, in recognition of the Irish Free State, was marked by ceremonies at Windsor Castle. Each regiment turned over its colors to British war officials

SPEEDING AFTER THE BALL. The Bryn Mawr four defeated the Philadelphia Country Club poloists as they played in aid of the Seamen's Church Institute

ON THE SIDE LINES. Mrs. Davis Chew, Jr., a spectator at Bryn Mawr and Philadelphia Country Club polo game

LADY GREENWOOD. Doing much to bring peace to Ireland

ELEANOR UHL IN FANCY DIVING TRIALS. Some of the folk seen at Miquon Saturday. They were taking part in the Philadelphia Swimming Club open meet, held in the Schuylkill

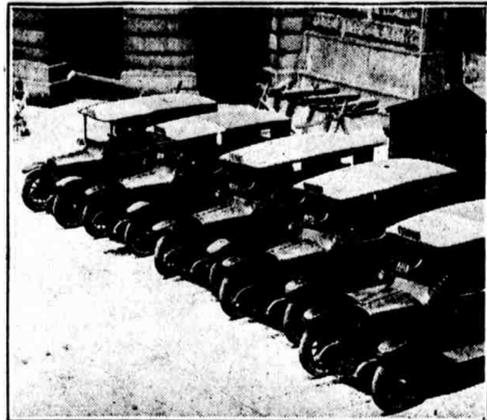

WATCHING FINISH OF THE GIRLS' 100-YARD SWIM

MAZIE SAUNDERS, AN ATLANTIC CITY DIVER

MISS FLORA DE BRETON, England's famous postcard beauty, will appear with Georges Carpentier, the French fighter, in movies

TAXICABS IN CITY HALL YARD. Superintendent of Police Mills caused the arrest of forty-four taxi drivers, who persisted in parking in front of the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel

"TOUCH BOTTOM." "Billie" Potts knows where there is good swimming when hot days happen along

GIRLS OF THE WILLIAM ELKINS MASONIC ORPHANAGE, Broad and Cayuga streets, held annual party. W. Freedland Kendrick had a wonderful time. He posed with the orphanage orchestra

JANET DORMAN, American; FRANCES BOWERS (left), and Ruth Jones, Chinese; Jane Knight, French. MANY DANCERS IN JUNIOR CHAUTAUQUA PAGEANT at Lansdowne. These girls were in the group that represented many nations

"THIS DO IN REMEMBRANCE OF ME." Jesus and the disciples at the Last Supper, a scene from "The Life of Christ," the pilgrimage play, by Christine Wetherill Stevenson, of Philadelphia. The play begins in Los Angeles on July 10

HOLDING HER OWN. A firm stand is necessary in this game. The British girl was caught by the camera at Sudbury, England

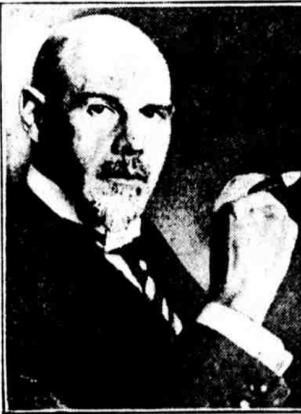

C. P. MORTON. MEMBERS OF THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD tennis team met the Philadelphia Electric Company players at Forty-fourth street and Park-side avenue

W. W. KELLER. an aide at the Samaritan Hospital fete, which continues this week

MRS. ARTHUR KURTZ, an aide at the Samaritan Hospital fete, which continues this week

DR. WALTER RATHENAU, Germany's Minister of Foreign Affairs, who was assassinated. This is a recent picture

MISS MARIA DE KOSSENKO in action at the Huntingdon Valley C. C.

MARGARET DOWD, Charlotte Boyle Clune and Aileen Riggan (left to right), each a champion and holder of world's records, will try to lower time at Brighton Beach, N. Y.

ELIZABETH KLEIN-AN sells towels to aid American Friends' Service relief work

G. H. ROSS, of Toronto, Can., elected president of Kiwanis Clubs; J. A. FOWLER, U.S. trade commissioner, returns from Dutch East India

DID YOU ATTEND THIS FOOTBALL CONTEST? Harvard and Pennsylvania were ready for the kick-off when this photograph of Franklin Field was made on Thanksgiving Day, 1894. The photographer, Baldini Schmitt, of 708 Walnut street, is the contributor. Send us your photos of old Phila.

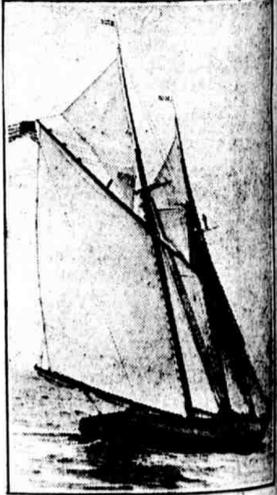

MISS MARGARET KILKENNY. She's a nifty high jumper

HARRY McGRATH ran 75 yards to have a cigarette lighted by Helen McElrone and then another 75 yards to the finish. He was second

AN INTERESTING MOMENT in the relay race

THE SCHOONER PURITAN, built to win the international fisherman trophy from the Canadian Bluenose sank during storm off Sable Island

IN DUAL TRACK AND FIELD MEET. The Curtis Country Club opened its track season at Lawndale by defeating the Corn Exchange Nat. Bank